SENATE, BY TWO VOTES MARGIN, PASSES TARIFF

House Prepares to Act on Bill Today After 44-42 Victory.

PROSPERITY TO RULE AGAIN, SAYS WATSON

Eleven Republicans, 30 Democrats Oppose on Final Test.

BORAH AND ROBINSON SEE DISAPPOINTMENT

Political Opponents Haste to Congratulate Smoot Upon His Success.

(Associated Press.)

The 18-month-old tariff bill neared the White House last night after the Senate, by a vote of 44 to 42, had given its approval to the final draft of the Hawley-Smoot measure.

The Republican-dominated House will take up today the conference agreement adjusting the differences between the two branches and adoption is confidently predicted after two or three hours of debate.

President Hoover, who initiated the legislation, will receive the measure early next week. Although he will seek counsel of experts and send the bill to the various departments interested in its administration before acting, his signature is regarded as certain by administration leaders in Congress.

That the bill will be made an important issue in the coming elections was seen yesterday as the leaders of all three Senate factions assailed and defended it before almost a full floor attendance and capacity audiences in the galleries.

Eleven Republicans Oppose.

The final roll call, taken after three hours of debate, showed 39 Republicans and 5 Democrats for the bill. Thirty Democrats, 11 Republicans and the one Farmer-Labor senator, Shipstead, of Minnesota, combined against it. The two-vote margin for the bill represented the position of the entire membership, as every senator not voting was paired.

The dramatic end of the long Senate fight through the special and regular sessions saw Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, denounce the measure as a "disappointment" even to its supporters. Senator Borah, of Idaho, the Republican independent leader, asserted it failed to meet the party pledges and would be useless to agriculture without the debenture, and Senator Watson, of Indiana, majority chieftain, championed it in a vigorous hour-and-a-half speech.

Ripping into the bill's opponents, the Republican leader waved his arms and pounded desks all around him as he termed the opposition attack the "same old argument" used against every tariff bill.

Ford and Sloan Assailed.

He assailed Henry Ford and Alfred P. Sloan, president of General Motors, for opposing the measure, asserting the "motives of these international financiers and industrialists are obvious, and portend only unemployment or cheapened labor in this country."

Watson conceded business was depressed, but predicted the Nation would be on the "upgrade financially" within 30 days from enactment of the bill and in a year's time "we shall regain the peak of prosperity and the position we lost last October.

Senator Robinson said the measure was "a disappointment to its supporters" and "instead of promoting the prosperity of agriculture it perpetuates and intensifies the inequalities and discriminations between agriculture and other industries.

Borah Sees Set-Off.

Senator Borah contended whatever benefit the farmers would receive under the bill would be more than offset by raises in industrial rates.

"How are you going to fulfill the pledge made at Kansas City to restore agriculture to an equality with industry without the debenture?" he asked. "If you raise agricultural rates and correspondingly raise industrial rates you get nowhere."

Mr. Watson had the galleries and both sides of the chamber in an uproar as he sent verbal shafts toward the Democrats. Reading from Mr. Calhoun's speeches the Indianan smilingly asked, "doesn't that sound familiar?"

"They say we live on stilts," he continued, adding: "Well, if we do, they're golden stilts, and they have put us up on a higher plane than any other people in the world."

Permitting frequent interruptions Mr. Watson answered political chal-

EXPERTS GIVE MORROW EDGE IN JERSEY RACE

Antisaloon League Heads Chief Opposition to Wall Street Man.

DEMOCRATIC BOSS MAY PROVE FACTOR

DRY LEADER STAGES SPECTACULAR FIGHT

Both Fort and Frelinghuysen Lack G. O. P. Organization Aid in Senate Fight.

By CARLISLE BARGERON.

Newark, N. J., June 13.—If Dwight W. Morrow, daddy-in-law of fame's fair-haired boy and himself apparently a man of political destiny, does not win the Republican senatorial nomination in this State Tuesday there will be a very sick bunch of Washington political writers.

About 35 of them have been here, and without an exception, so far as known, they have predicted Mr. Morrow's victory. Some of the most conservative of them have gone clean out on the limb, so to speak. At first blush it would seem rather strange that the gentlemen would be so cocksure, because there are few who think that the Morrow plurality will be fore than 40,000. That is certainly not very much of a margin in a primary expected to poll 600,000 votes.

There is Mr. Frank Hague, of Hudson County, Democratic political boss of the State and a man of many tricks, for one thing. The Democrats intend to run Alexander Simpson, prosecutor in the Hall-Mills murder case, another "wet as the Atlantic Ocean" candidate, against the winner of the Republican primary. Representative Franklin W. Fort, dry candidate in the Republican primary, would admittedly be a much easier man for Simpson to beat in November than Morrow.

Hague and the G. O. P. Primary.

The question is: Will Mr. Hague throw enough of his Hudson County Democrats into the Republican primary to defeat Mr. Morrow?

The observers here say he will not; that in the first place, he could not. They cite for one thing the Republican guberatorial race of 1928, when Mr. Hague sought to help Gov. Larson in Hudson County, against Robert Carey. The best Mr. Hague could do for Mr. Larson is said to have been 20,000 votes. If he could not do any better than that for Mr. Fort against Mr. Morrow then the anticipated 40,000 majority would, of course, not be wiped out. And there is no evidence so far that Mr. Hague intends to interfere with the Republican primary. He might very well do something between now and Tuesday, but observers do not believe that he will. After all, it is pointed out, it is pretty hard to seriously interest a State political boss in a senatorial race.

This would, however, seem t obe a more serious menace to Mr. Morrow's

COURT RULES PARTY MAY NOT BAR NEGRO

Primaries in Virginia Open to Any Race, Federal Tribunal Holds.

THREE JUDGES CONCUR

Asheville, N. C., June 13 (A.P.).—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals today ruled the Democratic party of Virginia had no right to bar "Negroes and other races" from its primary.

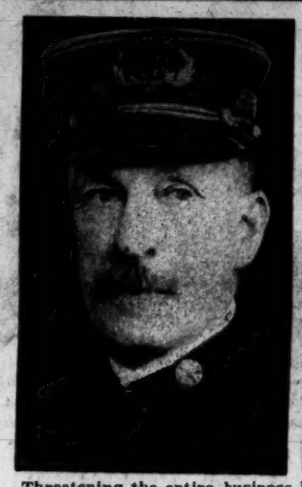

The ruling was contained in the court's opinion affirming a decision of the District Court at Richmond, Va., in the case of James O. West, Negro, vs. A. C. Billey, William Boltz and William Richer. The three defendants were Democratic judges in the precinct in which the Negro lived in Richmond.

West was refused the right to participate in the Democratic primary for selection of nominees as city officials of Richmond on April 3, 1928, on the grounds that the plan of the Democratic party, adopted June 11, 1924, limited the right to participate in its primaries to white persons.

The opinion was written by Judge Elliott Northcutt, of Huntington, W. Va.

"If all the political parties in the State of Virginia incorporated the same qualifications in their rules and regulations as did the Democratic party," he wrote, "nobody could participate in the primary except white persons and other persons would be deprived of a material right guaranteed to them under the Constitution as amended; that is, the right to participate in the selection of candidates to be voted for in the election."

The opinion was concurred in by District Judges W. E. Baker, of Elkins, W. Va., and William C. Coleman, of Baltimore.

STIMSON ALSO ANSWERS

By ALBERT W. FOX.

President Hoover and Secretary Stimson yesterday took official notice of the Senate foreign relations committee's resolution respecting the so-called secret documents passed by the committee on Thursday and dispatched to the White House and to the State Department.

The President issued a statement reasserting his faith in the naval treaty and adding that the Senate has had practical participation in every step of the making of the treaty and that there is not a scintilla of agreement or obligation of any character outside of the treaty itself.

Secretary Stimson sent a letter to the committee disclaiming any intention of defining or limiting the scope of the Senate's duty or power in passing upon treaties. Neither the President nor his Secretary of State made any mention of the secret documents or gave any intimation of being

DECISION ON CANNON RESTS WITH CURTIS

PREPARE LOBBY REPORT

(Associated Press.)

The only possibility of further action against Bishop James Cannon, jr., for his defiance of the Senate lobby committee appeared last night to hinge on a decision by Vice President Curtis whether he is required by law to report to the district attorney the churchman's refusal to answer questions.

A report of the examination of the bishop will be presented to the Senate next week by the lobby committee and Senator Blaine (Republican), Wisconsin, contends the Vice President will then have to submit the matter to the district attorney for possible contempt proceedings. A totally different view, however, is taken by Chairman Caraway, of the lobby committee.

He maintains the bishop had not legally refused to answer because the committee decided it had no author-

WHISTLE NOT HEARD AT FAIRFAX'S WHEEL

DISTRICT WOMAN HEARD

Boston, June 13 (A.P.).—From the lips of one of the only two survivors of the more than 40 persons who either were plunged or jumped into the sea last Tuesday night when the steamship Fairfax cleaved her prow into the gasoline-laden tanker Pinthis, Federal investigators of the disaster today heard fresh details of the tragedy.

The man was J. V. Eubank, of Lewisetta, Va., quartermaster of the Fairfax, whose hand had guided the wheel of the Norfolk-bound passenger liner until four minutes before the crash, which to date has claimed the lives of 47.

Eubank insisted that no whistles had been heard immediately prior to the collision. At least three of the cabin windows were open, he said, including one in front of the wheel.

Eubank had been relieved at 7 o'clock and had started aft when he sighted the tanker. At that time the Pinthis appeared to be directly across the bow of the Fairfax and her stack was in line with the passenger liner's prow.

Questioning by Dickerson N. Hoover, inspector general of the United States steamboat service, who was sitting with Capt. Charles Lyons and John Stewart, the local inspectors, elicited from Eubank an admission that although he was not sure, he "thought" the Pinthis probably had the right of way. A similar admission was made yesterday by A. J. Powell,

LADDER COLLAPSE HURTS ARE FATAL TO ACTING DEPUTY CHIEF PETER DAVIS

Five Alarms Sounded as Hardware Store of Rudolph & West on New York Avenue Is Destroyed

ENTIRE BLOCK THREATENED AS EXPLOSIONS ROCK SHOP

Three Firemen Overcome by Fumes Pouring Out of Burning Structure; Volunteers Rush to Give Blood to Stricken Officer at Emergency Hospital.

Acting Deputy Chief Peter R. Davis died late last night in Emergency Hospital of injuries received in the disastrous five-alarm fire which destroyed the Rudolph & West hardware store, 1322 New York avenue, and which was quelled after eight other firemen had been injured, three overcome by smoke and $300,000 damage caused.

The veteran fireman died of internal injuries just as volunteers were having blood tests made for transfusions to the officer in an attempt to save his life.

Collapse of a ladder hurtled Acting Deputy Chief Davis and four firemen to the sidewalk while trying to carry a hose to the fire in one of the upper floors of the five-story building.

When Acting Chief Davis' condition became worse an appeal was made for volunteers to submit to blood transfusions in an attempt to save his life. Several firemen responded and as soon as it was announced that the stricken chief needed blood the Fire Board was besieged with calls from firemen and civilians offering to submit to transfusions. Fire Chief George S. Watson went to the bedside of his stricken deputy.

Spread of the flames, which threatened to envelope contiguous structures, was prevented after a stubborn battle by the firemen whose work was hampered by explosions of paint and impending danger of collapse of the walls.

Practically all of the fire-fighting resources of thecity had been massed to quench the conflagration which was doubly menacing to the firemen because of paints and other inflammable material stored in the place.

Spectators estimated at 12,000 thronged into streets near the blaze and unintentionally balked the firemen in stretching hose. Reserve policemen, brought out by the successive alarms, held the crowd in check. Searing heat and stifling smoke kept the crowd in retreat after the fire had reached its peak.

Witnesses Describe Mishap.

Acting Chief Davis and his aids were hurt as an attempt was made to bring a hose up an extension ladder to stifle a fire which had started at the front of the fourth floor after the flames had seemingly been brought under control. Witnesses related that Acting Chief Davis and a private were standing in a window on the third floor. Firemen raised a ladder to the window and three began to climb carrying a hose with them. Acting Chief Davis attempted to come down the ladder, it was said, and a private followed him.

As they neared the three men bearing the line the latter shifted their position. The ladder started sliding to the side of the building as water poured down from a water tower. Then the ladder snapped, throwing the men to the pavement.

Crowds nearby surged to the injured men, hampering the task of dispatching them to hospitals. Policemen had difficulty in clearing the way for internes to work.

Explosions Add to Din.

As soon as the engines arrived, firemen began to concentrate on preventing spread of the flames. It was in the upper floors of the building, it appeared, that the blaze had started.

Explosions of paint stored in the fourth floor of the building punctuated the din occasioned by the shrieking engines and shouts of fire-

Madame Lupescu, Closely Guarded, Hurries to Carol

Berne Dispatch States Sovereign's Trusted Officers Are Escorting His Companion in Exile to Bucharest Incognito; Dramatic Parting Scene Described.

London, Saturday, June 14 (A.P.).—The Daily Mail carried a story from Berne, Switzerland, this morning which asserts that Mme. Magda Lupescu, who was King Carol II's companion in exile, is on her way to Bucharest escorted by two of the new Roumanian king's most trusted officers.

Declaring that Mme. Lupescu aspires at least to retain the king's close friendship, the dispatch added that she now is staying with friends at Baden, near Vienna, and will be in Bucharest Sunday night unless she changes her plans.

The dispatch described the dramatic parting of Carol and his companion before he started for Bucharest, saying Carol told her that the interests of the Roumanian state made it imperative that he return and assume the crown.

Then, continued the story, Mme. Lupescu wept and threw her arms around his neck, sobbing:

"I know you must go, but when you're back in Bucharest you'll forget me, as you have forgotten the others."

The king-to-be vowed he would never forget her.

With that, says the Daily Mail, a tacit understanding was reached whereby Mme. Lupescu should return to Roumania and the new king would see that she was provided for.

When Mme. Lupescu expressed fear for her safety if she traveled to Roumania alone, it was arranged that two officers devoted to Carol and the private secretary who served him in exile should accompany her.

The officers, said the correspondent, were Maj. Paschcano and Col. Precup, the latter of whom played an important part in the exile's capture of the throne. The private secretary was George Dimitrescu.

Mme. Lupescu was to take the Orient Express at Vienna and travel to Bucharest Sunday under an assumed name.

Bills Aimed at Gambling Given Favorable Report

Senate District Committee Also Acts on Traction Merger and Taxicab Responsibility Measure But Three-Cent Fare Is Blocked.

The Robsion bills, drastically increasing the penalties for gambling here, were favorably reported yesterday by the Senate District committee.

The committee also made a favorable report on a bill to require taxicab owners to take out insurance or post a bond that will satisfy claims for damages.

The resolution authorizing a street car merger was favorably reported, too, but this was merely a ratification of action that was taken two weeks ago. The bill had been called back because some senators were not sure about some of its provisions.

The bill to grant a 3-cent car and bus fare to public school children, which also had been called back after being favorably reported, was blocked yesterday by Senator Robsion (Republican), Kentucky, because he objected to granting the reduced fare to children attending private and parochial schools.

The antigambling bills were introduced by Senator Robsion as a result of the row between Public Printer Carter and police and court officials over a gambling place near the Government Printing Office.

The legislation not only provides heavy penalties for those who conduct gambling games, but also provides punishment for those who patronize gambling establishments and for the owners of property who knowingly permit gaming devices to be set up on their property.

The operator of a gambling game could be given a fine up to $10,000 or sentenced to five years in jail. These are the maximum penalties, no minimum penalties being prescribed.

A person who permitted gambling paraphernalia to be set up on his or her property could be fined up to $1,000 or sent to jail for a year, or both.

Also the property could be pad-

SCENES AT HARDWARE STORE FIRE, SHOWING CROWD AND SPURTING FLAMES

...men as they attempted to quell the disastrous blaze. The fire is believed to have started from defective wiring.

Ambulances from Emergency and Casualty Hospitals stood in readiness in the event that the wall should collapse. Firemen partially suffocated by the heavy black smoke were treated at the scene by the reinforcement of internes which were sent to the scene from the hospitals.

Flames Shoot High in Air.

Apparently the fire had gained some headway before it was discovered. When the firemen arrived the flames were shooting 20 to 30 feet into the air. Blackening smoke threw a shroud over the neighborhood. Difficulty was had in reaching the seat of the fire.

Hose was brought to play from roofs of adjoining buildings. Aerial towers attempted to maneuver into positions but the fire in the rear made this task difficult. In spite of efforts of the firemen, the blaze spread downward to the fourth floor where large quantities of highly volatile paint were stored.

As soon as it had reached this story tongues of flames disgorged through the windows and licked menacingly at the adjoining buildings. Expansion of the air caused the brick walls to bulge and fire officials ordered all the men away from the place, fearing collapse of the upper stories.

Tons of Water Poured on Blaze.

Tons of water were thrown upon nearby buildings in attempt to halt the lurid path of the flames.

Sidney Colvin, 17 years old, of 64 East Capitol street, a telegraph messenger, turned in the alarm. He was about to return to his office when he saw the smoke issuing from the building. He ran to Thirteenth and H streets and pulled the box. In smashing the glass he received cuts on his hand. The wounds were dressed at George Washington University Hospital.

James B. Nesline, a shipping clerk at the Rudolph & West plant, was working with two colored men on a lower flor of the building. Nesline noticed sparks sprinkling down through the dumbwaiter shaft. He and the two colored men ran to the street.

Several Telephone Alarms.

Meanwhile, pedestrians had noticed the smoke pouring from the upper windows and had telephoned alarms to headquarters. The fire alarm box had been pulled at 5:50.

Upon arrived of the first engines a second alarm was sounded at 5:55. A third followed at 6:01 o'clock and the fourth alarm, sounded at 6:05, brought more than 20 engine companies and 6 trucks to the place. A special alarm was sounded at 6:08. Reserves were ordered out from the Third and Ninth Precincts and special details from the First and Second Precincts were summoned to hold the dense throng in check.

Engines in nearby Maryland and Virginia fire companies were standing by their engines waiting for a call should the flames get out of control.

Traffic is Paralyzed.

There was a complete paralysis of vehicular and trolley car movement in the vicinity. Hose was coupled to hydrants for blocks around the area endangered by the fire. Lines interlocked through New York avenue, H street, G street, Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets.

Water flooded the building and those adjoining and cascaded down the stairways into the street. Hundreds of people who sought to get a close view of the scene crowded into windows of office buildings and lined the roofs. Terrific heat, together with the stifling smoke, drove them to safety.

More than an hour after the fire was discovered it was menacing the establishment of Hugh Reilly, paint store, and those of the U. S. Gutta Percha Paint Co. at 1334 New York avenue, where quantities of highly combustible paints are stored.

Other Places Threatened.

Fire officials directed the men to attempt to stem spread of the flames to those places.

It was learned last night that the ladder upon which Acting Deputy Chief Davis and the men had been standing had been used for drill purposes before the fire. It was the first ladder hoisted to the building at the fire. Firemen said the safety capacity for the ladder was one man t oeach rung.

As soon as he had assured himself that there was no danger of another outbreak, Chief George S. Watson visited each of his men in the hospital, inquiring as to their condition and ministering to their wants.

Other Firms in Area.

Firms at 1330 New York avenue which were in danger are: Easy Washing Machine Distributors, General Electric Refrigerator Distributors, National Electric Supply Co. At 1334 New York avenue the Hugh Reilly Paint Co. and the U. S. Gutta Percha Paint Co. were endangered.

George E. Potter, president of the firm of Rudolph & West, announced that the business of the concern would be uninterrupted by the event. Business will be conducted at 605-611 Rhode Island avenue northeast.

Employes of the company and veteran firemen recalled that the company quarters at the same location had been devastated by fire approximately twenty years ago, on July 4.

Electric Supply Firm Losses.

E. C. Graham, president of the National Electric Supply Co., at 1330 New York avenue, last night stated that the damage to stock and fixtures in his concern would approximate 10,000.

Mr. Graham paid high tribute to the firefighters for their effective work, as well as for the consideration they showed in protecting property within the store. Greater damage to his place, he said, was prevented by L. V. Slomakerm, War Department radio engineer, who was writing reports in his office when attracted by the smoke.

Mr. Slomaker and other employes closed all windows and removed stock from the wall that bulged from heat expansion. Mr. Graham expects that this portion of the wall will have to be rebuilt.

COURT ORDERS BODY TO BE DISINTERRED

WHEAT GRANTS PETITION

Declaring that it has become material and urgent that she discover the time and place of the marriage of her mother and father, Laura A. Sieverling, of 710 H street northeast, yesterday obtained a District Supreme Court order to disinter the body of her mother, Mrs. Henrietta V. Caterson, who died November 17, 1903, and whose body for the last 26 years has lain in a grave at the Congressional Cemetery.

The order of disinterment was signed by Chief Justice Wheat and specifies that Attorney Julian T. Cromelin, of the law firm of Cromelin & Laws, shall take charge of anything that might be found.

In her petition the daughter sets out that she believes that her mother's marriage certificate or other evidence will be found in the casket or grave.

The petitioner points out that all her efforts to discover the date of the marriage of her mother and her father have failed, since both are dead. She sets out that it is essential that she find this information immediately in order to protect her legal rights and interests.

A permit from the District Health Department authorizing the disinterment was issued June 10, according to the petition.

Chief Justice Wheat ordered that the "superintendent of the Congressional Cemetery, in the City of Washington, District of Columbia, is hereby authorized and directed to disinter the body of Henrietta V. Caterson, now lying in the aforesaid cemetery, in the presence of Julian T. Cromelin, and to allow the said Julian T. Cromelin to remove from the casket, grave or body of the said Henrietta Caterson anything found therein or thereon which may be useful and material as evidence in establishing the marriage of said Henrietta Caterson."

Child Injured in Fall.

Charles Eckloff, 4 years old, of 233 Twelfth place northeast, was treated at Casualty Hospital yesterday afternoon for injuries to his head, received when he lost his balance and fell from an ice wagon on which he was riding. His condition was not considered serious and he was allowed to return home.

Child Dead, 20 Hurt, In Sidewalk Collapse

Elmira, N. Y., June 13 (A.P.).—Collapse of a temporary wooden walk along a deep excavation at Elmira's busiest corner, late today, hurled a child to its death, probably fatally injured two women and seriously hurt eighteen other persons.

Emma Smolka, 11, was killed. Mrs. Ella J. Warner and Mrs. F. W. Corey were not expected to live until morning. All were from Elmira. The walk, of heavy timbers, was bearing the weight of a pile of steel girders and was crowded at the evening rush hour.

Capital Traction Trolleys Rerouted in Order to Avoid Congestion.

Cars of the Capital Traction Co. on Fourteenth street were tied up at the corner of Fourteenth street and New York avenue for about 20 minutes during the fire at the Rudolph & West Co. last night. Those coming down Fourteenth street were turned back at Fourteenth and H streets, and cars coming up Pennsylvania avenue were sent back from Fifteenth street and New York avenue. Others, bound for Fourteenth street above U street, were routed along New Jersey avenue and U street to Fourteenth.

Four lines of the Washington Railway & Electric Co. cars were blocked by engines and hose lines. They were the Georgetown and Mount Pleasant lines, and those on New York avenue and G street. Service on all four lines stopped a little before 6 o'clock. It was more than an hour before service was rseumed on the branches to the western part of the city. The cars running from Fifteenth and G streets went back into regular schedule shortly after 8 o'clock. Service on New York avenue line was not resumed until nearly 9 o'clock.

Cars on these lines ran as close to the block as they could, however. On New York avenue they ran to Eleventh street. On the other three lines cars stopped at Elevinth street and turned back. Cars on the Mount Pleasant and related lines eastbound ran to Fourteenth and H streets.

BLAZE CALLED OUT EMERGENCY FORCES

Police and Hospitals Worked as Unit With Firemen in Flame Area.

OUTSIDE AID IS OFFERED

Every available piece of the District's emergency equipment was marshaled yesterday afternoon to combat the blaze in which the store of Rudolph & West, hardware dealers, 1332 New York avenue, which, for a time threatened the entire block.

From the time the first local was sounded at 5:50 o'clock until the fifth, or special, alarm at 6:08 o'clock was turned in, the Fire Department, police rescue squads and hospitals worked as one unit.

As the billows of smoke overcame one fireman after another, internes from Emergency and Casualty Hospital revived them quickly. The rescue squad, too, aided in this work. A special squad of Red Cross men were held for emergency.

Reserves Hold Crowds Back.

Meanwhile the police reserves from eight precincts held in check the crowds that gathered to witness the spectacular blaze. Under command of Inspector Ernest Brown, fire lines were drawn for blocks around. More than 20,000 persons crowded the streets, many even taking to rooftops for blocks around to a birdseye view of the fire which sent flames shooting 20 to 40 feet into the air.

The fire occurred near one of the busiest intersections in the District, New York avenue and Fourteenth street, where three trolley car lines converge. The service on these lines was held up from 5:30 until 7:15 p. m., when hose was strung over the tracks on trestles.

In addition to the regular police reserves which respond to fires from the Third, Ninth and Tenth Precinct Stations, reserves also were mustered from the First, Second, Sixth, Seventh and Eighth Precincts.

Even after the fire was under control the throngs, rather than diminishing, were augmented by early theater crowds. Because of the thousands that gathered in the vicinity, fifteen policemen in addition to the reserves were detailed to the scene.

Twenty-nine engine companies and fourteen trucks, including the aerial tower, responded to the alarms. Other companies were called in from outlying sections of the city to replace the companies in active duty at the fire.

Fire companies from Arlington County, Alexandria, Cherrydale and Erentwood offered their services and stood in readiness. Their aid, however, was not needed.

Tsung Yuh Nyi to Wed Miss Feng Djen Djang

For the first time in several years a license was issued yesterday in District Supreme Court authorizing two natives of China to wed. The license was taken out by Tsung Yuh Nyi who specified that he desired to marry Feng Djen Djang. The Rev. Samuel Judson Porter was named as officiating minister.

Tsung filled out the application blank faultlessly and in better than the ordinary handwriting. He stated his age as 24 and that of the bride as 28. In answer to the question "color" he specified "yellow," but the marriage license clerk changed it to "Chinese." Both the bride and groom reside at 101 Carroll street southeast, according to the application.

Retired Policemen Die iu Hospitals

William Wilson and Harry Gaither Succumb to Long Illness.

Two former Washington policemen, both retired died yesterday in local hospitals. The men are William S. Wilson, 57 years old, of 1256 Neale place northeast, and Harry W. Gaither, 38 years old, of Laytonville, Md. Mr. Wilson died at Providence Hospital of a stomach ailment, after an illness of several months. Mr. Gaither, who was a World War veteran, died at Walter Reed Hospital of tuberculosis.

Mr. Wilson was apointed to the Metropolitan Policel n 1901 and was retired in 1908 as disabled. Since that time he has served as an inspector in the Street Cleaning Department. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mary J. Wilson, and three children. Funeral services will be held at Holy Name Church at 9 o'clock Monday, and he will be buried in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Gaither joined the force in 1923 and was retired in 1929. He had been ill about six months. His wife survives him. No funeral arrangements have been made. Maj. Henry Pratt has ordered a detail of policemen to act as pallbearers at both services.

Donaldson Charge Comes Up Monday

Disbarment Proceedings to Be Aired in District Supreme Court.

Disbarment proceedings against R. Golden Donaldson, former president of the Commercial National Bank and a member of the District of Columbia Bar for the past 30 years, will be aired Monday in District of Columbia Supreme Court, according to announcement made yesterday.

The proceedings, which were instituted by the grievance committee of the bar association, follow a grand jury investigation of the affairs of the F. H. Smith Co., formerly of Washington but more recently of New York City. Mr. Donaldson was formerly attorney for the Smith Co. and it is alleged that in that capacity he accepted $100,000 from the Boyle-Robertson Construction Co. to influence the Smith Co. to give construction contracts to the construction firm.

Mr. Donaldson, in his answer to the petition recently, asked the court to dismiss the proceedings, explaining that his fee was for work done as a business man and not as a legal adviser. He also set out that he always had upheld the traditions and the sanctity of the court and has appreciated his position as a member of the bar.

HOUSE G.O.P. CHIEFS SEEK ADJOURNMENT

Move Hinges on Disposition of River and Veterans' Bills in Senate.

NEXT WEEK SEEN AS END

(Associated Press.)

House Republican leaders announced yesterday they were ready for adjournment by the end of next week, but the program hinged on disposition of the rivers and harbors bill and veterans relief legislation in the Senate.

A dispute over the rivers and harbors bill developed in the Senate yesterday as this measure was made the order of business. Senator Blaine (Republican), Wisconsin, introduced an amendment to the controversial Illinois waterways provision.

An extended contest over the rivers and harbors measure will throw the adjournment program out of gear. Senator Blaine would restrict the amount of water to be diverted from the Great Lakes for the Illinois project under more specific language than is provided by the House bill.

House leaders said last night they would make no move to introduce the adjournment resolution until Senate leaders had passed the word. Senator Watson, of Indiana, the Republican pilot, answered he would not give the word until action is assured on the rivers and harbors bill and on the veterans relief measure.

Senate leaders agree with the House chieftains that adjournment should be taken by the end of next week and it is agreed on all sides that it is going to be difficult to keep a quorum on hand in either the Senate or the House after the tariff is finally through Congress.

Weary from almost eighteen months of consecutive sessions, there were some legislators proposing that the veterans' bill and the rivers and harbors measure be laid over until the next session along with the Muscle Shoals legislation, but many are anxious these measures be passed before the coming election campaigns.

Adjournment of the session does not kill any pending legislation.

A move also will be made this week for action in the Senate on the House bill regulating motor bus transportation.

Until the second deficiency appropriation bill, carrying the emergency funds to meet newly authorized projects, is enacted, t is unlikely that the adjournment resolution will be offered.

DR. JULIO PRESTES HONORED AT FETES

RADIO SPEECH PLANNED

A dinner in honor of Dr. Julio Prestes given by Secretary of State Stimson culminated the second day's visit of the president-elect of Brazil in the National Capital yesterday. A number of Cabinet members, diplomats, State officials and national legislators were present, to pay tribute to the distinguished South American.

Earlier in the day Dr. Prestes was guest of the governing board of the Pan-American Union at a luncheon, attended by all Latin-American diplomats and a number of Government officials. Secretary Stimson presided and spoke. The Ambassador of Mexico, Dr. Manuel C. Tellez, also greeted the visitor in behalf of the diplomatic corps. The Navy Band played the Brazilian national anthem.

"I have been enchanted with my American reception," the president-elect said at a press conference yesterday morning, "because it demonstrated again the unbreakable bonds and truly fraternal relations with which the people of two great nations are bound."

Dr. Prestes spent the afternoon sightseeing and making diplomatic calls.

Tonight the Brazilian leaer will be guest of honor at a dinner at the Pan-American Union, which will be attended by President Hoover.

Three high power shortwave radio stations, two in Schenectady and one in Pittsburgh, will carry the voices of the President and the president-elect to Brazil from Station WRC. The speeches may also be heard locally over both WRC and WMAL at 10 o'clock. To insure successful reception in Brazil, General Electric engineers have placed a special directional antenna in operation at Schenectady aimed directly at the receiving station in Rio de Janeiro. This will produce a signal in the South American country 20 times as strong as the ordinary antenna used generally in broadcasting.

An official farewell will be accorded Dr. Prestes tomorrow morning. President Hoover will call at the Crescent place residence of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Meyer at 10:30 o'clock, and a special train will carry away the president-elect at noon. After visiting in an around New York, he will go abroad to spend a fortnight in London and Paris before returning home.

Edison and Wife Split In New Jersey Primary

West Orange, N. J., June 13 (A.P.). There are indications that Thomas A. Edison and Mrs. Edison do not always see eye to eye when it comes to politics. The aged inventor, arriving home from Florida today, said he would vyote for Representative Franklin W. Fort, in the Republican primary because "Fort is a dry."

Mrs. Edison is a member of the women's committee supporting Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow, a rival of Fort and an advocate of prohibition repeal.

LINGLE SLAYER SEEN IN ST. LOUIS, CLAIM

Painter, Who Saw Murderer at Close Range, Gives Police New Lead.

CHICAGO DRIVE GOES ON

Chicago, June 13 (A.P.).—A report that the slayer of Alfred "Jake" Lingle, Tribune reporter, was seen in St Louis yesterday was received by Chicago police today as they continued their onslaught on the underworld, arresting more than a thousand persons.

The St. Louis story, relayed by police there, came from Melvin Pryor, itinerant painter, who said he talked with Lingle's slayer just before the shot was fired and then saw him again yesterday at Grand and Olive streets in St. Louis.

Although the Chicago authorities were greatly interested in the report and asked St. Louis police to drive Pryor through the streets in the hope that he might see the alleged slayer again, they allowed no let-up in their drive against the hoodlums which followed the slaying of the veteran crime reporter and the attendant public clamor for action.

Secrecy Is Observed.

All authorities investigating the slaying were doing so with the utmost secrecy. One new special investigating body entered the man hunt today with the appointment of counsel for the Tribune as a special assistant State's attorney.

Pryor's story was that he was standing in the entrance of the Illinois Central Railroad pedestrian subway under Michigan avenue Monday with a grip waiting for a friend when a man accosted him and asked:

"What are you doing? What have you got in that bag?"

Pryor said he told the man he had clothing in the bag and was waiting for a friend.

"Better Get Out," Man Says.

"You better get out before the cops get you," the man said.

Pryor emerged from the subway. The man who delivered the warning came out, he said, talked to two men in a parked machine and with them went back into the subway.

In a few seconds, Pryor related, he heard the shot that killed Lingle. Then he saw the man who told him to move on run out of the subway and vault a fence.

Another version of Pryor's story, contained in news dispatches from St. Louis, said the man flashed a badge when he spoke to the painter.

Assuming Pryor's story true, police believe Lingle's slayer, expecting him to arrive at the subway, may have sought to clear the place of any loiterer.

Police Administration Hit.

Alderman Arthur F. Albert today threatened to take his demand for a change in police administration to the city council.

A letter sent to the mayor by the alderman demanded that Police Commissioner William Russell, intimate friend of the slain reporter, and Chief of Detective John Stege be granted long furloughs.

The mayor acknowledged that pressure had been brought to bear for the removal of Russell and Stege, but

Man in Green Hat Held in Collision

George Cassidy Is Charged With Driving After Permit Loss.

Known in various liquor incidents on Capitol Hill as "The Man in the Green Hat," George Cassidy, 39 years old, of Seventeenth street near C street southeast, was in the tolls of the law early last night.

He was arrested at Fifteenth and C streets southeast by Twelfth Precinct Detective C. A. Berry and jailed temporarily at the Fifth Precinct Station on charges of driving an automobile after revocation of his permit as an aftermath of a collision with another machine, which overturned.

Cassidy suffered minor bruises and lacerations about the body in a minor crash with a car operated by Victor Wise, 37 years old, of Pennsylvania avenue near Thirteenth street southeast. Wise's wife and their three children suffered minor hurts.

Chicago Racketeer Profits Put at $5,785,000 Weekly

Newspaper Traces Huge Sum, Used as War Chest to Corrupt Police and Politicians; Nearly 40 Murders in 1930 Laid to Operation of Gangs.

Chicago, June 13 (A.P.).—The Chicago Daily News today published the result of an investigation into racket profits here and said the total was $5,785,000 a week.

"This is the war chest," said the News, "whence comes the money that corrupts politicians, police and prohibition agents."

Thirty-nine racket murders thus far this year and finally the slaying of Alfred Lingle, Tribune reporter, prompted the newspaper's investigation.

The weekly profit figures announced by the paper were:

Beer, booze, alcohol, $3,510,000.

Gambling houses and handbooks, $1,250,000.

Questionable resorts, $1,000,000.

Labor rackets, bombings, arson and kidnapings, $25,000.

Total, $5,785,000.

The paper claims the figures to be on a conservative basis.

"There are 6,000 speakeasies operating normally in Chicago," says the News. "At election times, when votes and campaign contributions are needed, the number goes skyrocketing up beyond the 10,000 mark, as high, according to some prohibition officials, as 12,000, but in the normal week of the average month some 6,000 speakeasies, where draft beer, whisky and gin may be had, are operating. These speakeasies average, men in the racket say, six barrels of beer and two cases of whisky a week.

"Whisky costs the saloonkeeper, where the majos mobs are in control, $90 a case. These same spots also peddle gin and many of them peddle a concoction known as yockey-dock, or Polish pop, a synthetic whisky with alcohol as its base.

"Including the 6,000 speakeasies there are some 15,000 places in the city which are outlets for alcohol, drug stores which peddle gin, cigar stores which peddle gin, beer flats with gin or the yockey-dock."

The paper estimates the alcohol consumption at 75,000 gallons a week and the total weekly booze bill, exclusive of other rackets, at $3,510,000.

EXPERTS CONCEDE MORROW EDGE IN JERSEY PRIMARY

prospects than the dry fight that is being made upon him, as serious as that is.

Predictions of a Morrow victory also belie the heretofore widely accepted belief that the Republican party in this State was at least 50 per cent dry. If this were the case, then it would seem easy for Mr. Fort, the darling of the drys, to win easily with the wets dividing between Mr. Morrow and Mr. Frelinghuysen.

Edge Success Cited.

But this is not the case, authorities here argue. They point to the fact that former Senator Edge always ran as a wet; that Senator Hamilton Kean, after trying twice to get the Republican senatorial nomination as a dry, came out as one of those referendum wets in 1928 and succeeded. The entire 1928 senatorial primary line-up, in fact, bears on the wet and dry percentages of the Republican party.

Mrs. Lillian W. Feickert, running as a dry, received 26,029 votes; former Senator Frelinghuysen, dry, received 137,440; Edward W. Gray, wet, 24,959; Senator Kean, referendum wet, 167,029, and former Gov. Stokes, modificationist, 142,123. It would appear that the wets easily had the best of it.

In fact, there are many observers who are predicting that Fort will run third in Tuesday's primary.

At that, there does not seem to be a thing to his candidacy but himself and the Antisaloon League which is making a "tremendous" fight for him. Whether a "tremendous" fight by the Antisaloon League in New Jersey means so much is doubtful. Certainly the word "tremendous" does mean the same thing it would if applied to a fight in Virginia.

One Great Fear Removed.

Incidentally, Dr. James K. Shields, head of the dry fight, has removed one great fear of the Republican leaders, and that is the possibility of an independent dry candidate in November should Fort be defeated Tuesday. He announced definitely a day or so ago that the drys would not enter a dry independent in November under any circumstances. So, if Mr. Morrow does win Tuesday, he will have gotten over quite an obstacle in what the dopesters predict as a brilliant political career before him.

But Dr. Shields is making the welkins ring with appeals in behalf of Fort. This man Morrow is not any local, fly-by-night wet, Dr. Shields is pointing out, but a national figure, the possible entering wedge of the wets in the Nation's majority party, which means something.

Dr. Shields is advertising, he is appealing through the churches. Indeed, Dr. Shields gives more signs of outward activity than any of the three candidates. This afternoon there appeared broadside appeals for Fort in the local newspapers, paid for by the Salvation Army.

Hard Man to Fight.

On the other hand, Mr. Morrow is a hard man to make a dry or a church fight against. He is prominent in the Presbyterian Church at Englewood. This writer has been trying to check up on the report that he is even an elder. Whether he is or not his activities in the church unquestionably rate something like that.

The local newspapers report an incident of a few days ago where one member of the church got up and protested against Dr. Shields' appeal, and made known that he did not intend to be dictated by the Antisaloon League chieftain.

There is unquestionably a defeatist aattitude in both the Frelinghuysen and Fort camps. A prominent member of the latter camp complained for example that the five dry Republican representatives from this State who are supporting Mr. Morrow are crazy. There are six dry Republican members of the Jersey delegation in Washington and all except Mr. Fort are supporting the wet Mr. Morrow.

The dry spokesman harped on the lack of logic in this. They will feel very foolish, he said, when Mr. Morrow has been nominated and the party in the State adopts a wet plank, which, of course, it would have to do."

Illogical But a Fact.

Admittedly, it is illogical for the dry representatives to do this, but the fact that they are doing it augers well for Mr. Morrow. And there is an important thought in the spokesman's statement, too, that "when Mr. Morrow has been nominated" the party will have to adopt a wet platform.

This would be a severe loss for the drys. They have always had quite a nuisance influence in the Republican party in these Eastern States.

About Mr. Fort's organization, it is said that he didn't ever confer with his political mentor, Jesse Samson, Essex County chairman, about entering the senatorial race. This county chairman had already tied up with Frelinghuysen. Fort has one county chairman of the 21 chairmen in the State with him and Frelinghuysen has Samson. That leaves nineteen for Morrow.

Fort is said to have never had any political strength of his own. Samson was a friend of his father and sort of picked the younger man up. Any strength Fort shows in this fight may be attributed to the Antisaloon League.

Party Aids Mr. Morrow.

The virtually solid support of the party organization for Mr. Morrow is, of course, his greatest aid, and his personality and national prominence, his greatest appeal. And this darling of Wall street is proving an apt campaigner. There will be more about that later on.

The expected 500,000 votes Tuesday are roughly 150,000 more than the ordinary off-year primary vote. That might reflect an unusual interest in the campaign by the church people which might portend dire results for Mr. Morrow.

The observers argue, however, that it is the New York commuters' vote that works the difference—the vote of those thousands of persons who work in New York and live in New Jersey, who have never come to look upon Jersey seriously as their home, but won are doing so this year and intend to vote for their fellow commuter, Mr. Morrow.

RACING BOAT UPSET IS FATAL TO SEGRAVE

New Speed Record Claimed for Him on Test That Preceded Death.

MISS ENGLAND II SINKS

Windermere, England, June 13 (A.P.).—Maj. Sir Henry Segrave, whose plaything was speed, today lost his life while testing his newest toy, a motorboat capable of racing 100 miles an hour.

The distinguished Englishman, internationally famed for holding the world's motor car speed record and known to thousands for his sterling sportsmanship, met disaster when his Miss England II, a $125,000 craft, overturned on Lake Windermere, England's largest inland water body, and sunk.

Sir Henry's mechanician, E. Halliwell, disappeared as the spill occurred. his body was not recovered. It was thought to lie tonight in the depths of the sylvan lake in the torn hull of the speedboat.

One Mechanic Rescued.

J. Willcocks, another mechanic, was rescued at the time Sir Henry's unconscious form was taken from the lake. Willcocks was reported severely injured.

Maj. Segrave's hurts, a broken arm, a broken rib and a fractured thigh, were not considered critical at first, but he failed to rally and, with Lady Segrave at his side, died two hours after the mishap.

His craft, which in the last few days had three accidents, remained afloat with her bows crushed by impact with the water for half an hour before going down. Miss England II recently broke a propeller while going at top speed.

Could Not Resist Speed.

Lady Segrave some time ago induced her husband to abandon automobile racing, after he had won the world's motor car speed crown at Daytona Beach. She feared the risk was too great. He could not, however, resist the lure of speed and turned to fast boating.

He built the craft wrecked today with the intention of competing for the international trophy at Detroit this summer. Tests showed him her pace could be tuned to 100 miles an hour. He felt certain of victory.

Just before the tragedy today Miss England II's time over a measured course was recorded at an average in two tries of 98.76. It was announced tonight that the figures would be forwarded to the International Marine Yachting Union for recognition as a new world's mark for boats of the class.

Auto Speed Record.

It was on the famous stretch of sand at Daytona Beach, Fla., March 11, 1929, that Maj. Segrave, in his famous Golden Arrow, set the world's speed record of 231.36246 miles an hour. His greatest speed over the measured mile was 233.01 miles per hour.

Maj. Segrave's wife was in a box in the judges' stand and the first to congratulate her husband on his record-smashing feat.

The British speed king shattered the mark of 206.55 which Ray Keech, subsequently killed in a race at Altoona, Pa., had established at Daytona in his White Triplex on April 22, 1928. The Triplex was wrecked and its driver, Lee Bible, killed in a crash at Daytona two days after Segrave's record achievement.

Defeated Gar Wood.

Shortly after his run at Daytona, Segrave transferred his speed work to the waters of Biscayne Bay, Miami Beach, and defeated Gar Wood, American holder of motorboat speed records, after Wood's boat, the Miss America VII, was disabled. It was Wood who first interested Segrave in motorboating and a new quest for speed honors.

Contrary to the general impression, the official challenge on behalf of England for the British international trophy (Harmsworth), was not made by Sir Henry Segrave, but by Miss Marion Carstairs.

Sir Henry, however, had said his craft also would be entered under the rules that permit a contesting nation to have three boats in the race.

Was Born in America.

Maj. Segrave was born in America 34 years ago of an American mother. His father was C. W. Segrave, pioneer of motoring in Ireland. He was knighted in 1929 for his victories in the United States.

He was a member of the Royal Air Force in the World War and was wounded several times.

His monoplane, Segrave Meteor, today was making its trial test at East Yorks, preparatory to entering the King's Cup race, when the Windermere fatality occurred.

Officers Elected By Art Promoters

Robert Beresford Named President of Group for Next Term.

Executive officers of the Art Promoters Club for the year 1930-31 were elected last week.

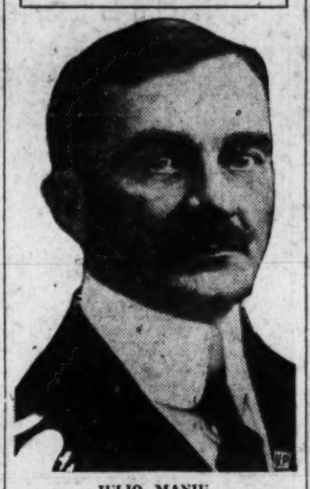

Robert Beresford was elected president; Philip Fletcher Bell, Miss Mae Henriette Vance, Miss Delia Frances Bogue, and Isaac Gans, vice presidents; Miss Addie B. Deering, corresponding secretary; Miss Leona Bixler, recording secretary; Newell Atkinson, treasurer; Miss Adelaide Dwyer, social secretary; and Jess Rohrback, director.

The Minister of Persia, honorary president of the society, the Turkish Ambassador and the Minister of China, honorary vice presidents, retain their present offices. Miss Margaret Louise O'Brien, former vice president of the Art Promoters Club was elected acting chairman of the board of governors, with Miss Eugenia Burch as vice chairman.

Hurricane Damages Mexican City.

Mexico City, June 13 (A.P.).—Dispatches from Mazatlan today said a hurricane struck that city, unroofing houses, tearing up telegraph poles and trees, wrecking a wireless tower and inundating a small section of the town. Fear was fel for a number of fishing craft caught at sea.

FORMS CABINET

REUNION MAY SOLVE KING'S FAMILY ROW

Reconciliation of Carol II and Helen Imminent; Cabinet Formed.

MANIU HEADS MINISTRY

Bucharest, Roumania, June 13 (A.P.).—Roumanian affairs, upset since the proclamation of former Crown Prince Carol as king Sunday, straightened out today with the formation of a government, and indications that the family difficulties of King Carol II have finally been made harmonious.

Queen Mother Marie today visited Queen Helen, who has been ill with a cold, and it was announced that after the recovery of Helen, who was divorced from Carol when he was a crown prince in exile, the entire royal family will hold a reunion at the palace of Queen Marie.

Persons well informed in court circles said the reunion probably would bring the reconciliation of King Carol and Queen Helen, who then would await cancellation of the divorce decree granted the wife two years ago because Carol eloped with another woman.

Reunion May Bring Peace.

Until yesterday Helen was merely Princess Helen, mother of the former boy king, Michael, but by royal decree King Carol proclaimed her his companion on the throne. He annulled all laws and ordinances enacted from the time of his banishment more than four years ago until the present, and considered that the divorce decree was among them. Queen Helen was understood to have held that the divorce still stood, but indications today were that she was relenting and that the family party at the home of queen mother would bring peace to the royal family.

The government problem was solved with the formation of a cabinet by former Premier Maniu, leader of the Peasant party and strongest political leader in the cabinet. He had served as premier until the return of Carol, but stepped down to permit the elevation of the exile to monarchy.

Maniu Completes Cabinet.

George Mironescu, foreign minister, then was asked to assemble a government, but he was unable to do so and returned the mandate to the King. Gen. Prezan, a nonparty man, likewise failed. With that King Carol chose M. Maniu, who completed his list today.

Mironescu is in the new cabinet, holding his old post of foreign minister. The others are as follows:

Vice premier, M. Vajdovojvod; justice, M. Junian; foreign affairs, M. Mironescu; home affairs, M. Popovic, finance, M. Virgil Madgearu; commerce, M. Manoilescu; agriculture, M. Ion Mihalache; war, Gen. Condescu; labor, M. Halippa; public instruction, M. Costachescu; religion, Ghitza Popp.

ity to question him about his 1928 anti-Smith activities.

Vice President Curtis declined to comment.

Meanwhile, Senator Walsh (Democrat), Montana, told newspaper men yesterday he did not intend to introduce a resolution in the Senate to ask for specific authority to investigate political activities.

Senator Walsh said he thought such a resolution should be offered, but that if he did it he would be accused of attempting to persecute the Southern Methodist churchman. Senator Walsh is a Catholic and Bishop Cannon has charged his investigation was a "Catholic and wet persecution."

The Walsh proposal and another by Senator Blaine—to cite the bishop to the Senate for possible contempt proceedings—were voted down Thursday by the lobby committee. Senator Blaine declined to say yesterday whether he intended to offer his resolution in the Senate, but other committee members said it would have no chance of adoption.

Having voted against further action the lobby committee will merely submit to the Senate a transcript of the bishop's examination. Senator Caraway said this probably would be done early next week.

A general report on the prohibition investigation also will be made late next week. It is expected to consist of a review of the testimony, according to the usual custom and containing no recommendations. Senator Caraway plans to make a general report on the entire lobby investigation, which has covered a period of eight months, but said he did not think he could prepare it before the special session begins.

No further witnesses are expected to appear before the committee.

"Peaches" Loses Dower Suit Against Browning

New York, June 13 (A.P.).—The effort of Frances "Peaches" Browning to force her former husband, Edward "Daddy" Browning, to give her dower rights on his real estate failed, at least temporarily, when her complaint was dismissed in supreme court today.

She was given twenty days, however, in which to file a new complaint if she wishes to continue her suit.

18 Soldiers Killed in Wreck.

Kassel, Germany, June 13 (A.P.).—Eighteen soldiers were injured, several severely, when a military motor truck with a detachment of a Reichswehr pioneer battalion ran off a bridge near Veckerkagen and plunged 15 feet into the Weser River. Five other trucks, laden with pontoons, left the bridge and landed on top of the first truck.

PRESIDENT STUDIES DISTRICT BILL ROW

Hoover Reported to Believe Measure Will Be Saved, Despite Fight.

BOTH SIDES STAND FIRM

President Hoover is watching closely the bitter fight over the $44,000,000 District appropriation bill, it was indicated at the White House yesterday. And notwithstanding what appeared to be the obsequies over the bill at the Capitol yesterday morning, the President believes that the measure will be saved.

The President, it was said, anticipates that the Senate and House conferees will yet agree and will find some solution that will prevent the disabling of the local government.

The attitude of the executive became known after the Senate and House conferees on the bill broke up in what seemed to be a hopeless disagreement.

The cause of the disagreement was the question of how much the Federal Government should contribute toward the support of the National Capital. As the bill passed the House, it provided for a Federal contribution of $9,000,000; as it passed the Senate, a Federal contribution of $12,000,000.

At yesterday's meeting, Senator Hiram Bingham (Republican), Connecticut, and the other Senate conferees offered a compromise. They offered to place the Federal contribution at a figure somewhere between $9,000,000 and $12,000,000.

But Representative Robert G. Simmons (Republican), Nebraska, and other House conferees flatly refused to compromise. Consequently the meeting broke up and nothing was said about getting together again.

In fact, Senator Bingham began to write what in effect may be the bill's obituary—a report to the Senate announcing the failure of the conference.

This has been or will be signed by all five Senate conferees—Senators Bingham, Phipps (Republican), of Colorado; Capper (Republican), of Kansas; Kendrick (Democrat), of Wyoming, and Glass (Democrat), of Virginia.

The report will be submitted to the Senate Monday and there is every indication that the Senate will voice its confidence in the stand that its conferees have taken.

Representative Simmons meantime has turned his attention to the drafting of a resolution to continue the current, or 1930, District appropriation.

New Projects Would Halt.

Under the law, however, only so much of this appropriation might be used as is needed to continue the operation of the local government and to complete certain building and improvement projects already started.

New projects or plans, such as school buildings and sites, street repair jobs, construction of a farmers' produce market, acquisition of land for the municipal center, the hiring of additional firemen and the like would all have to be abandoned.

A hurried calculation yesterday indicated that, under a resolution continuing the current appropriation, the city would get between $11,000,000 and $12,000,000 less than it would get if the 1931 appropriation bill passes.

Well Informed on Matter.

President Hoover has long been interested in the affairs of the District of Columbia. He was a resident and a taxpayer here for 10 years before he moved into 1600 Pennsylvania avenue, and he probably knows more about the municipality, its history, its form and its plans than any man who has ever occupied the White House.

For that reason, his concern over the fate of the bill is doubly significant. He was the only man who seemed to be optimistic over its future yesterday, however.

"Unless the House conferees agree to compromise, the bill is dead," said Senator Bingham.

"The Senate conferees have been unable to produce any facts to show why we ought to compromise," said Representative Simmons.

The Nebraskan, however, said he and his colleagues were ready to hold another meeting with the Senate conferees whenever they were invited.

Thinks Agreement Impossible.

Senator Bingham said that the uncompromising attitude of the House conferees made an agreement impossible. He and the other senators, he said, were convinced that $12,000,000 was as just as $9,000,000 was unjust, and yet they offered to compromise, to find a middle ground. But the House conferees, he said, would not budge.

The senators also offered to put the appropriation on a proportionate basis. The statutory law, which the House has nullified since 1925 with the $9,000,000 lump-sum provision, says that the appropriation shall be on a 60-40 basis, the District paying 60 per cent the United States 40 per cent. The $9,000,000 sum, according to Senator Bingham, constituted about 22 per cent.

The senators offered to put the appropriation on a 70-30 basis, but the representatives put thumbs down on this, too.

Calls Situation Unjust.

"I don't like to see the bill fail," Senator Bingham said last night, "for if it does fail the District will lose many things it needs badly. But the District should not go on year after year submitting to this unjust fiscal situation.

"In the long run, I believe that the failure of the bill will be beneficial to the city, will bring about a solution of the present unsatisfactory situation. If we should yield, if the bill again went through with the $9,000,000 provision, it is a safe bet that $9,000,000 would continue to be the contribution for many years to come."

The Connecticut senator said that he favored the creation of a commission to settle the fiscal relations problem, but he made it very clear that he would not regard it as a fair compromise if the House conferees agreed to the creation of such a commission.

COMMITTEE DRAWS REPLY FROM HOOVER ON TREATY DATA

ready to send these documents to the committee.

Until the committee meets on Monday it will not be definitely known whether the President's statement and the Secretary's letter will suffice to make a closed incident of the secret documents issue. Senator Borah, chairman of the committee, is inclined to accept the situation as it stands and proceed with discussion of the pact with a view to reporting it to the Senate. Senator Hiram Johnson issued a statement asserting that Mr. Stimson's letter is an admission that the committee was right in the stand it took.

President Hoover, in his statement, said:

"The real issue in the treaty is whether we shall stop competitive naval building with all the destruction and dangers to international good will which continuation on these courses implies; whether we shall spend an enormous sum in such a race to catch up with competitors, with no assurance that we will reach parity and proportionate strength even with such an expenditure; and whether the present agreement gives us a substantial parity and proportionate strength and therefore with our army absolute defensive power, and accomplishes this by an agreement which makes for good will, for decrease in the naval armament of the world, and puts our program of naval renewals and cruiser construction at a cost far less than would otherwise be required.

"The treaty revises the battleship program of the Washington Arms Conference in such a fashion that we reduce the battleship tonnage of the world by 230,230 tons, in which the United States scraps three battleships, Great Britain five battleships, Japan one battleship and, in addition to this, postpones the enormous construction program of the Washington arms treaty until after 1936. We attain parity of our battleship fleets almost at once instead of ten years hence. We accomplish it without building a single new ship. The aircraft, destroyer, and submarine programs of the treaty are fair and meet with substantially no criticism and represent a decrease in destroyers and submarines.

Increase in Cruiser Strength.

"Against the great battleship saving our cruiser program increases from 300,000 tons to 320,000 tons. The point at issue in the cruiser program is whether or not we should have 30,000 tons more of cruisers with 8-inch guns advocated by the navy board, or 38,500 tons with 6-inch guns provided by this treaty. Upon the merits or demerits of these alternatives as to this very small part of the fleet of about 1,125,000 tons, our naval advisors are sharply divided.

"The Senate, through two of its members upon the delegation, have had a practical participation in every step in the making of the treaty. There is not one scintilla of agreement or obligation of any character outside the treaty itself."

Secretary Stimson's letter stated:

"Dear Senator Borah: I have received your favor of today transmitting a copy of a resolution of the committee on foreign relations in respect to letters and documents in the recent negotiations of the naval treaty.

"I did not, in my letter to you of June 6, attempt to define the duties of the Senate or the scope of its powers in passing upon treaties.

Interpretation of Letter.

"My statement in that letter that 'the question whether this treaty is or is not in the interests of the United States and should or should not be ratified by the Senate must in the last event be determined from the language of the document itself and not from extraneous matter' was intended to call attention to the fact that the obligations and rights arising from the treaty, as in the case of any other contract, must be measured by the language of the document itself."

Senator Johnson said:

"Obviously the learned Secretary of State was unfortunate in his expressions. In his prior communication he said the question whether the treaty is or is not in the interests of the United States and should or should not be ratified by the Senate must in the last event be determined from the language of the document itself and not from extraneous matter.

"By every rule of construction, this language would seem to imply that in the matter of the ratification of a treaty by the Senate, the Senate in the last event is limited to the document itself and no extraneous matter could be considered. Now the distinguished Secretary of State says he was merely calling attention to the fact that obligations and rights arising from the treaty must be measured by the language itself.

"While the explanation may not be as clear and as bright as the noonday sun, I'm delighted that the declaration of policy enunciated by the foreign relations committee is neither controverted nor denied.

"We may accept as settled now the rights of the Senate in the consideration of treaties as defined in the resolution of the committee on foreign relations."

VARE AID'S REMOVAL HERE AGAIN HALTED

Appeals Court Once More Holds Sheriff Need Not Face Contempt Case.

DEFIED SENATE GROUP

Philadelphia, June 13 (A.P.).—The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals today refused to recede from its decision of a year ago that Thomas W. Cunningham need not appear in the Federal district court at Washington to answer contempt charges for refusing to give the source of $50,000 he contributed to the senatorial campaign of W. S. Vare in 1926.

Cunningham, sheriff of Philadelphia and treasurer of the Republican State committee, refused to reveal to the Reed Senate committee investigating campaign funds the source of the money.

Indicted in This City.

Cunningham was indicted by the Federal grand jury in Washington and fought removal to that jurisdiction. The Federal district court for Eastern Pennsylvania ordered his removal to Washington and Cunningha mappealed. The circuit court of appeals reversed the district court and a rehearing asked by the Government was held last Friday.

In another action growing out of Cunningham's refusal to answer the questions concerning the source of the money, the Senate cited Cunningham to appear before the bar of the Senate. In this case also, Cunningham fought removal to Washington; was ordered remanded to Washington by the same district court whose decision was also reversed by the appellate court. This case was taken to the Supreme Court of the United States by the Government and Cunningham lost.

The rehearing in the Federal Court indictment case was based on the Supreme Courts decision, the Government contending that the Supreme Court had ruled that the questions of the Reed committee were pertinent and proper and that this opinion of the higest court should be applied to the Federal indictment case from the District of Columbia.

Appeals Courts Stand.

The Circuit Court of Appeals in its opinion today ruled that the Supreme Court did not pass upon the perinency of the questions asked but simply ruled that the Senate warrant was valid and that Cunningham would have to rsepond to it and answer such questions pertinent to the matter under inquiry as the Senate through its committee or the president of the Sneate, may propound.

The Court of Appeals therefore took the ground that since the Supreme Court had not specifically ruled on the point at issue, the Appellate Court sees no reason why it should recede from its position.

$150,000,000 in Claim Against U. S. by Indians

Tulsa, Okla., June 13 (A.P.).—Petitions in which the Creek Indian Nation asks $150,000,000 from the United States for 28,875 acres of river-bed lands, in the Arkansas, Cimmaron and South Canadian Rivers, today were in the mails for filing in the United States Court of Claims at Washington: If attorneys for the tribe win the suit, 20,880 Oklahoma Creek Indians would share equally in the judgment.

The value of the river-bed lands, which are claimed as a part of the grant made to the tribe in 1852 by President Fillmore, is listed at $20,000,000 for oil rights, $100,000,000 for sand and gravel rights, and an undetermined amount for power and irrigation rights.

ANTIGAMBLING BILLS ARE REPORTED OUT

locked, just as places now are padlocked for violation of the liquor or "red light" laws.

A bookmaker on horse races, elections, baseball games, or other contest, could be sentenced to pay a fine of $500 or serve six months in jail, or both.

A patron caught in a gambling place could be fined up to $1,000, imprisoned for a year, or both.

The legislation also includes the so-called "numbers" game in the category of gambling.

Tydings Opposes Bill.

Senator Tydings (Democrat), of Maryland, opposed the bills, declaring that he thought it unfair to padlock the property of a person when that property had been used for gambling by another person.

Senator Copeland (Democrat), of New York, poured sarcasm on the legislation, declaring that, like prohibition and other legislation, it was futile. If a man wants to gamble, he said, he is going to gamble, law or no law.

The bills, which had been approved by the District Commissioneres, were favored by Chairman Capper, Senator Jones (Republican), of Washington; Senator Glass (Democrat), of Virginia, and Senator Robsion, the author.

Taxi Measure Approved.

The taxicab liability bill was approved after all but the liability section had been killed. Among the provisions rejected was one for the regulation of fares.

Testifying on the reduced fare bill for school children, President Hanna, of the Washington Railway & Electric Co., declared that a 2-cent fare would cost the two local companies $70,000 a year.

John J. Noonan, who has been crusading for the legislation, declared that, as a result of the reduced fare, twice as many children would ride the cars and buses, and that as a result the companies' loss would be neglible or nothing.

Robsion Blocks Move.

When the bill was reported out last week, it restricted the reduced fare to public school children. Yesterday Senator Tydings moved to amend it so as to include children attending all schools, private as well as public. This, he said, was the practice wherever the free or reduced fare was in vogue.

Senator Robsion would not agree. Why not, he asked, have the Government provide the private schools with free textbooks; why not, for that matter, provide free buildings for them? The amendment was adopted with only Robsion dissenting, but a motion to report the bill out was blocked by the Kentuckian's point of no quorum.

SENATE PASSES TARIFF BILL BY CLOSE VOTE OF 44 TO 42

lenges with the assertion that "the answer to all of this is the actual working of the tariff."

Asked by Senator Brookhart (Republican), Iowa, "what good would it do" to place a 42-cent tariff on wheat, without the debenture, Mr. Watson replied "the people of Iowa settled that when they made Representative Dickinson the nominee of the party last week."

Senator Harrison (Democrat), Mississippi, demanded "tell us what happened to Senator Grundy."

James J. Davis is every bit as much for protection as Mr. Grundy," Mr. Watson retorted.

Chairman Hawley, of the ways and means committee, was greeted with prolonged applause when he told the House of the Senate action, and said he would call up the measure at once.

Both Senators Smoot (Republican), Utah, and Simmons, North Carolina, chairman and ranking Democrat on the Senate finance committee, were lauded by their colleagues for their untiring efforts in connection with the long and weary fight.

Immediately after the Senate had given its final approval to the measure, the House laid out a course of procedure for tomorrow. Its rules committee decided there would be only one vote on the two conference reports, with debate limited to three hours.

Robinson Sees Depression.

Mr. Borah contended in the Senate the duty on cement alone was sufficient to offset any benefits the farmers might get under the bill. He said the 6 cents a hundred pounds levy would increase the farmers' costs by more than $16,000,000.

Senator Robinson said the bill found little support among business men, "although there are, of course, groups whose demands or wishes have been recognized, and who quite naturally regard the revisions carried as wholesome."

"The measure," he said, "has been condemned generally by students of political economy. It has been protested under circumstances which indicate the probability of numerous retaliatory measures by foreign governments. It will result in embargoes as to some articles which are produced only in limited quantities in the United States.

"This bill is far more likely to prolong than end the business depression from which our country is suffering."

Senators Capper and Allen, Kansas, Republicans, issued statements after the vote.

The former said "the bill as a whole is an improvement over the present law," and its passage "will end the tariff uncertainty that has had considerable to do with disturbed business conditions."

Fine Tribute to Smoot.

Senator Allen expressed the view that the bill was better than existing law and that "if the advantages are more equitably divided between the industrial and agricultural interests than they have been before as I believe they are, then the entire country will prosper."

Before the confusion following the vote subsided, Senator Walsh (Democrat), Massachuetts, was on his feet paying tribute to Smoot.

"I think the record would not be complete without a word of approval," Walsh said. "Through all the long debate he (Senator Smoot) has been patient, kind and industrious. He has won the approval of all. In all the history of the tariff debate, none has been called upon to conduct a more wearying task."

Senator Simmons joined in the praise of the Utahan, expressing appreciation for his "many kindnesses."

Senator Swanson (Democrat), Virginia, added praise for the "Little Giant" of North Carolina as Smoot crossed the aisle and shook hands with Walsh.

Senator Watson then commended the "wonderfully fine" spirit of the Democrats in their haste to "pay just tribute" to Smoot.

Schall's Hasty Return Scares Tariff Backers

(Associated Press.)

Senate Republican leaders cared little about the final vote on the tariff bill coming on Friday the 13—until Senator Schall, of Minnesota, surprised them and returned to Washington just before the roll call.

Schall, a Republican independent, had been paired against the bill with Senator Fletcher (Democrat), Florida, for it.

Taking no chances the Republicans immediately got in touch with Senator Fletcher's home here where he has been recuperating from an illness. The Florida senator obliged by riding to the Senate to vote. At his home tonight he was said to have suffered no ill effects from the trip.

Shouse Declares Tariff Bill Crime

Monument to Incapacity, Asserts Democratic Executive Head.

(Associated Press.)

Jouett Shouse, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee, in a statement last night asserted the tariff bill was "an economic crime, a political blunder by the party that jammed it through, a monument to the incapacity of President Hoover to lead his party, and a demonstration of the ineptness of his administration."

"Enactment of the Grundy tariff," he said, "demonstrates the not very surprising fact that a Republican President with a party majority of 15 in the Senate and 103 in the House is able after a 16 months' battle to get a tariff bill through by a majority of two votes."

"Kidnaping" Case Puzzles Police

Uncertain What to Do With Two Prisoners Held in Alexandria.

Unable to establish a motive, and uncertain as to just what they should do next, police were holding two men last night in connection with the alleged attempt to kidnap 3-year-old Virginia May Herbert in Alexandria Thursday.

Robert Gladdens, 33 years old, colored, living at 120 Schotts alley, is alleged to have driven to Washington with the child when she entered his car in front of her Alexandria home. Gladdens told police that he had merely taken her for a joy ride and was returning with her when he was taken into custody.

Charles Hayes, of 124 C street northeast, who accompanied Gladdens to Alexandria, was also held by the police in connection with the case.

EMPLOYERS UTILIZE REDS, SAYS WITNESS

Communists Aided to Split Ranks of Labor, House Committee Hears.

$25,000 FOR INQUIRY

(Associated Press.)

Charges that "so called 100 per cent American employers" were encouraging Communism were made yesterday before the House Communist investigation committee by Edward F. McGrady, legislative representative of the American Federation of Labor.

While McGrady was discussing activities of Communists in strikes in New York City and Gastonia, N. C., the House appropriated from its contingent fund $25,000 for the expenses of the investigation after a short debate.

Representative La Guardia (Republican), New York, declared Congress should do "something constructive to remedy unemployment" instead of investigating Communists, when, he said, there was no danger of this Government being overthrown.

In his testimony McGrady told the committee the investigation should be directed into the source of the Communists' money. He said they subsidized fourteen daily newspapers.

Some employers of labor, he asserted, used the Communists, to split organizations of their employes. Communists he said promoted strikes without providing means for feeding the strikers, and by their activities caused the citizenry to turn against them.

In the fur workers strike in New York City, he declared, the Communists gained control of local labor organizations and hired "the spawn of the gutter" to beat members who criticized the conduct of the strike. He said women were hired who were as bad as the men and were given razors to slash women workers as they went to their work. Homes were invaded, women and men assaulted by the hired sluggers, he added.

The committee heard Robert Carl White, Assistant Secretary of Labor, in executive session on Russian entries into this country and on the deportation laws.

London Society Waits Expected Royal Visitors

London, June 13 (A.P.).—London is about to receive an influx of royalty which will add additional luster to an already brilliant season. Prince Takamatsu, second son of the Emperor of Japan, with his bride, is making a return visit for that paid Tokyo by the Duke of Gloucester last year. The King and Queen of Spain are expected here shortly.

Former King George, of Greece, is already in London and Prince Camrong, uncle to the King of Siam, is renewing acquaintances in London after an absence of 37 years. Another royal visitor is Prince Danil, formerly of Montenegro, who is spending a quiet holiday here with the princess.

Mexico Plans Session To End Silver Crisis

Mexico City, June 13 (A.P.).—President Ortiz Rubio today instructed his ministers of finance, industry and foreign relations to draw up a program for a world conference to settle Mexico's silver crisis. The conference will be held in Mexico City at a date to be determined. All silver-consuming countries will be asked to send representatives. Large American and Canadian producers have signified they will attend.

The president also ordered creation of a national mining council to regulate production. Mexico is the largest silver-producing country.

Mexican Troops Find Bandit Victims' Bodies

Zamora, Michoacan State, June 13 (A.P.).—Troops today discovered the bodies of the rancher, Jose Quiroz, and his servant, Luis Magdaleno, who were kidnaped by bandits April 12. The victims had been buried, each with a large stone on his body.

Officials said examination indicated they had been buried while still living.

DAY IN CONGRESS

SENATE.

Met at 11 a. m. and adjourned to 2:30 p. m. to noon Monday.

By a vote of 44 to 42, passed the Hawley-Smoot tariff bill.

Adopted the conference report on a bill to authorize the sale of the remainder of the coal and asphalt deposits in the segregated mineral lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, Oklahoma.

Received the nominations of Ralph J. Totten, of Tennessee, to be Minister to the Union of South Africa, and Henry E. Davis, of South Carolina, to be United States attorney for the Eastern District of South Carolina.

Made the $120,000,000 rivers and harbors bill the unfinished business.

The conference on the District of Columbia appropriation bill ended in a disagreement.

HOUSE.

Met at noon and adjourned at 5:15 p. m. to noon today.

Adopted the LaGuardia resolution to authorize a special committee to investigate the official conduct of Judge Harry B. Anderson, of the Western District of Tennessee.

Edward F. McGrady, of the American Federation of Labor, appeared before the Communist investigating committee and charged that the Communists were getting aid from some of the "so-called" 100 per cent American employers.

Claims committee ordered favorably reported the Pittenger bill to give $5,000 to each of the heirs of Henry Wirkkula.

Adopted a resolution declaring that Representative Milligan (Democrat), Missouri, was entitled to his seat from the Third District of Missouri.

Assistant Secretary of War Davison appeared before the military affairs committee and urged approval of the Kahn bill which would authorize the acceptance of land for aviation purposes in Alameda and Morin Counties, California.

Received from the President recommendations for supplemental appropriations of $50,000 to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to purchase a collection of moths and butterflies owned by the late Dr. William Barnes, of Decatur, Ill., for the Agriculture Department, and $13,000 for the expenses of participation by the Government in the Sixth Pan-American Child Congress in Lima, Peru.

Public lands committee approved the Colton bill intending the furtherance of the oil conservation program by authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to enter cooperative or unit plans of operation with lessees of public lands.

Passed and sent to the President the Senate bills giving the District of Columbia four more judges.

Committee Favors Paying Wirkkula Heirs

(Associated Press.)

The House claims committee yesterday ordered favorably reported the Pittenger bill to give each of the heirs of Henry Wirkkula $5,000. Wirkkula was killed on June 8, 1929, by Emmet J. White, a Federal border patrolman, while driving an automobile near International Falls, Minn. The heirs are Senelma Wirkkula, wife, and Alice Marie and Bernice Elaine Wirkkula.

CHIEF STEWARDESS DENIES SHIP PANIC

WHISTLE NEVER HEARD

third officer, who was on watch at the moment of the crash.

Almost before he could think, Eubank said, he found himself cut off by flames and his clothing afire. He swung himself out over the railing and when the heat from the flaming tanker and the ignited Fairfax became intense, he dropped into the sea fully clothed..

He dived several times to escape the flaming gasoline and estimated he had been in the water nearly an hour when he sighted a damaged life boat. He remembered nothing after reaching the boat. When he was revived he found himself with Joe Coker, Fairfax Negro deck hand. Both men tore their shirts from their backs to stuff into leaky places in the boat and in this condition they drifted about until noon the next day, when they were picked up by a fishing boat.

Disorder Is Denied.

Dickerson H. Hoover, chief of the Federal Steamboat Inspection Service, examined A. J. Powell, third officer of the Fairfax, who went back to the stand today at his own request.

Powell appeared yesterday with a large bandage across his upper lip, but denied he had been hurt in the collision. Today he reiterated his denial. Hoover asked him a number of technical questions about preparations for launching lifeboats.

Miss Nellie Todd, an entertainer on the boat, said there was no trampling of passengers and little disorder. She said the crew behaved well and that she saw one Negro waiter going about breaking open cabins and assisting passengers in getting out.

Miss Dorothy Mannix, a nurse on the ship, told of her efforts to quiet passengers and of rendering aid to those who were hurt.

Local Woman Called.

Miss Jane Stone, of Washington, chief stewardess on the Fairfax, told of assisting Mrs. Ida Berkowitz, 22, of Boston, and her son, Robert. Both Mrs. Berkowitz and the child died at the Carney Hospital from burns and the effects of smoke.

Mrs. Berkowitz refused to enter a lifeboat until a lifebelt had been placed around her child, Miss Stone testified. She described the difficulty with which she cared for the injured woman because of the latter's hysterical condition. To please Mrs. Berkowitz, Miss Stone said, she went to a stateroom and obtained pillowcases which she tore to shreds and made a rope with which to tie the child to its mother. She placed Mrs. Berkowitz in a lifeboat, she said, and then allowed a male passenger to conduct her into a lifeboat, where she remained for ten minutes until she was assured the fire was under control.

Miss Stone estimated there were from 30 to 50 passengers in the same lifeboat. She praised the work of the crew in maintaining order.

Governor of Wisconsin Unhurt in Plane Crash

Kohler, Wis., June 13 (A.P.).—Gov. Walter J. Kohler escaped unhurt when his cabin airplane "ground looped" today as he was taking off for Eagle River. Col. W. L. Smith, his executive secretary, and Melvin Thompson, the pilot, likewise were uninjured.

As the plane, traveling about 35 or 40 miles an hour, was about to leave the ground, one wheel of the landing gear locked and the ship swerved into a fence. The motor was torn out and a fence post penetrated the fuselage. The governor telephoned to Milwaukee to borrow a plane to take off for the convention of county board members at Eagle River, where he was scheduled to speak.

$210,162 Embezzlement Case Brings Indictment

Cincinnati, June 13 (A.P.).—A. W. Shafer, discharged manager of the Cincinnati office of the Henry L. Doherty Co., under arrest as a result of his $1,000,000 check manipulations, was indicted today by the grand jury for embezzlement of $210,162.50 from his former employers.

Shafer's shortages resulted in the closing of the Cosmopolitan Bank & Trust Co., as his books showed his firm was short $623,000 in its account with the bank. He admitted losing the money playing the stock market.

FILM FIGHT GAGGED, CLUBWOMEN CLAIM

Steam-Roller Plan Used to Block Commercialization Issue, Charge.

SOCIAL WORKER HEARD

Denver, June 13 (A.P.).—Repercussion of attempts to bring before the twentieth biennial convention of the General Federation of Women's clubs a resolution condemning "commercialization" of the organization's name was felt tonight when Mrs. J. Allan Hoover, of Govans, Baltimore, Md., said officials had discouraged any move of that nature on her part. Mrs. Hoover is an accredited delegate to the convention, which held its final session tonight.

Mrs. Howard D. Bennett, 2114 Allendale road, Baltimore, who is not an accredited delegate, but who, as member of the Baltimore District Federation, was working with Mrs. Hoover on the question of such a resolution, said that federation officials had used "steam roller" tactics in preventing introduction of the subject.

Mrs. Bennett said she agreed with the writer of an article in the current issue of a national liberal magazining, citing that the women's club movement "appears to be in the hands of big business."

Baltimore Sent Resolution.

The resolution, passed at a meeting of the executive committee of the Baltimore district of the federation and sent by telegraph to Mrs. John L. Whitehurst, Maryland Federation president, and Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, Brockton, Mass., first vice president of the Federation, was presumed to have been aimed at Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, associate director of public relations for American movie producers.

Mrs. Winter, a former president of the general federation, left several days ago for Boston.

Mrs. Hoover told newspapermen that both Mrs. Poole and Mrs. Walter W. Seymour, of Chicago, chairman of the resolutions committee, had told her she could not be recognized from the floor if she attempted to bring up the subject of commercialization.

Previously, the resolutions committee and executive committee had tabled the telegram.

Sociologist Is Heard.

Whiting Williams, who forsook the vice presidency of a steel company a few years ago for the denim of a journeyman laborer to plumb the ideas of working man, told the convention tonight that woman should view the world from the prism of her home. Mr. Williams, a former lecturer on business administration at Harvard University and Dartmouth College, now is industrial consultant of Cleveland, Ohio.

Urges Strong Home Influence.

"The trouble is," he advised the delegates, "that while labor-saving machinery has greatly lessened the home woman's traditional knee-and-elbow responsibilities, she has not yet organized her eye, ear and brain for answering the Nation-wide advertisement recently created by the latest progress in psychology. That 'ad' reads: 'Wanted—One general administrator and personnel manager. Apply to the American family.'

"The fuller facing of this newest challenge to her mentals rather than her muscles would help raise such a type of younger citizens as would constitute a contribution to the solution of national problems."

Today's addresses, including one by Mrs. John F. Sippel, of Baltimore, newly elected president, closed the nine-day biennial session of the general federation, which by resolution went on record in favor of rigid prohibition enforcement, the world court and speedy ratification of the London naval treaty.

There was no mention today of the resolution concerning the alleged commercialization of the federation, particularly in regard to the motion picture industry. The resolution was given to the resolutions committee yesterday by Mrs. L. Allen Hoover, of Baltimore, and as was freely predicted, did not make its reappearance.

Mother, Son, Rum Taken in Dry Raid

Letterman's Squad Breaks Down Elecrtical Doors Guarding Speakeasy.

Sergt. Oscar J. Letterman's vice squad late yesterday arrested a mother and son and seized nearly 500 bottles of alleged beer in a raid on a residence in Sixth street near F street northeast.

The prisoners, Mrs. Canita Joseph, 51 years old, and her son, Anthony Joseph, 23 years old, were booked at the First Precinct Station. Mrs. Joseph was charged with possession and her son with sale and possession.

Breaking through barricaded doors electrically operated police raided an alleged speakeasy in Fourteenth street near S street northwest and seized a quantity of alleged liquor. The vice squad arrested Charles H. Neal, 22 years old, who was charged with sale and possession and maintaining a nuisance.

Attic Lover Claims Rival Was Hidden in Basement

Man Who Liver for Years in Woman's Carret Goes On Trial for Slaying of Fred Oesterreich, Her Husband, Eight Years Ago.

Los Angeles, Calif., June 13 (A.P.).—Attorneys for Otto Sanhuber, on trial here charged with the murder eight years ago of Fred Oesterreich, wealthy retired Milwaukee garment manufacturer, said in court today that Mrs. Oesterreich, the widow, had another lover in the basement while she was shielding Sanhuber in a garret cubbyhole of her home. Sanhuber and Mrs. Oesterreich are jointly charged with the murder but are to be tried separately.

Sanhuber, the woman's alleged lover, confessed he slew Oesterreich while he was quarreling with his wife. Who the other lover is claimed to be was a guarded mystery, but Earl S. Wakeman, defense counsel, said he would prove that a forthcoming State witness had hidden in the Oesterreich home at the time Sanhuber was living there. Sanhuber lived hidden in small closets for years in the Los Angeles and Milwaukee residences of the Oesterreichs.

The State, in an opening statement, said it would prove that Sanhuber conspired with Mrs. Oesterreich to murder the husband to get him out of their way.

Maryland Women Seek Governorship

Montgomery County Dry and Social Candidate to Oppose Ritchie.

Baltimore, June 13 (A.P.).—The likelihood that two women would be in the race for Governor of Maryland in the November election was indicated today with the announcement by Mrs. Millie D. Nicholson, of Montgomery County, that she would enter as an independent candidate, on a bone-dry platform.

Miss Elisabeth Gilman, a social worker, daughter of the first president of Johns Hopkins University, is the Socialist party nominee, and already has begun her campaign. Gov. Albert C. Ritchie is unopposed thus far for the Democratic nomination for a fourth term and Mayor William F. Broening, of Baltimore, also is unopposed for the Republican nomination.

Gov. Ritchie and Mayor Broening are avowed antiprohibitionists and Miss Gilman stated in her speech of acceptance that she considered prohibition secondary to economic and other social questions and would abide by the result of a referendum. Mrs. Nicholson, president of the Democratic Women's Law Enforcement League, has the indorsement of that body.

Injured Lieutenant Weds in Hospital

Miss Lucy Mercer, Niece of Hoover's Military Aid, West Point Bride.

West Point, N. Y., June 13 (A.P.).—Confined to a hospital cot by a broken leg suffered in his final equestrian exhibition at the nUited States Military Academy, Lieut. Paul Russell Weyrauch, of Spokane, Wash., today married Lucy Hodges Mercer, of Shreveport, La.

Only members of the immediate families and a few close friends were present in a private room of the Cadet Hospital, where Chaplain Arthur B. Kinsolving performed the ceremony. Bishop Edward M. Cross of the State of Washington pronounced the benediction.

Lieut. Weyrauch, son of Brig. Gen. Paul H. Weyrauch, of Spokane, Wash., received his diploma yesterday in the hospital from the Secretary of War. Miss Mercer is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Mercer, of Shreveport, and a niece of Lieut. Col. Campbell B. Hodges, military aid to the President and former commandant of cadets here.

SHIP ASHORE IN FOG ON FIRE ISLAND BAR

Two Tankers Collide Off Sandy Hook; Liners Are Held Up in Bay.

LOST AVIATOR CRASHES

New York, June 13 (A.P.).—Fog which blanketed the Long Island and New Jersey's coasts today caused two marine accidents, one freighter running aground and two tankers colliding off Ambrose Lightship.

The banana-laden Norwegian freighter Stavangeren, inbound from Cuba, was found hard aground in the mud and sand off Fire Island this morning. Without a radio, she apparently had lain there for some hours before being discovered.

Two Tankers Collide.

The Coast Guard cutter Seneca, two Coast Guard patrol boats and a destroyer stood by her during the day and hoped to drag her clear at high tide tonight. It was believed the freighter was undamaged as the bottom was soft.

Farther out, 11 miles south of the lightship at the entrance to the harbor, the Gulf Refining Co. tanker Gulf of Mexico was in collision with the Pan-American tanker Franklin K. Lane. A message from the Gulf of Mexico's captain to the line's offices here said both boats proceeded after the accident, indicating there was little damage to either.

The Gulf of Mexico was inbound from Port Arthur, Tex., making slow going through the fog, and the Franklin K. Lane was outbound for Aruba, Venezuela.

Among incoming liners delayed for hours by the fog were the Aquitania, the Europa, and the Siboney. The first to nose through the gray wall into the clear sunshine that bathed the upper bay and the city itself were the George Washington, with a delegation of Gold Star mothers, and the Santa Maria.

Paris Forced to Anchor.

The Paris left its anchor last night for France but had to anchor below quarantine until this morning. Then it moved outward and presumably to sea although the fog was so dense the liner was not sighted from Ambrose Lightship.

Lieut. Donald Browner, of Wright Field, Ohio, was flying to Miller Field, Staten Island, but could not find the field because of the fog. He set his ship down in a street about 300 feet from shore front and escaped with minor injuries. His plane was taken to Miller Field for repairs.

Many Attend Funeral For Boy Crash Victim

Special to The Washington Post.

Front Royal, Va., June 13.—A crowd of several hundred people attended the funeral services this afternoon for Keith Hockman, 19-year-old high school graduate who was killed Tuesday night on the Valley Pike near Mount Jackson, Va., when he and R. E. Herr, jr., were en route to Harrisonburg, Va.

The new car in which the two boys were driving crashed into a road roller. Hockman died before he reached the hospital while young Herr is in Rockingham Memorial Hospital suffering with a fractured knee cap and other injuries but it is thought that he will recover.

Farmer, 80, Bound Over On Charge of Murder

Luray, Va., June 13.—After numerous postponements and delays, Jacob Cubbage today was held for the Page County grand jury for the alleged murder of his grandson, Fred Cubbage, in this county four days ago. The 80-year-old farmer showed little emotion when bail was refused him. Sheriff Lucas conducting him back to a cell in the Page County Jail. His preliminary trial took place in Luray today.

Cubbage believed he would be discharged on his preliminary hearing.

KILLING ENDS TRYST; SLAYER SEIZES GIRL

Witness of Holdup Murder Forced to Accompany Man, She Asserts.

ARREST MADE ON TRAIN

New York, June 13 (A.P.).—A story of an automobile ride with a married man, a holdup, a shooting and a compulsory bus ride with the killer, was told today by Blanche May in explanation of the slaying of Joseph Mozynski, Queens delicatessen dealer.

Mozynski's body was found, two bullet holes ni the back of the head, in an isolated section of the Long Island borough last night, almost 24 huors after he had left home saying he planned to deliver some groceries. A woman's bloodstained coat was in his automobile nearby .

Arrested as a suspect when it was found she had been secretly meeting Mozynski, Miss May, who is 22, told the following story:

Mozynski called for her Wednesday night. They parked on a lonely road. As they were sitting in the back seat talkin a hold-up man appeared and demanded their money. He ordered Mozynski into the front seat and then, as he sat behind the wheel, shot him through the head.

The man then dragged the body 20 feet away, threatened Miss May with death isf she made an outcry, and forced her to walk 2 miles with him ot a bus line. They boarded the bus together and rode to the Flushing subway station. There he got out and ran downstairs. She went home. Fearful of her parent's anger if they found she had been in the company of a married mna, she decided not to tell the police of the shooting.

She burned a blood-stained purse and washed stains from her clothing.

Chicago, June 13 (A.P.).—A man who gave his name as John J. Moisset, 24, was taken from a New York-Chicago train today and held as a fugitive on a murder charge. Detectives boarded the train at an outlying station at the request of New York police who wired full directions.

A second man named as Alberto Lombardo, also was sought but was not on the train. Information here was that the two are wanted for killing Joseph Mozynski yesterday. Moisset denied knowing Lombardo but said he had known Mozynski. He waived extradition and is held for the arrival of New York detectives.

Woman Wounded, Husband Sought.

Rosie Snipes, colored, 40 years old, of Washington street northwest, suffered a bullet wound in the right thigh last night in her residence when she was shot by a man reported by Sixth Precinct police to be her husband, George Snipes, colored, 44 years old, who was being sought. She was treated at Freedmen's Hospital.

NOW TO BUSINESS.

The passage of the tariff bill is the signal for releasing two great forces in America—business and politics.

Regardless of the details of the new law, American business recognizes it as a protective measure. Industry is safe. The wages of labor will remain high. Agriculture is benefited. Doubt is removed. Therefore business of all kinds is in a position to close contracts and begin the execution of long-suspended plans.

It is not in the nature of Americans to look backward and sulk. They are normally eager to go forward. Business never bothers with politics unless politics interferes. What is supremely important to politicians in Washington is utterly ignored in the business world. Business men will not waste an hour complaining over any disappointments they may feel in regard to the tariff. What they have wanted is certainty, whether good or bad. Now that they know where they stand they will dismiss the subject and get busy.

The country has been wronged by the long tariff doubt. After the slump of last October it was especially desirable that Congress should enact a protective tariff law without delay. Business has long ago recovered courage, but it dared not make commitments until it could be sure that industry, labor and agriculture would be protected. Prosperity in full volume could have been restored before this, so far as business was concerned. It was politics that held prosperity back.

Besides sounding the signal for full steam ahead in the business world, the passage of the tariff bill also sounds the tocsin of political strife. For months the opponents of protection, who of course oppose the Republican administration, have been trying to convince voters that the new tariff robs both producers and consumers, farmers and city folks, and arraigns against the United States gigantic foreign forces that will destroy American trade abroad. Owing to the uncertainty in Republican ranks resulting from the party treason of some senators it was impossible for months to forsee what kind of tariff would be enacted. During this period of uncertainty the enemies of protection have been unceasingly active. No doubt a large proportion of voters who are strongly in favor of protection to industry, labor and agriculture have been convinced that the new measure is bad legislation that will harm them and the country.

Nothing but actual proof to the contrary will remove this conviction from many minds. Misrepresentation has done its mischief. It is now up to the administration and the Republican party to dissipate false beliefs regarding the tariff. They will be powerfully aided by business, which will make long strides to recover lost ground. As the country resumes its activities in a thousand lines the false descriptions of the new tariff law will be proved false. It will be found a sure bulwark against competition that would like to close American factories and reduce American wages. When workmen find their opportunities for jobs increasing and their wages generous they will no longer listen to political nonsense picturing the tariff as robbing them.

The tariff bill as passed is a guarantee of American prosperity. It protects all workers in factory and field. It favors American factories against foreign factories. It holds the American market for Americans first. It adheres to the rule that has built up the greatest industrial nation in the world, with the highest wages, the best standard of living and the broadest opportunities to brain and brawn that humanity has ever seen.

Politicians who may attempt to convince their fellow citizens that the protective tariff is bad for them will be wasting their breath. All the advantages gained by months of misrepresentation by these politicians will be swept away by the facts. The United States can not be kept down. It enters upon a new era of prosperity, in which even the opponents of protection will have an equal share. One of the fundamental pledges given by the Republican party and Herbert Hoover has been made good.

POLITICS AND THE DISTRICT.

The Senate conferees proposed two compromises with respect to the fiscal relationship clause in the District appropriations bill. One would have substituted a 70-30 ratio for the 60-40 ratio provided by the present law. The other would have made a Federal contribution at a figure somewhere between the $9,000,000 specified in the House bill and the $12,000,000 provided in the Senate bill. The House conferees, however, refused to consider either compromise. As a result of this deadlock, the District bill seems destined to fail of enactment.

If the District bill is not enacted, Congress will pass a resolution continuing the prevailing appropriations for salaries and maintenance through the next fiscal year. All improvements, however, including streets, schools, grade crossing elimination, further development of the municipal center, &c., will have to be postponed for lack of funds.

It will be a pity if the District should be halted in its development for an entire year. The bicentennial of George Washington's birth is to be celebrated in 1932, and Washington should not be shabby and dilapidated at that time. But the fiscal relationship dispute is of fundamental importance, and if the price of its adjudication has to be a halt of Washington's progress for one year, it is better to pay that price now, in the knowledge that in the long run Washington will be justly treated by Congress. Meanwhile, the fiscal relationship study committee will be able to get down to formulating a scientific and fair plan for adjusting the division of costs between the taxpayers and the Federal Government.

Let the bill fail! The responsibility is on the House conferees and, particularly, on Representative Simmons. Credit is due the Senate conferees for having recognized Washington's needs, and for having stood firm for fiscal justice. Washington can muddle through a year without an appropriation bill, and next year Representative Simmons will no longer be chairman of the District appropriations committee. Doubtless some one with intelligence and fairmindedness will take his place, and in any event the Senate will remain firm, now that it has found that the House has shirked its duty toward the National Capital and permitted politicians to use its machinery to manufacture bogus capital for themselves as defenders of the Treasury. The trick of pretending that the District of Columbia is a bandit and that only the stern patriotism of prairie-dog politicians saves the Treasury, is an old, threadbare device, played for many years by members from hick districts who have no regard for the welfare of the great Capital that bears the name of Washington. The Senate is putting an end to this abuse of authority.

POOR SPORT.

It is not probable that Jack Sharkey deliberately struck Max Schmeling the foul blow that ended the world championship fight in New York. Sharkey seems to have had all the best of the affair. It is true that Schmeling exhibited an unexpected ability to take punishment and that Sharkey probably was disappointed in that his bag of tricks was unproductive of visible result, but he had so much to lose that it is not reasonable to suppose that he deliberately struck low. The anticlimax with which the title changed hands, however, did professional boxing no good. Since the days of Dempsey interest in prize fighting has been on the wane, and the Sharkey-Schmeling affair reduced it to its lowest ebb.

Sharkey has a reputation for fouling. He stopped Phil Scott at Miami last winter with a blow that the Englishman claimed was foul, but the referee, influenced, no doubt, by the fact that "Fainting Phil" bears a reputation for claiming fouls, refused to disqualify Sharkey. The question that arose in many minds as a result of the Scott incident is emphasized by the Schmeling affair. Are there any real fighters left in the world, men ready and willing to stand up to other men and win or defend a championship on the basis of superior ability? Sharkey, presumably, is the best this country has to offer. Scott is England's best, and Schmeling is the German champion. Yet each time these men have fought for the championship the result has been marred by the claim or the allowance of a foul.

Boxing is a dying sport. The public is tired of paying from $5 to $50 for the privilege of witnessing burlesques such as those of Miami and New York. The promoters may try to arrange a return engagement between Schmeling and Sharkey, but next time there will not be any $750,000 gate.

AMERICAN BATTLE FLAGS.

The first flag raised by American combat troops on the battle front in the World War was the Christian standard, which is given to chaplains, without regard to denomination. This standard traveled over 2,000 miles in Europe—over 1,000 miles after it had been under enemy fire. The blue field of this flag received sixteen bullet holes. Its white cross was not touched by enemy fire.

The national standard and colors of the Sixth Field Artillery (horse), the regiment that fired the first American shot, were constantly with the Christian standard during the World War. These battle flags were displayed at Sanzey, France, January 21, 1918. They saw battle action at various places on 250 miles of battle front, and were in the region of the armies commanded by Gens. Rawlinson, Debeney, Humbert, Mangin, Degoutte, De Mitry, Berthelot, Gouraud, Hirschauer, Pershing, Liggett, Bullard and Gerard. On their battle ribbons are such names as Lorraine, Picardy, Montdidier-Noyon, Aisne-Marne, St. Mihiel and Meuse-Argonne.

Shock divisions from the Gordon Highlanders and the French Moroccans were with these American flags in the wheat fields near Soissons when the tide of battle turned in the war. The garrison of historic Verdun rendered the highest possible honor to these flags.

That there may be no fiction as to where the Stars and Stripes were in the World War, there has been filed with the historical department of the Army War College an authenticated statement verified by several eyewitnesses as to the pathway of these flags where history was made. It shows where these flags were from January 21, 1918, to December 13, 1918, when the Stars and Stripes led the American Army across the Rhine.

HAVE WE MISSED A POINT?

By Commander HOLLOWAY H. FROST, U. S. Navy.

In the Washington conference all types of cruisers and destroyers were grouped in a single category. This was called "auxiliary surface craft."

At the Geneva conference our proposal recognized the subdivision of this category into cruisers and destroyers. At that time, as now, we had a great deficiency in cruisers and an excess of destroyers. Because of this condition our proposal at Geneva permitted a deficiency in cruisers to be made good—at least partially—by the retention of an equal tonnage of destroyers in excess of our allotment in that type. Thus, if at the signing of an agreement we were 50,000 tons short of our cruiser allotment, we would be permitted to retain temporarily 50,000 tons of destroyers in excess of our allotment in that type. Thereafter for each cruiser built an equal tonnage of destroyers would be scrapped, until the allotments in both types were reached.

At the London conference cruisers were subdivided into two subcategories: A, those having guns over 6.1 inches, and B, those having guns of 6.1 inches or less. By Article XVIII we are prohibited from completing two 10,000-ton 8-inch cruisers until after December 31, 1936. Unfortunately the treaty contains no provision by which this 20,000-ton deficiency in cruisers can be counterbalanced—at least partially—by retaining 20,000 tons of destroyers over our allotment until these two cruisers are completed. Of course, no one could maintain that a given tonnage of destroyers is as valuable an asset as the same tonnage of 8-inch cruisers. Admittedly, their retention would only partly make up for the important concession we made in Article XVIII. But it would be a step in the right direction.

Under the treaty we are permitted to build 73,000 tons of 6-inch cruisers. It is probable that we will desire to use some or all of this tonnage for vessels of rather unusual design. We may wish to try out the 10,000-ton 12-gun ship. The combination "cruiser-carrier" is an interesting possibility. A destroyer leader of 2,500 tons has its advantages. In the development of these types, it will be necessary to build single ships first, so that the lessons learned in their construction and operation may be applied to the others. Also, for financial reasons it may be desirable to spread our building program over more than six years. This also would equalize the load in our navy yards and shipbuilding companies. For these reasons, it is possible, even probable, that all of our 73,000 tons of 6-inch cruisers will not be completed until after December 31, 1936. If there is any deficiency on that date, it would be entirely fair to compensate for it by the retention of an equal destroyer tonnage. By Article XVII we are allowed to substitute destroyers for 14,350 tons of 6-inch cruisers, but it appears probable that this amount will not be sufficient to meet our needs.

Our position as regards the "auxiliary surface craft" of the Washington conference would be strengthened considerably by the unlimited substitution of destroyers for cruisers contained in our Geneva proposals. Even if no additional destroyers are built before 1937 we will have an excess of 76,000 tons of this type at the expiration of the treaty. While very old, these destroyers would still have considerable war value. It would seem both unfavorable and uneconomical to have to scrap all our excess in this type while we still have deficiencies in cruiser tonnage.

Perhaps, even now, it is not too late to rectify our position in this respect.

JUST FOLKS

By EDGAR A. GUEST.

FLAG DAY.

What keeps Old Glory young
And radiant and fair?
Time stills the sagest tongue,
Breaks strength at last with care.
Age bends the stoutest will
And stains all cheeks with tears,
But Freedom's banner still
Grows lovelier with the years.

Old men grow faint and weak.
Old buildings fall to dust.
Age renders all things weak,
The brightest sabers rust.
The charms of yesterday
Fade with the twinge of pain
And swiftly pass away
No more to gleam again.

But as the years go by Old Glory holds her place,
A joy to every eye,
The hope of every race.
Despite time's stress and care
Youth gleams in every fold,
Still beautiful and fair,
Never the Flag grows old.

What keeps Old Glory there
Against Time's cruel toll,
Not screaming shells in air,
But something of the soul,
While freedom's songs are sung
By young men, following on,
Old Glory shall stay young
Long after we are gone.

Another Letter From a Bald-Headed Dad to His Flapper Daughter.

By ROBERT QUILLEN

MY dear Louise: When the summer vacation is over you will be a freshman in college.

You had the privilege of selecting the school you preferred—after I had eliminated all but four—and you chose one near home "because the girls there have such kind faces."

That was a good enough reason, other things being equal, and I commend your taste.

The "kind look" that impressed you isn't a gift of nature, but a product of character and breeding.

Most of the girls you saw came from old-fashioned homes, where they were taught to be unselfish and useful, and most of them expect to teach school or earn their living in some other way when they graduate.

They don't smoke or drink or indulge in promiscuous petting. How quickly they would be "shipped" if they did—and though they are much more sophisticated than girls were twenty years ago, they are clean and good and above reproach.

In short, they are typical, wholesome, gay, sensible, independent, respectable, honorable, ordinary American girls.

But they aren't all like that—not by a jug full.

And that's the reason I am writing you this letter.

As a pound of butter in a refrigerator absorbs the odor of other foods, so you and other girls of your age absorb standards and ideals and habits when you go away to college.

You may think you can hold your own and keep other girls from remodeling you to fit their measurements, but you are mistaken.

For good or ill college life will begin to change and adjust and shape and mold you the day you enter.

Try as you will to remain plain old Louise, the group influence of the other girls will rub off a little here and there and add a little here and there, and never again will you be the same kid you are now.

That sounds serious, eh? Somebody is going to make you over without asking your permission.

Well, if I had to be made over, inside or out, I'd ponder a long time before choosing the surgeon—and he would be the best I could afford.

That's the idea I am trying to put over.

Be mighty careful in choosing the group that is to make you over.

How shall you know which one to avoid?

Well, people never hide their goodness but only their badness.

The girls to dodge are the ones who have something to hide—who get by because they are good sneaks.

Say to them: "No, gals; I'm not yellow. I'd rather miss a kick or two than to have a sore spot on my self-respect." Love, DAD.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Former Chief Yeoman Points Out Some Hazards and Hardships of Technicalities During the War and Postwar Periods.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: The word "technicality" is a terrible thing. It is certainly a thorn in my side and the bane of former service men. It is even now preventing many deserving veterans from admission to the U. S. Naval Hospital in Washington. Obviously invented by the Government to forestall the attempts of war veterans to secure compensation or hospitalization, this technicality racket is causing considerable hardship.

Having been three years in Russia, China, Japan and the Philippines, I and my shipmates were sent to St. Nazaire on a transport which left Hoboken in May, 1918. When some 500 miles out she was attacked by U-boats. A Japanese maru astern our ship was torpedoed and went down. Not a gun was aboard our ship. Neither were we camouflaged. In fact, we were defenseless in submarine-infested waters. We attributed our escape to the wonderful maneuvering abilities of Capt. Scott.

On our return trip, the first night out from Bordeaux to New York, an unprotected ship was blown in half just off our starboard quarter. Capt. Scott zigzagged from his course to one above the northern-circle route, only to discover that we were again in an area infested with enemy submarines, icebergs and other hazards. Running without lights at night, and at the mercy of icebergs, mines and torpedoes, we were a 500-lives, $500,000 liability, and a $5,000,000 material target—all because of a technicality which prevented proper convoy and protection. Besides, the flu broke out, and the men began to die singly and in pairs. There was no decent food, and of this not a sufficient amount. Why? Worst of all, there was not a drop of medicine. On account of a technicality which prevented him from securing a store of medical supplies, the chief pharmacist mate paced the foc'sle crying and lamenting like one insane, and had to be locked in a storeroom. We were obliged under another technicality to stop our ship several times to bury our dead, thus further jeopardizing our lives and ship. I caved in soon afterward at the Naval Hospital in Brooklyn, where I had been placed in the "dangerous ward" and practically left to die—from what, if not "technicalities?"

I and hundreds of others are prevented from securing our adjusted compensation, hospitalization or disability ratings, simply on account of technicalities.

EX-CHIEF YEOMAN, U. S. N.
Naval Hospital, Washington.

Senate's Right to Scrutinize Treaty Papers Should Be Realized by Foreign Negotiators.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: I have tried and failed to account for the action of the President in fixing the stamp of executive secrecy on documents which may be required for the enlightenment of the legislative body, without whose consent the breath of life can not animate the London naval or any other treaty to which our Government is a party.

The assertion that secret papers relating to a treaty should be subject solely to the scrutiny of the President is, as I consider it, constitutionally obnoxious.

Considering their experience of recent years, European diplomats should be aware of this, and in good faith they should give it decent consideration in their negotiations with American treaty delegations.

They had their lesson when the question of joining the League of Nations was before the Senate. They then learned, to their surprise, perhaps, that under our Constitution the treay making power is dual.

They likewise may have learned that the Senate's power to give consent is, it may be, more important than the executive power to propose. They, as well as unbiased Americans, should realize the weakness of the claim that under our Constitution knowledge of secret understandings must be limited to the initial phase of treaty ratification.

Accordingly, it is only fair to say that if foreign diplomats have to some extent involved the London pact in secrecy, it has not been done in guileless ignorance, but with Machiavellian intent. Under the circumstances they have nobody to blame but themselves if their secrets become public.

FEDERALIST.

Americans Who Have Been Deprived of Property in Mexico Have Not Received a Dollar in Payment—How About It, Mr. Morrow?

To the Editor of The Post—Sir: Mexico by process of law and otherwise has taken possession of American properties for a period extending over fifteen years. Properties regarding which there was no question of title or taxes have been taken solely to give to Mexican citizens, and are still held by them. No American citizen has up to the present received a dollar in payment for these properties.

The following comment from the Nogales (Ariz.) Herald is pertinent on this point:

"No person even remotely interested in the prosperity of our community and that of our neighbors on the west coast of Mexico can fail to view with concern the growing symptoms of agrarianism now evident in the state of Sonora. Our welfare and the welfare of that state are so closely interrelated that what affects one must affect the other.

"About a hundred or so people, it is said, have taken over portions of a ranch belonging to an American and leased to another American some 20 miles south of Nogales, without due process of law. They have blocked the Nogales-Hermosillo highway, forcing travelers to take a detour. They are said to have torn down some of the owner's fences and have put up their own. Notwithstanding the extreme care that the owners have taken to protect their cattle, some 35 head are now reported missing. And the owners are said to be helpless to cope with this invasion.

"The result is that the enterprise of these ranches has been paralyzed and the men normally employed by them have been thrown out of work. They have disposed of all but a minimum of their stock, and the neighboring ranchers are marking time, awaiting the outcome. The authorities have been notified and their failure to act would indicate that they condone the actions of the 'agraristas.'"

How about this, Ambassador Morrow?

Mrs. Lawrence Townsend Occupies Royal Box at Concert.

By JEAN ELIOT.

WHILE a score or more American women were received at the Court of St. James this year, a much rarer honor fell to the lot of a distinguished Washington woman, Mrs. Lawrence Townsend. She was a guest in the royal box at Albert Hall when the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra made its London debut, with Signor Arturo Toscanini conducting.

Both King George and Queen Mary were present on that auspicious occasion, their guests occupying two boxes and including the Duke of Connaught, H. R. H. Princess Beatrice, mother of the Queen of Spain; the Duchess of York, H. R. H. Princess Marie Louise and H. R. H. Princess Helene Victoria, nieces of the Duke of Connaught; H. R. H. Prince George, Lord and Lady Carisbrooke, Lady Leslie and Mrs. Townsend.

In London, as well as in Paris and other cities on the continent, Maestro Toscanini and the Philharmonic Orchestra were given an ovation. Over 8,000 people were crowded into Albert Hall for the opening performance, described in the Morning Post as "the best orchestral concert ever heard in London." And three other concerts had almost equally brilliant attendance.

As much at home in several European capitals as in Washington, Mrs. Lawrence Townsend has long had friendly association with members of the British royal family. In the drawing room of her house in Washington there are many photographs of King George and Queen Mary and of the British princes and princesses in their childhood days. Most of them are autographed in a personal vein. And when the present Prince of Wales was a guest of the Nation shortly after the war one of the few unofficial calls he made was upon Mr. and Mrs. Townsend.

Much of Mrs. Townsend's early life was spent abroad and she lived in several foreign capitals during the course of her husband's diplomatic career, crowned by his service as Minister to Portugal and later as Minister to Belgium. It will be remembered that Mrs. Townsend, who has been in London for the season, went abroad to visit various important European music centers in search of artists for her annual series of morning musicales. She heard Maestro Toscanini's first European concert, given in Paris, and reached London in time to be present when Rosa Ponselle made her debut at Covent Gardens.

Turkish Ambassador Is Host at Luncheon.

The Turkish Ambassador, Mr. Ahmed Muhtar, entertained at luncheon yesterday in honor of the newly appointed Counselor of the United States Embassy in Ankara, Mr. G. Howland Shaw. Guests included the Minister of Albania, Mr. Faik Konitza; the Chinese Minister and Mme. Wu, the Charge d'Affaires of Egypt and Mme. Ali Ismail Bey, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Mark Bristol, Mrs. Pendleton Mayo, the Mitary Attache of the Italian Embassy, Lieut. Col. Marco Pennaroli, and members of the staff, including the Counselor and Mme. Bedi, the first secretary, Mr. Nuri Sabit; the second secretary, Mr. Usaki Bulent, and Mme. Enver, daughter of the ambassador. Mme. Bedi acted as hostess.

Mme. Veverka, wife of the Minister of Czechoslovakia, left Washington yesterday and sailed last night from New York on the New Amsterdam for Europe. She will spend several months at her home in Czechoslovakia. The minister will join her there later in the summer.

Miss Ellen Cox Ewing, of New York, has selected August 4 as the date of her marriage to the Second Secretary of the Canadian Legation, Mr. Thomas Archibald Stone. The wedding will take place at the summer home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ewing, in Sorrento, Me., and Miss Ewing will have her sister, Mrs. Newbold Noyes, of Washington, as matron of honor.

Lieut. Comdr. and Mrs. Charles J. Wheeler are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter yesterday at Garfield Hospital. The baby will be named Doanda Risley Wheeler for her mother, who was Miss Doanda Risley Putnam. Mrs. Wheeler is the daughter of Mr. John R. Putnam, United States Consul at Amoy, China, and Mrs. Putnam. Her marriage to Commander Wheeler, now on duty in Washington, took place last June in Amoy.

Leo Kasehagens Return to Capital.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kasehagen have returned from their home on Jefferson street from Pittsburgh, where they went to be with their son, Mr. Leo Kasehagen, jr., when he received his bacheler of science degree from Carnegie Institute of Technology. On his graduation Mr. Kasehagen was commissioned a lieutenant in the Engineer Officers Reserve Corps.

After this week Mr. and Mrs. Kasehagen will have with them her sister, Mrs. Royston St. Noble, of Barcelona, Spain, who has been a patient in Georgetown Hospital for several months and who is now convalescing.

Mrs. Walter H. Gordon will leave Washington on Monday for Saunderstown, R. I., to be with her daughter, Mrs. Frank A. Allen, jr., and her children, who have a cottage there for the summer.

Col. and Mrs. John T. Axton and Miss Matilda Axton are sailing from New York today for a Caribbean cruise. They will stop at ports in Cuba, Jamaica, Costa Rica, Panama and Colombia, South America. They will visit Maj. John T. Axton, jr., who is on duty at Fort Davis, Panama Canal Zone. They will return in about five weeks.

New Attache Arrives Here From Warsaw

Mr. Jan Tomaszewski to Officiate at Polish Embassy.

The newest addition to the diplomatic bachelor contingent in Washington is Mr. Jan Tomaszewski, newly arrived attache of the Polish Embassy. Mr. Tomaszewski came to town only a few days ago from Italy, where he passed several days with his parents. His father is the Polish Consul in Rome. Although this is his first visit to this country, Mr. Tomaszewski feels a keen interest in Washington because his maternal grandfather, who was Portuguese, came to Washington in the '60s as attache of the Portuguese Legation, his first diplomatic post. This is also Mr. Tomaszewski's first appointment away from the foreign office.

Mrs. Luther A. Johnson, wife of Representative Johnson, with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McGee, has returned to her apartment at the Wardman Park Hotel after a trip to New York. Mr. McGee has left for their home in Corsicana. Mrs. McGee will remain with her parents until July 1, when she will return to Texas.

Miss Lilla La Garde entertained at tea yesterday afternoon for Miss Mary Hoge, whose wedding to Mr. Robert W. Burton will take place this afternoon, at 4 o'clock, at All Souls' Memorial Church, Cathedral avenue and Woodley place.

Mrs. Glenn Curtiss, of Hammondsport, N. Y., is at the Willard.

LEADING dietitians stress the importance of variety in children's menus. They praise the practice of serving a crisp, ready-to-eat cereal at the evening meal.

What better cereal than Kellogg's Corn Flakes! The world's most popular! Children love these flakes of toasted corn with the flavor that can't be copied.

Delicious for breakfast, lunch and supper. Always oven-fresh in the inner-sealed waxtite wrapper. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

SUNSHINE CAROLERS PUT HYMNS ON AIR

Rev. Hawthorne, Wallace Memorial Church Pastor, Finds Gospel Liked.

RADIO TOUCHES HEARTS

By DAVID RANKIN BARBEE.

It is Thursday noon. Not a very attractive time of the day, you will admit, to put on a radio program. But at 12:10, over WRC, there comes to all who have tuned in on this station a song. Have you heard it?

"Get God's sunshine into your heart,
Get God's sunshine into your heart;
It will cheer you every day,
Drive the gloom of night away,
If you get God's sunshine into your heart."

The voices are clear and musical. There is a rhythm in the singing that indicates it is not just a performance. The singers are singing from their hearts to your hearts, and not from their diaphragms and vocal chords to your untrained ears.

"With this little sunshine chorus, ladies and gentlemen, we present to you the 'Sunshine Carolers,'" the announcer, George F. Ross, says. "They are here again today to give you another half hour of 'Sunshine Carols' and Gospel hymns."

A stocky young man now stands before the microphone. He lifts his hand and the chorus begins over again—

"Get God's sunshine into your heart."

Letting in the Sunshine.

"On a dark and cloudy day like this the bright warm sunshine seems so far removed from us," the young man says to his invisible audience. "Things are dark and our houses are a bit gloomy. But when we stop to think of it, there is only a thin cloud that separates us from the sun. And sometimes very suddenly the sun, in all of its bright glory, breaks through the clouds and floods our lives and our homes with warm light. Jesus, the Light of the World, is very near. Sometimes trouble or sin clouds stand between you and Him, but as we sing for you today, may these clouds be broken and may God's sunshine come in."

It is the Rev. C. E. Hawthorne, pastor of the Wallace Memorial United Presbyterian Church, New Hampshire avenue and Randolph street northwest, who is speaking. He is the leader of the "Sunshine Carolers," and the singers are all members of his choir and congregation. His choir is composed of professional musicians, but most of the "Sunshine Carolers" are members of his congregation. Among these are soloists, violinists, pianists and organists, taking part in the weekly programs.

After every song or hymn the pastor makes a very brief statement like the one just quoted literally from him. He announces the name of the hymn and the names of the singers and musicians, and makes every hymn point a religious truth. Many of these hymns are very familiar to Christian and even to non-Christian people, and many, many requests come for such old favorites as "Whispering Hope," "Leaning On the Everlasting Arms of Jesus," "My Task," "The Old Rugged Cross" and numerous others.

"A request has come for 'Whispering Hope,'" the pastor says. "Mrs. McCann and Mr. Stant will sing it for you." And when they have finished singing that haunting song, which Alma Gluck and Louise Homer immortalized on a record, there comes this comforting remark:

"Life would not be worth much if we had no hope. A Christian not only possesses something that makes life sweet here, but he faces the future with a living hope, glowing in his heart. A hope that is more than mere hope, but is, instead, faith."

And so the program proceeds from one hymn to another, each number being followed by two or three sentences of religious talk, fireside conversation one might well say, for it is the very sort of preaching that Jesus Himself did best. One can not, in moments of wildest enthusiasm, imagine Jesus bawling in the pulpit and throwing His arms about. A most interesting book yet to be written might be called, "The Conversations of Jesus."

Mr. Hawthorne plans these Thursday programs and gives them as much attention as he does a sermon or Sunday service. They are not stereotyped, and no two are ever the same. The old gospel hymns, however, are the main features. Sometimes there is a poem, sometimes a short recitation, sometimes a story to illustrate the thought of the hymn. Every one of these conveys a religious truth. Male quartets, mixed quartets, choruses, organ, piano and violin are used to vary the entertainment.

Began by Accident.

For fifteen months these "Sunshine Carolers" have been putting on this program and it all began quite by accident, as so many things of this sort do. The Rev. Howard W. Ferrin, of Providence, R. I., was holding a revival at Mr. Hawthorne's church and was struck by the singing he heard there. At his suggestion and under his direction the plan was proposed to fill in a vacant 20-minute period over WRC, and the matter was carried to Homer L. Kitt, who saw that it was a good thing, and completed the arrangement for a trial, giving the use of his studio for it. The first program took so well that it has been continued as a regular feature being broadcast from the Kitt studio every Thursday.

One wonders how popular such a program could be, and I put this question to Mr. Hawthorne.

"I have been much impressed," said he in reply, "with the love that the general public shows for the old gospel hymns. Letters have come to us from many, many places, expressing appreciation and requesting us to sing special hymns or repeat those we have sung.

"The Old Rugged Cross" is the universal favorite. In fact, hymns that center about the cross are leaders in popularity. Songs that have a forward look to the life beyond the grave follow closely the leaders.

"If the requests are any criterion, we must believe that people of Washington and throughout the country, in the midst of their labors, their burdens and their temptations, feel the need of a living, every day faith and walk with God."

About a month ago Mr. Hawthorne announced, for the first time, that on the following Sunday evening his people would give at his church one of these programs, more elaborate, to be sure, than the WRC program. He invited his radio audience to come and meet the singers and players and see them actually at work.

"Well, I thought we had a great time that night," he told me. "The church was packed with people, most of them strangers, and they came from all over Washington and from Maryland and Virginia. And again the old gospel, in song and story, warmed the hearts of all of us."

"Gospel" of Song.

This young minister is a quiet, modest man, not given to sensationalism, and this account of his radio ministry came to The Post quite by accident as his own opportunity came to him. His people have stood by him from the first, regularly coming to rehearsals and giving their time to this service. They feel that theirs is a gospel of song that cheers many a suffering heart, and the responses from the sufferers show that to be true.

These fellow laborers with Mr. Hawthorne are Mrs. Archer L. Haycock, Mrs. George B. McCann, Miss Effie Collamore, Mrs. Millard Yeatman, Mrs. Frank Davis, Miss Helen Hoover, Miss Mary Jane Klare, Mrs. George De Mott, Mrs. Pamela C. Webster, Mrs. Arthur Binger, Miss Rita Lentz, Mrs. Arthur Dennison, Mrs. J. B. Leemon, Miss Laura Burnside, Miss Dorothy Hobbs, Miss Ruth Hobbs, Norman Stant, Joe Comer, Henry Green, John M. Wilson, James Miller, William Mattingly, Dr. Lawrence Klare, Earl A. Brown, Bryan Z. Kile, George De Mott, Arsenio Ralon and Fletcher Allen.

"We make no claims that our program is wonderful. In fact, we know it is not, so far as our planning is concerned. But I am convinced that it has brought a blessing to many, so we keep on going and looking up," the leader of the "Sunshine Carolers" said, almost by way of apology.

ST. PAUL'S TO BUILD NATIONAL CHURCH

Lutherans Will Erect Replica of Fourteenth Century Gothic Structure.

GROUND-BREAKING SET

Washington is to have another national church, this one being the property of St. Paul's Lutheran congregation. A replica of a famous fourteenth century Gothic church will be built in a monumental group at the corner of Connecticut avenue and Ellicott street, and ground for the new structure will be broken Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

When completed, the new church will cost $750,000. The first unit to be erected will be the basement and chapel. For the cost of this the congregation is now conducting a "loyalty campaign" to raise $100,000. This unit will be ready for occupancy by Christmas, and work will then proceed on the great church. The Lutherans expect St. Paul's to "be one of the most imposing and beautiful churches in the city."

On the little park facing Ellicott street the followers of the great reformer will erect a statue of Gen. John Peter Gabriel Muhlenberg, "the fighting parson of the Revolution." Gen. Muhlenberg was a Lutheran minister. His statue is now in Statuary Hall, the gift of his native State of Pennsylvania.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church was recently formed by a merger of old St. Paul's, at Eleventh and H streets, and Epiphany, at Sixteenth and U streets. It called as pastor the Rev. Dr. Henry W. Snyder from Johnstown, Pa., and since his coming has been worshiping in the Metropolitan Theater.

The ground breaking will be an imposing service. Albert F. Fox, president emeritus of the church council, will turn the first spade of earth, and Dr. Snyder the second, and after him the different departments of the church.

Church Notes

Mrs. W. L. Darby is in Chicago attending the National Council of Federated Church Women.

The Rev. Harry L. Collier is discussing the mystery of life, past, present and future, in a series of sermons at the Full Gospel Tabernacle.

A Southern Methodist missionary from Poland, the Rev. Gaither P. Warfield, will be guest speaker tomorrow at the Epworth League Union at Mount Vernon Place Methodist Church.

The new pulpit of Petworth Baptist Church will be dedicated tomorrow morning. Of course, the ladies gave it.

United State Deputy Marshal James S. McCartney will be the guest speaker to the Harrison Bible Class of Congress Street Methodist Protestant Church tomorrow morning.

The Rev. Alexander Gayler, colored, will solve the mystery of Jonah and the whale at Mount Zion Baptist Church tomorrow night.

Intermediate C. E. Convenes This Week

Sherwood Presbyterian Church will be the host of the Intermediate Christian Endeavor Union at its annual meeting Thursday and Friday. Miss Lois Jarrett, the president, will preside and a most interesting program carried out.

The Senior Union will hold its annual meeting at Eckington Presbyterian Church Friday evening when it will present a play, "Parlor Matches," after which it will hold its annual election.

Four Ministers Chosen To Service Group Posts

Four ministers were elected to the board of the Citizens Service Association Thursday at a meeting in the University Club. They Are Bishop William F. McDowell, the Rev. Carl C. Rasmussen, pastor of the Luther memorial Church; the Rev. Joseph R. Sizoo, of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Harry E. Woolever, editor of the "National Methodist Press."

A resolution indorsing the proposed increase in pay for District police and firemen was also adopted.

United Luther League Meets Here Tomorrow

Lutherans from Baltimore, Washington and this general vicinity will pour delegates into this city tomorrow for the annual convention of the United Lutheran League, which holds its sessions at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Kentucky avenue and Fifteenth street southeast.

Two ministers of prominence, the Rev. S. C. Michelfelder, of Pittsburgh, and the Rev. Dr. L. W. Zimmerman, will speak in the afternoon and at night.

Dr. Hummel Will Lecture.

Dr. Arthur W. Hummel, chief of the Chinese division of the Library of Congress, will lecture on "The Chinese Renaissance" at the National Woman's Party meeting at 4:30 o'oclock tomorrow afternoon. The speaker is one of the foremost authorities on Chinese literature and civilization.

Unitarian Church to Close.

After tomorrow's services All Souls' Unitarian Church will close for the summer. On Sunday, June 22, the congregation will unite with the Universalist National Memorial Church and the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church in union services.

The Seat of the Scorner

By the Rev. FREDERIC W. PERKINS, D. D., Pastor of the Universalist National Memorial Church.

"Nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful."—Psalm 1:1.

That is an arresting phrase. It suggests that the disease of scornfulness may be called the "sitting sickness." Its outstanding symptom is a certain paralysis of initiative and will. The scorner's tongue is generally active, his disapproval open, but he himself simply sits. He may point the way to better things, but only as the roadside sign that never travels the way it points. He sits and condemns as the tides of humanity sweep by.

A very insidious disease is this malady. Many are infected by it who imagine themselves to be in excellent health. They "walk not in the counsel of the ungodly." They have no part in the assaults on the ideals of righteousness and the enterprises of religion. Indeed, they are often conspicuous for their championship of such. They "stand not in the way of sinners." They are very careful to avoid contaminating contacts, as the priest and the Levite were in Jesus' immortal parable. They simply sit and scorn.

The scorner is sometimes a man who has lost his nerve. The world frightens or angers him or fills him with unspeakable disgust. He is a modern Hamlet and cries out:

"The times are out of joint. O cursed spite!
That ever I was born to set them right."

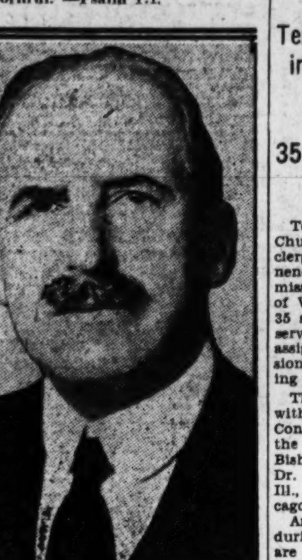

Sensitive idealists are susceptible to this disease when a noble dream fails of immediate fulfillment. Such was the tragic experience of multitudes of ardent souls in the years following the great war. That was felt to be more than a struggle between nations. It was the day of Armageddon, the valley of decision between hostile political ideals. A new world was to arise out of the ashes of desolation. The dream broke. What appeared to be the rising sun sank into clouds and darkness, and in bitter disillusionment those who cherished the hope turned scorners not only of the ideal but of themselves for their own delusions. They would remove themselves from all counsel with ungodly diplomats; they stand not in the way of international sinners. They sit and scorn a world whose only god is brute force.

I am sorry for them, for their dream was not baseless. God sent it and His dreams have a way of coming true. We are beginning to see that the conviction of ten years ago was true. An old world did perish in the flames of the world holocaust. The pathetic thing is that many, even in high places of official leadership, do not yet see it, and are trying again to build international relationships on the old foundations of force and suspicion and mutual antagonism. The attempt can not succeed.

Time has outlawed it. Its day of doom has come. War no longer has survival value. A new world is here, only it is not the finished New Jerusalem descending from heaven that the rapt vision beheld. Whatever descends from heaven will be but the shining coronation of the walls and turrets slowly built up from earth. Thank God for the men who dreamed on when the world mocked, who, unable to move, could yet stand, confident, unreviling, unafraid, not wasting their energies in futile scorning but saving them for the day when the door of opportunity would again open.

The point is clear. The constructive work of the world is not done by the scorners, no matter how much there may be evoking scorn. It is done by those who get out of the scorner's seat and into the helper's harness. Each of us has one primary business—to help build a better world, beginning with ourselves. We take the world as we find it that we may leave the world nearer what we desire it. Its goodness inspires us to make it better. Its badness challenges us to make it good. Criticism is not cure but only the guide to cure. That is what Christ meant when he said that he came not to judge the world but to save it. Our business is to do the same.

And the remedy for this deadly disease of scornfulness? Or better still, the preventive? Probably the most potent is the cultivation of a healthy humility as one realizes how most of us have deserved a scorn we have never had to suffer. Fortunate is it for us all that God does not sit in the seat of the scornful!

DR. FREDERIC W. PERKINS.

Rev. Edward O. Clark Builds Membership From 39 to 234 in Span.

DEVELOPS NEW CHURCH

Six years ago a little Baptist congregation, worshiping in the Chevy Chase Theater, called as pastor a young minister from New Jersey, the Rev. Edward O. Clark, then serving his first charge. He had seen service overseas as chaplain in the World War.

At his first service with the Chevy Chase Baptist Church, June 15, 1924, Mr. Clark found a small congregation of 39 members, which had been organized in 1920. Under his six years of aggressive ministry this membership has increased to 234, with every arm of the church just as numerically strong.

From a theater the church has moved into a beautiful structure on Chevy Chase Circle now valued at $60,000 and this is practically paid for.

In all of the community religious work, Mr. Clark and his people cooperate, furnishing teachers for the Vacation Bible School, joining in the union services and in other ways.

One of the prides of the church is its Sunday school, which under the leadership of William Hughes and then George B. Frazer, has grown to such numbers that a special building had to be provided to care for its various activities.

Mr. Clark will celebrate his sixth anniversary Sunday, when he will break the bread of life to them.

TO CELEBRATE

THE REV. EDWARD O. CLARK.

Christian Churches Set Plans for Convention

A city-wide meeting of all the Christian Churches in Washington will be held in a dinner conference Friday evening at the Ninth Street Christian Church to arrange for the International and World Convention of the church, which meets in Washington next October.

VACATIONS

The Rev. Dr. Frederick Brown Harris, pastor of Foundry Methodist Church, and his family sail Wednesday for England, where they will spend a two months' holiday visiting in the British Isles. Dr. Harris will preach in John Wesley's famous old church, City Road Chapel, and will also fill Wesleyan pulpits in other cities, two weeks in Bristol, from which place Bishop Asbury set sail for America.

The Rev. Ulysses G. B. Pierce, D. D., minister of All Souls' Unitarian Church, and Mrs. Pierce sail Friday, June 20, for a summer in Europe. Dr. Pierce will represent the American Unitarian Association at a meeting of the International Congress of Religious Liberals in Holland. He will also visit the League of Nations at Geneva.

The Rev. Dr. Z. B. Phillips, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, sails next week for Europe. He will attend the Passion Play at Oberammergau, and will return to his parish late in August.

The Rev. Dr. Albert Joseph McCartney, minister of the Church of the Covenant, leaves at the end of the month for California, where he will spend the summer.

Will Lecture in North Carolina.

A busy man is the Rev. Dr. James H. Taylor, pastor of Central Presbyterian Church, who is now engaged in preaching a series of special sermons to his people on "The Essentials of Christianity." On July 1 he goes to Montreat, N. C., for a series of lectures to an educational conference of the Southern Presbyterian Church.

Sentence Sermons

By The Rev. HARVEY BAKER SMITH, D. D., Pastor of Columbia Heights Christian Church.

"God loved—He gave."

Debts are paid out of necessity, but love brings gifts.

A coin flung to the beggar may ease the conscience, but a Dorcas who takes a garment to the needy in the spirit of the Master knows the way to Emmaus also.

Love is the word nearest to God. It is not a definition, but the chief attribute of God.

Love seeks its object always.

Love expresses itself in gifts, for a gift is the language of love.

The gift measures the love in the values of the heart.

The gift must be worthy of the lover as well as the beloved.

"God loved the world so much that He gave His only begotten son that whosoever believeth on Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

Violence brings the spoils of conquest. Vanity lives its small hour in self-approval. The wicked may prosper for the day, but the true Kingdom of Heaven belongs to the Princes and Princesses of the Loving Heart, be they in cabin or castle. They have the gift of life and they bring the gifts of love.

"He gave His Only Begotten Son."

BALTIMORE SYNOD TO MEET MONDAY

Princeton Theological Seminary President to Talk to Group.

SIZOO TO MAKE REPORT

The Synod of Baltimore, embracing the Presbyteries of Baltimore, New Castle and Washington, will hold its seventy-fifth annual session at Hood College, Frederick, Md., June 16 to 20. At the same time and in the same place the Woman's Synodical Missionary Society will hold its annual session.

The anniversary address will be delivered by the Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson, president of Princeton Theological Seminary.

An unusually interesting program has been prepared. Among the prominent men and women on it are these: Dr. Cleveland B. McAfee, retiring moderator of the general assembly; Dr. Silas Evans, president of Ripon College, Ripon, Wis.; Dr. Robert N. McLean, board of national missions; Mrs. E. H. Silverthron, board of Christian education, and Miss Gertrude Vint, board of national missions.

Dr. Joseph R. Sizoo, pastor of New York Avenue Church, will make the report for the committee on Christian education.

On Wednesday evening Dr. A. Brown Caldwell, of Baltimore, the retiring moderator, will preach the sermon and after that communion will be served.

The Rev. George M. Cummings, of Washington, is State clerk of the synod, and Mrs. Walter Knipp is president of the Woman's Synodical Missionary Society.

Few Pastors to Speak On 'Father' Tomorrow

Tomorrow is "Father's Day" on the church calendar, but that individual seems to have been forgotten by most of the ministers of Washington, on the theory, perhaps, that every Sunday and every day is dedicated to him. In one or two of the pulpits this institution in so many families will be preached to in special sermons.

Tomorrow also is "Children's Day," and in many churches the little folks will take possession and give their programs. They will push the minister out of his pulpit and he will take his seat with his congregation and with them have a spectator's part in the exercises.

PREACHING MISSION PLANNED IN CAPITAL

Ten Episcopal Bishops to Aid in Inspirational Campaign Next November.

35 CHURCHES AFFECTED

By ELISABETH E. POE.

Ten bishops of the Episcopal Church in this country and twelve clergymen of Nation-wide prominence will participate in a preaching mission to be held in the Diocese of Washington next November, when 35 strategically located churches will serve as mission centers, each to be assigned one or more special missioners for a week's series of preaching services.

The preaching mission will begin with a great public mass meeting in Constitution Hall, November 16, with the Right Rev. James E. Freeman Bishop of Washington, and the Rev. Dr. George Craig Stewart, Evanston, Ill., Bishop Coadjutor-elect of Chicago, as the principal speakers.

Inspiration to Church.

These bishops, together with the clergymen in the preaching mission, will be guests of the College of Preachers of Washington Cathedral during their stay in the diocese. The plan is to make the preaching mission at the Nation's Capital an inspiration to the church at large.

The other members of the preaching mission are: The Rev. Dr. Frederick G. Budlong, Greenwich, Conn.; Father Spence Burton, Cambridge, Mass.; the Rev. Dr. Robert Chalmers, Baltimore; the Rev. Dr. Charles Clingman, Birmingham, Ala.; the Very Rev. Raimundo DeOvies, dean of St. Philip's Cathedral, Atlanta; the Rev. Ernest C. Earp, Bryn Mawr, Pa.; the Rev. John Gass, Charleston, W. Va.; the Rev. Dr. F. D. Goodwin, Warsaw, Va.; Father S. C. Hughson, O. H. C., West Park, N. Y.; the Very Rev. John Moore McGann, Boston, Mass.; Capt. B. Frank Mountford, the Church Army, New York City, and the Rev. Dr. George Craig Stewart, Evanston, Ill., Bishop Coadjutor-elect of Chicago.

Nation-wide preaching missions, similar to the one to be held in the diocese of Washington, were authorized by the forty-ninth triennium of the Episcopal Church held in Washington in October, 1928. A group of bishops and clergymen known as "The Seventy" have been banded together to lead this evangelistic movement in the Episcopal Church, with the Right Rev. Irving P. Johnson, Bishop of Colorado, as chairman.

Inertia Foe of Religion.

Answering the question, "What Is a Preaching Mission?" Bishop Johnson said recently: The greatest foe to religion in the United States is the inertia of the mass. Men, like gardens, go back to weeds unless some one cultivates the soil.

"The first purpose of a preaching mission is to give those who already believe a firmer grasp upon, a broader vision of privilege and a higher sense of responsibility.

"Its second purpose is to arouse into life and service that large fringe of church people who have a benevolent attitude toward Christ, but who do not exert themselves in His service.

"The third purpose of the preaching mission is to interest those without. Of course, the man who has closed his mind to any appeal; who says, 'What's the use?' who contents himself with the vicious circle of excuses, based upon a false premise and ending in a blind alley, is impervious to any appeal. But there is a large number of people who are bewildered by the divisions of Christendom, who really would like to find the way of life; who are ignorant of the appeal which the church has to give; who might be interested in this intensive effort, if those who have enlisted in the service of the Master would give the 'word fitly spoken' and invite them to attend.

Influence of Washington.

"Washington is the Capital of the Nation and as such has a tremendous influence upon our national life. As Bishop Brent has well said, 'The one thing needed in America is not more religion, but better religion.' There are three things that all can do to make this diocesan-wide mission effective: Pray for it, attend the services and broadcast about it."

The commission in charge of the preaching mission in the Diocese of Washington is headed by the Rev. Dr. Anson Phelps Stokes, canon of Washington Cathedral, as chairman, and includes the following members:

The Rev. H. A. Woolfall, secretary; the Rev. D. W. Curran, executive secretary of the diocese; the Rev. Luther B. Franck, the Rev. Albert H. Lucas, headmaster of St. Alban's School; the Rev. Franklin L. Metcalf, Mechanicsville, Md.; the Rev. Millard F. Minnick, Rockville, Md.; the Rev. G. Freeland Peter, canon of Washington Cathedral; the Rev. J. J. Queally, the Rev. William W. Shearer, the Rev. F. Bland Tucker, the Rev. Thomas D. Windiate, Kensington, Md.; Mrs. Spencer Wood, president of the Woman's Auxiliary; Dr. W. Sinclair Bowen, former president of the Laymen's Service Association; H. Lawrence Choate, president of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew; Busey Howard, treasurer, president of the Laymen's Service Association; Coleman Jennings, Hugh T. Nelson, vice president of the executive council of the diocese.

Churches to Be Centers.

The churches which have been selected as mission centers include:

Epiphany, St. Thomas, St. Alban's, All Souls', St. Luke's, St. Monica's, Calvary Chapel, St. Mark's, Rock Creek, St. Stephen's, St. John's, Georgetown; Emmanuel, Anacostia; Epiphany Chapel, St. James' Parish, Brookland Parish, Trinity Diocesan Church, St. Andrew's, Ascension, All Saints', Chevy Chase; Christ Church, Kensington; St. Matthew's, Hyattsville; St. Andrew's, College Park; Christ Church, Rockville; St. John's, Olney; St. Peter's, Poolesville; Trinity Church, Takoma Park; St. Philip's, Laurel; Christ Church, La Plata; Durham Parish, All Faith Parish, Charlotte Hall; All Saint's, Oakley, Trinity Church, St. Mary's City; Trinity Church, Upper Marlboro; Christ Church, Clinton; St. James', Indianhead; St. Paul's, Aquasco, and Holy Trinity, Collington.

Dying Words of the Rev. Doctor Radcliffe

Just a little while before he died the late Rev. Dr. Wallace Radcliffe lifted both hands above his head, as he had so often done in his pulpit, and began to pronounce the benediction.

"Grace . . . . mercy——"

He sank into a coma with the words unfinished.

In half an hour he woke and once more he lifted those dear hands and said:

"Grace . . . . mercy——"

Mrs. Radcliffe was at his side and seeing that his mind and his tongue were not registering, she completed the benediction for him:

"And peace from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord, be and abide with you always."

A smile came over the good man's face and he closed his eyes and soon fell on the eternal sleep.

Lutheran Church To Be Organized

Clarendon Theater Will Be Scene of Formation of New Group.

An English poet, Pollock, in his poem, "The Course of Time," has this line: "Playhouses might have been turned to good account, but never were."

One of the finest Baptist churches in this city was organized in a playhouse, and one of the largest Lutheran congregations here worships every Sunday in a movie theater. Now the Lutherans are going to organize the first Lutheran congregation in Arlington County tomorrow evening at the Clarendon Theater.

The Rev. Gerhard E. Lenski, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, assisted by the Revs. Edwin Meuser and R. G. Steinmeyer, will hold the service, Mr. Lenski preaching. After which the business meeting will be held. Clarendon folks interested in this new church are: Mr. H. B. Mitchell, Mr. H. Bruce Green, Mr. O. Robert Howell and Mrs. Claude M. Withauer.

Father Rankin Sings First Mass Tomorrow

Tomorrow at 11 a. m. the Rev. George M. Rankin will sing his first solemn mass in St. Aloysius Church, North Capitol and I streets. Father Rankin is a graduate of the Holy Name Parochial School, New York, after which he was employed in the postoffice for several years. In 1920 feeling the call to the priesthood he answered by entering St. John's Preparatory College at Graymoor, N. Y., to pursue his studies and in 1924 he transferred to Mount St. Mary's College at Emmitsburg, Md., where his classical course of study was completed. In 1926 he began his theological studies at the "Mount," and upon completion thereof was duly ordained to the holy priesthood last Sunday by the Right Rev. John M. McNamara.

Assisting Father Rankin at his first mass will be the Rev. Janarius, S. A., archpriest; the Rev. Julie Schmidhauser, of Alexandria, Va., deacon; the Rev. James Kerr, of Pittsburgh, subdeacon; Roger McCann, of Boston, Mass., master of ceremonies; Hugh Phillips, thurifer. The ordination sermon will be preached by the Rev. Michael F. Fitzpatrick, president of Gonzaga College. When not attending school Father Rankin made his home with his sister, Mrs. T. J. McNickle, 1512 North Capitol street.

Former Gov. Bartlett Buys F Street Building

Acquisition by former Gov. John H. Bartlett of New Hampshire, former Assistant Postmaster General and now chairman of the International Joint Commission, of the three-story stone and brick business building at 1307 F street northwest, from Jacob Liebster, furrier, was revealed yesterday by public records.

The building was erected several years ago by Mr. Liebster for his fur business and is now occupied by this business and the Travelers Shoe Co., which has stores on the ground floor. The consideration was said to be around $300,000 and negotiations were reported as being handled through the offices of the Washington Loan & Trust Co., and Shannon & Luchs, Inc. Mr. Bartlett, who is also owner of the International Building, will hold the newly purchased structure as an investment.

Social Work Groups Honor Wilson.

George G. Wilson, director of public welfare of the District, was elected a member of the executive committee of the American Association of Public Officials yesterday at a meeting of the National Conference of Social Work in Boston.

DIAL FLASHES

By ROBERT D. HEINL

BOTH the President and our only former President will be heard today. Mr. Hoover will speak from the Pan American Union dinner along with the President-elect of Brazil (WRC, 10 p. m.).

Mr. Coolidge will address the Amherst College Alumni Association luncheon. It is to be broadcast by WJZ and network, with WBAL probably our best station to pick it up (12:30 p. m.).

The new band which Arthur Pryor has organized for Saturday night G. E. concerts (WRC, 8:30 p. m.) has some of Sousa's old-time swing. How about one of Arthur's trombone solos occasionally?

WELCOME news for lovers of good music is that Ludwig Laurier and his original Slumber Music Orchestra returns to the air Monday night and that Kenneth Berkeley, manager, has secured it for WRC two nights a week, Tuesdays and Fridays, from 10 to 11 o'clock.

It may be heard from WJZ and network every night but Sunday. To make the program complete, Milton J. Cross, who is as much a part of the "Slumber Hour" as Bill Hay is of "Amos 'n' Andy," will again do the honors.

The surprising thing is that the N. B. C. would try to palm off an imitation—and a poor one at that,—on its listeners, as it did with the Slumber Music, instead of making a frank announcement that Laurier was out.

Following in the footsteps of his grandfather, Henry Cabot Lodge 2d, will deliver a "Flag Day" address today (WRC, 3:30 p. m.).

The first speaker over the radio from Glasgow (whose name was not announced but who was supposed to have been the Prince of Wales) made a humorous reference to the Scotch. He had been talking of the beauty of Scotland, and remarked:

"Scenery is an excellent thing for a Scotchman to sell, because he can sell it and still have it."

In accordance with the good old theatrical practice of stars giving the boss a little free advertising during a performance, as Will Rogers used to do with Flo Ziegfeld, and Ed Wynne with the Shuberts, Graham MacNamee mentioned the name (twice) of Merlin Aylesworth, president of the National Broadcasting Co., as among those present at the Schmeling-Sharkey fight.

"Fairfax radio men say S O S went at once."—Washington Post headline. Maybe it wasn't heard because broadcasting stations were afraid to close down for fear of interrupting another political speech.

In view of Secretary Stimson's present relations with the Senate, a laugh must have been caused at the Capitol among those who participated in the London treaty hearings Thursday afternoon, if they heard the Shriner at the Toronto convention mix things up slightly by saying:

"We will now be addressed by Secretary of State Stimson, speaking from the Senate chamber."

The massed bands of the Shriners which played the "Star-Spangled Banner," 2,200 musicians, was probably the largest musical aggregation ever heard on the air.

A radio letter service will be established Monday wherein it will be possible to flash 25 words by wireless from Washington to Paris for $1.75.

WITH former Senator Reed, of Missouri, reported as retained counsel for B. J. Grigsby, chief protagonist for the independent radio manufacturers, and Owen D. Young heading the Radio Corporation, the question is asked whether, in addition to their interests clashing in the courts in the forthcoming suit, they may not meet also in the Democratic presidential primaries.

Personal appearances of radio stars are interesting, but oftentimes disillusioning.

There was a case in Washington recently of a lady saying she wished she had never seen a certain announcer, whom she had very much admired over the air.

CLOSE on the heels of the charge that broadcasting kills off rather than "makes" song hits, comes the allegation from Los Angeles that ten stations out there broadcasting phonograph records, instead of increasing the sale of records, have caused a 70 per cent decrease in business.

It is claimed that when a record is heard so often it leaves the listener without desire to buy it.

Baby Mine

Art Interprets the Mode

Form-fitting bloomers and shorts that show no wrinkles over the hips are necessary to today's styles. (Dah-ray's Designs).

Paris, June 13

DON'T we women just have the darnedest time, don't we just? We're expected to be more elegant than our grandmammas, who didn't have anything to do with themselves but devote their time exclusively to elegance; then we're expected to be good company and "the life of the party" every minute; and somewhere in our spare time work up a career and make a go of it.

And on top of that all the fashion makers in the world seem to lay awake nights thinking up ways to give us hats that don't follow the lines of our coats and dresses, shoes that don't harmonize with the colors of our garments, gloves that you'd think were going to be worn as the sole article of wearing apparel—oh, well.

My latest peeve is that you can't buy a "pant" let alone a pair of them in Paris, that is designed to be worn with the dresses of the present mode showing a tight hipline. And yet there is no more deadly to elegance than showing knobs and bulges anywhere under your dresses.

Knowing you are having quite the same troubles, I dug deep down into the musty caves of yesterday, meaning the Dah-ray filing department if any, and dragged out the bloomer design and the design for little lingerie shorts, and sketched them again for you today so that you could copy them and be able to wear them under your tight-hipping dresses. The little trick is that the seats of both of them are cut on the bias, so that when you sit down you have freedom for sitting and when you stand the bias part of the material hugs the figure without gathers and bunches.

And thinking you would not know how easy they are to make, I made a leaflet with the directions for making them. The bloomers take exactly one yard of material you know, and the shorts a half yard. And you can make them by just following these directions in a half an hour apiece whether you know how to sew or not.

Under panties that don't show gathers under your smooth hipline dresses! Better sit down and address that stamped, self-addressed envelop for this leaflet right away this minute before you forget it.

For Him.

According to Monsieur David of the avenue de l'Opera, the manufacturers of men's clothes have had to get together in advance of publication as it were, and calling themselves "La Commission de la Haute Mode Masculine," have decided on a certain form for men's wear for this summer. I think it's going to be too long to tell you all about in one day, so we'll have to make another series.

First of all it will interest you to know that the tuxedo is only permissible in summer resorts or on the ocean. Full dress is the only possible apparel for a gentleman escorting a woman anywhere in town dressed in her elegant long robes and accessories. For both full dress and the smoking, dark blue is smarter than black, with the revers in satin.

More of this next week.

* * * *

'N if your envelope shows that you mailed the stamped, self-addressed envelope for the makeovers today, you can have the leaflet of the oh so clever ways to make over your outdated clothes into up-to-date ones.

* * * *

Isn't it something to be grateful for that the one-time flapper slouch has disappeared? That, with the entrance of elegance into fashion, has come a regal bearing and a womanly one? The awful slouch seems so dreadful, in retrospect!

* * * *

And tomorrow we offer you again the weekly Dare fashion letter, full of interesting ideas. You'll find it in the big Sunday Post.

Au revoir!

Indoor and Outdoor Gardens

By JANE LESLIE KIFT

ANSWERS TO INQUIRIES.

WHAT perennials may I plant on the north side of my house? Also shrubbery? What shrub will thrive in a northwestern exposure? What can I do for an indoor ivy except water it and keep it near the light? MRS. O. J. K.

Columbine, cardinal flower, anemone (Japanese) and foxglove will all grow in a northern exposure. Regals privet, California privet, rhododendrons and barberry will also do well in the same exposure. Any of these shrubs will do well in a location facing the north and west. Spray your ivy once a week with cold, soapy water and see that it has plenty of fresh air.

Please tell me what to do to make a lemon and an orange tree bear fruit. I have healthy plants which have never blossomed. MRS. J. W. B.

Perhaps they require grafting. Both varieties require rich, moist soil and a great deal of sun and fresh air at all times. Better try giving them some liquid manure or some bonemeal.

Please tell of some perennials that will grow on the east side of a house. The south side is shaded by a tree, so I can not expect much in the way of bloom from that location. I want a perpetual showing of blooms throughout the season. I also want some suggestions for flowers for window boxes. My house is painted white. MRS. SAMUEL D.

Candytuft, daphne, leonard's bane, foxgloves columbine, false dragon's head and some varieties of gentian will all do well on the east side of a house. Pink geraniums and white sweet alyssum make an attractive combination for filling a window box. Pink geraniums, blue ageratum and English ivy are also pleasing.

Please tell me how to rid a fern of insects. I have tried spraying with cold, soapy water with little effect. Also please tell me when to transplant this plant. MRS. M. H.

Your fern is probably infested by scale. The best way to get rid of these pests is literally to scrub them away with the aid of a small brush. When the fern is free of insects you can prevent a return of the pests with weekly spraying of nicotine solution or cold, soapy water. Transplant the fern only when you are sure that it is potbound.

I am inclosing the flower and leaf of a plant of which I am desirous of knowing the name. Is this a bulbous plant or does it have a fibrous root? Also, please tell me how to care for an Easter lily after it has finished flowering. MISS LILLIE F.

Your plant is a calceolaria, an annual with a fibrous root. When its bloom is spent it is of no further use. When your Easter lily has finished blooming gradually cease to water it but do not cease to give it some water until after all the leaves have turned yellow. This is an indication that the bulb has sufficiently ripened. Then set the pot aside for six weeks, after which bring the pot to the light remove dead tops, shake the dry soil from the bulb and plant it in a sunny spot in the garden. Here it should bloom in the latter part of the summer. After the first light frost cover the bulb with dead leaves. It is quite hardy and will survive without any further protection.

Uncle Sam's Home Hints

SOCIAL CORNER IN KITCHEN.

(Bureau of Home Economics.)

Especially in a large kitchen space can usually be found for a comfortable chair and small table or shelf for mending basket or books. Here the home maker can drop down for an occasional rest while keeping an eye on food that is cooking, or pick up some mending or sewing, or make entries in the household accounts.

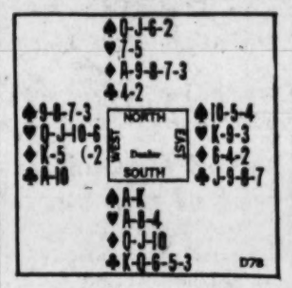

It may also be a convenient place for the children to study or play occasionally, and will be appreciated by the neighbor who runs in for a few minutes in the morning.

A separate social corner often has the added advantage that to make room for it the other centers must be grouped closer together thus making a more efficient arrangement for working.

WORK ON BRIDGE

(This article is intended for the Auction and Contract Bridge beginner.)

One of the most difficult things for a beginner to bring himself to do is to discard winning cards from one hand so as not to block a long suit in the other. To illustrate:

In either Auction or Contract South would be a No Trump Declarer. His contract would be one in Auction, three in Contract; in either game he would be trying for nine tricks.

The Queen of Hearts would be led and the Declarer would hold up his Ace until the third round so as to exhaust the East hand of Hearts in the event that the lead had been from a five-card suit. This would be important because if East holds the King of Diamonds, he will get in when Declarer finesses that suit, and will return West's Heart if he has one.

Winning the third Heart trick and discarding on it a small Club from dummy, Declarer would lead his Ace and King of Spades to tricks 4 and 5 so as to unblock dummy's four-card Spade suit headed by Queen-Jack. After that, he would lead his Queen of Diamonds and West would cover with the King so as to give North no chance to finesse. As it would be fatal to permit West to win this trick and cash his remaining Hearts, the Ace would be played from dummy and Declarer then could count a certainty of winning four Spades, one Heart and three Diamonds. That, however, would be one trick short of game. After leading the two Spades, dummy would have no re-entry to make its long Diamonds if South discarded two small losing Clubs on those two Spades; but if South throws away the winning Jack and Ten of Diamonds, dummy's remaining four Diamonds all become winners and Declarer makes one trick more than game.

A little examination will show that only by the unblocking of the Diamond suit can game be made by the Declarer; and of course it is equally essential for closed hand to unblock dummy's Spades before leading the Diamond.

The Goofus Rhinoceros

Don't fear the Goofus Rhinoceros—
In spite of looks he's a pleasant cuss.
His hide's so thick he doesn't mind
Remarks although they are unkind;
And that radiator ornament he wears
He only uses to split hairs
When his position he defends
While arguing questions with his friends!

Gil Gorges, assistant director, and Dr. Vinicio da Veiga, consul of Brazil at Baltimore.

Mrs. James M. Johnston has temporarily relinquished her apartment at the Hay-Adams House, to spend the summer in Black Point, Conn., where she has taken a home for the summer.

The Tau Beta Phi Sorority national convention for 1930, which was called to order last evening in the Mayflower Hotel, will continue today with a sightseeing trip for out-of-town guests, luncheon at the Madrillon Restaurant, and a banquet this evening, with dancing afterward.

Tomorrow morning breakfast will be served at 10 o'clock and a tea at 4 will close the convention.

The committee in charge of arrangements includes Miss Browne, Miss Pauline Shannon, Miss Virginia Tucker, Miss Ellen Souder and Miss Louise Pigott.

Miss Alice Morrow, sister of the United States Ambassador to Mexico, Mr. Dwight W. Morrow, arrived in New York yesterday on the George Washington after passing several months in Europe.

She will go to Englewood to visit Mr. and Mrs. Morrow for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Doeller Buy Warrenton Site.

Mr. and Mrs. William Doeller have joined the colony in Warrenton, Va., where they have purchased a place.

They will maintain their residence in Washington, using the country place for week-end visits.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matthews Dick, who have sold their residence at 2850 Woodland Drive to Senator and Mrs. James Couzens, will start soon for Newport, R. I.

Upon their return in the late fall they will occupy their new house at 2234 Massachusetts avenue, which they have recently purchased.

Representative and Mrs. W. R. Coyle, of Pennsylvania, have closed their apartment at the Hay-Adams House and returned to their home in Bethlehem for the summer. They will retain their local apartment, however, returning to it in the early fall.

Mrs. Henry S. Boutell has gone to Newport where she will be with her daughter, Mrs. Malcolm K. Smith, at her cottage during the summer, returning to Washington in the fall.

Miss Ruth to Be Wed To Mr. R. C. Starr.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam P. Ruth, of Brandywine street, have sent out invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Catherine Rose Ruth, to Mr. Robert Campbell Starr on Thursday, June 26, at 6 o'clock, in Burrall Hall, of Calvary Baptist Church. Dr. William S. Abernethy will perform the ceremony.

Miss Dorothy Mae Ruth will be maid of honor for her sister, and Mrs. Alfred Stidham will be matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Miss Mabelle Boyce and Mrs. Earl K. Mothershead. Dr. Edward Nicklas will be best man for Mr. Starr. The ushers will be Mr. Frank Kreglow, Mr. Alfred Stidham and Mr. Earl K. Mothershead.

Miss Ruth and Mr. Starr are graduates of George Washington University. Miss Ruth is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Mr. Starr is a member of Omicron Delta Kappa and of Pi Delta Epsilon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Parlett, whose marriage took place on Wednesday, are now on their wedding trip to New York and Canada. Mrs. Parlett was before her marriage Miss Mildred Leonard. Mr. Parlett, who is manager of the Hotel Roosevelt, will return with his bride next week. They will make their home at the hotel.

Miss Eva Connor, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Connor, of Wilmington, Del., will be married today at 2 o'clock to Mr. Thomas Dutton, of Washington, the ceremony to be held in St. Gabriel's Church, the Rev. William J. Sweeney officiating.

The bride, who will be given away by her mother, will wear a dress of powder blue lace and will carry tea roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Margaret McFarland, will wear orchid lace with a bouquet of tea roses.

Beschen-Lucas Nuptials To Be Held Today.

The marriage of Miss Catherine Gertrude Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Lucas, of this city, to Mr. Charles Thomas Beschen, of Philadelphia, will take place this morning at the Holy Comforter Church. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast will be served at the Dodge Hotel to 50 relatives and friends. Among the guests will be the attendants of the bride, her maid of honor and two bridesmaids, the best man, the parents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Lucas, and the parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. William Beschen, of Philadelphia.

Mrs. H. Stanley Stine entertained at last evening in honor of Miss Margaret Holland, who is to be married this month to Mr. Frank Belmont Hessler.

Those present were Mrs. G. Allen Smalley, Mrs. Paul Eichhorn, Mrs. Helen P. Carlisle, Miss Kitty May, Miss Margaret Holland, Mrs. Miriam Wurdemann, Mrs. Elmer Holland, jr., Mrs. Mary Boroughs, Miss Miriam Draeger, Mrs. Henry Gorsuch, Mrs. Frank Baptista, Mrs. H. Stanley Stine.

Dr. Hummel to Speak On Chinese Renaissance.

Dr. Arthur W. Hummel will talk on the Chinese renaissance at the National Woman's Party on Sunday at 4:30 o'clock. Dr. Hummel is chief of the Chinese division of the Library of Congress, and is one of our best authorities on Chinese art and literature, having devoted many years to their study in China. He not only understands the literature of China but its language as well. He has studied extensively their old literature and has made many new discoveries regarding it on the old Chinese civilization. He understands the Chinese point of view and philosophy. All interested in the subject are cordially invited.

Maj. and Mrs. Leopold von Bredow have arrived at Washington from their home in Potsdam, Germany, and are at the Powhatan.

M. Gilbert C. d'Anvers, of Paris, is at the Wardman Park Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Are Dinner Hosts.

Representative and Mrs. Guy U. Hardy entertained at dinner and bridge last evening at their home. Their guests were Capt. and Mrs. Byron McCandless, Commander and Mrs. John F. Shafroth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Alden, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brooks Fry, Miss Elsie Bower, Mr. Robert H. Norton and Lyman Hardy.

Ensign Richard C. Drum-Hunt, U. S. N., and Mr. Henry H. Rousseau, jr., son of Admiral and Mrs. H. H. Rousseau, left Thursday by motor for Ithaca, N. Y., to attend a house party. They will return to Washington Sunday.

Mrs. Maude O'Flaherty To Visit in Virginia.

Miss Maude I. O'Flaherty will leave Monday to spend some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cullers O'Flaherty, at Woodstock, Va. While there she will visit her brother, Mr. Wilmer L. O'Flaherty, attorney, at Richmond, Va., going later to Massanetta Springs Hotel to attend a Young People's meeting of which she is secretary.

American Minister Booth Receives Members of Press.

Copenhagen, Denmark, June 13 (A. P.).—King Christian today received Ralph H. Booth, new American Minister to Denmark, who handed the king his credentials and introduced Ernest Ives, the legation secretary. Both men were later received by the queen.

Mr. Booth and Secretary Ives were brought from their hotel by the king's court marshal in a state carriage. Later the new American Minister received the representatives of the Danish and foreign press at an informal gathering at his hotel and expressed pleasure at meeting them. In the course of the interview, Mr. Booth paid a compliment to the public spirit of Detroit, praising it as a model city.

All the newspapers gave Mr. Booth an unusually hearty welcome. Mrs. Booth and Miss Booth arrived in Copenhagen this evening from Switzerland.

G. A. R. Will Hold Flag Day Service

District Commissioner and Representative to Make Addresses.

The Grand Army of the Republic and its auxiliary, the Woman's Relief Corps, will hold a Flag Day service at 8 o'clock tonight on the east steps of the Capitol. A concert by the Marine Band will precede the service by a half hour.

Maj. Gen. Herbert B. Crosby, District Commissioner, and Representative William P. Holaday, of Illinois, will speak. Several solos with band accompaniment will be sung by Mrs. Dorothy Sherman Pierson. The Rev. Homer J. Councilor will pronounce the invocation and the Rev. Francis J. Hurney will offer the benediction.

The McKinley High School Glee Club and representatives of the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts will participate. Mrs. E. Helen Temple is chairman in charge. F. J. Young is department commander of the G. A. R. and Mrs. Della L. O'Brien is department president of the Woman's Relief Corps.

Travelers' Group Elects.

New Orleans, June 13 (A.P.).—W. S. Murchison, of Raleigh, N. C., was elected president of the Travelers Protective Association of America in its annual session here today.

Mexican Court Orders American Extradited

Mexico City, June 13 (A.P.).—The Fourth district court held today that J. P. Harper, American sought in Oklahoma City, and several other communities in the United States on charges of embezzlement and counterfeiting, should be extradited.

The court turned Harper over to the department of foreign relations, where formal charges against him will be studied and submitted to the president for final decision. Harper's attorneys still may seek a writ of habeas corpus, which would delay the case 40 days even if extradition were determined upon.

BEHIND THE SCREENS - - - - With NELSON B. BELL

PERHAPS the most pleasant duty confronting this compounder of a Saturday motion picture column is to report that Sam Jack Kaufman, the new master of ceremonies at the Fox, is one of the most engaging of his craft yet to appear on a Washington stage. He is glib, graceful and a consummate showman who "gets over" like a flash. And, in addition to that, he is a competent comedian, excellent foil for other acts needing a little help, and a pianist who emphatically knows what it is all about and how to get it out of that keyboard.

To be sure, I have only seen him in one performance, and that with a Fanchon and Marco stage unit that is one of the best ever to have played the Fox, but he caught on like wildfire yesterday afternoon and, if I am any judge, will be one of the most popular of the baton wielders the Capital has known.

It looks to me from this distance as if Major Zanft had picked up an ace entertainer to help gloss over a few hot weeks. And don't think that Sam Jack is not plenty hot himself!

For quick reference, the attractions for the new week are as follows: Palace, Nancy Carroll, in "The Devil's Holiday;" RKO-Keith's, Jack Mulhall, Pat O'Malley and Mae Clarke, in "The Fall Guy" and "Up the Congo;" Metropolitan, Walter Pidgeon and Vivienne Segal, in "Bride of the Regiment;" Fox, Victor McLaglen, Fifi D'Orsay and William Harrigan, in "On the Level;" Columbia, Clara Bow and Fredric March, in "True to the Navy;" Earle, Dorothy Mackaill and Basil Rathbone, in "The Flirting Widow;" Little, Jack Richardson and Corliss Palmer, in "Sex Madness," second week.

The U. S. Navy has helped make another film. In Clara Bow's latest vehicle, "True to the Navy," one of the 14-inch gun turrets on the U. S. S. Mississippi was duplicated in the studio, naval experts, assigned by the Government, sitting in to make sure that it would be exact in every detail.

Of course, the Brooklyn bonfire isn't hurting the Navy any, either.

Georgie Tapps, now playing at the Palace in "Step Lively," the stage show with Collins and Peterson, boasts a name that completely describes his work, for Georgie taps—if you know Mrs. Terpsichore!

Even though his deflation was almost as speedy and as complete as his meteoric elevation to a point of little less than stellar prominence, it is cheering to learn that Stepin Fetchit, the sepia somnambulist, has not entirely faded from the picture—but it is a little surprising that he should be heard of again only in the role of knocker. Stepin—and that name will always slay me—has scant patience with one of his supporting artists in Pathe's production of "Swing High," a musical romance of the big tops and the sawdust ring.

No matter how hard you try, you just can't teach a flea to speak lines in a talking picture, according to Mr. Fetchit, who has his own flea circus in "Swing High," in which Helen Twelvetrees and Fred Scott are featured.

"Fleas are just naturally deaf and dumb," says Stepin. "Now, take Imogene here. She won't even come when you call her. I had to go chasing her all over the lot every time we wanted to take a scene. And talk about a camera hog! She flew right up on the lens of the camera the first time we took her on the set. Imogene is smart for a flea, all right. She can do back flips and hand stands and walk tight ropes, but when it comes to dialogue pictures she's just so much hay wire."

As far as I personally am concerned, if Imogene wanted to light on any part of any camera, instead of a few other places I might mention, it would be all right with me!

In viewing pictures in their finished state on the screen, little thought is given the artisans who build the sets, devise the decorations, arrange the drapes &c. Nevertheless, the speed with which a trained crew of stage carpenters can work is one of the marvels of the film colony.

For example, a crew of less than 50 men in 48 hours duplicated the interior of the gambling casino at Monte Carlo. Not only was this huge setting built in that length of time, but it also was furnished and completely decorated with carpets, hangings, roulette tables, chandeliers and hardware fixtures on doors and windows all substantially in place.

They tear them apart even faster.

By the way, who is heavyweight champion?

What Today Means to You

"GEMINI."

If June 14 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 10 a. m. to 11:15 a. m., from 4:30 a. m. to 6 p. m., and from 11 p. m. to midnight. The danger periods are from 8 a. m. to 9:30 a. m. and from 1 p. m. to 2:30 p. m.

Astrological influences on this date are of an upsetting nature, and a war between the sexes is predicted—family quarrels and lovers' misunderstandings. "Good temper is the rudder by which good sense steers the ship of life."

The child born on this June 14 will not have an independent nature, and will wish to be led and guided through life. Its early influences are of utmost importance to one of its type. It will be very sociable, very friendly and demonstrative.

You are one of the world's pleasure seekers and comfort lovers, and in these pursuits you are bound to display signs of selfishness and a high regard for "No. 1." You are not friendly toward any one or anything which interferes with either. At times you are generous to a fault, but seldom so where personal sacrifices, efforts or discomforts are necessary. You may be a slave of your desires, but in your human relationships you are always a lord or lady, a slave to no other.

You have both extravagant and fastidious tastes. You are almost unkindly critical, criticizing for the sake of being a critic. Temperance and moderation are things you need to learn, for you are an extremist. You are a passionate lover, a dangerous hater, and a friend but to a few. Your infatuations perplex even yourself, for their glamour so soon wears off, leaving you a disillusioned, disappointed and bored person.

You are inclined toward some occupation of a mental nature, and you are not temperamentally fitted for any servile position. Real physical labor is very distasteful to you, and you are awkward with your hands. It is probable that you will meet a mate who will attract, conquer and hold your best self and loyalty—but this will not be early in life.

Successful people born June 14:
Harriet Beecher Stowe, author.
Charles Lanman, librarian of House of Representatives.
John Bartlett, compiler "Bartlett's Quotations."
Robert Hunter, physician, early authority on consumption.
John McCormick, tenor singer.
Robert Marion LaFollette, senator.

LISKA HOLDS CHICAGO TO 4 HITS IN NATS' 6-2 TRIUMPH; SCHMELING DESERVES NO TITLE HONORS, IS CONSENSUS

German Held Undeserving Of Crown

Commission to Withhold Recognition, Is Indication.

Name Will Not Go on Trophy; Plan for Return Bout.

By EDWARD J. NEIL.

NEW YORK, June 13 (A.P.).—After sweeping Max Schmeling into the heavyweight championship by unanimous consent, despite his feeble showing and the delirious ending of his battle with Jack Sharkey, the fight writers, donors of trophies, masters of boxing commissions and the common customers swept him right out again today.

There was an almost complete change of opinion manifest among those who at first declared that, despite his victory on a foul in four rounds, the German youngster won the official decision over Sharkey before a multitude of the faithful in the Yankee Stadium last night and therefore was entitled to the heavyweight championship for which both men were fighting. Calmer judgment, in the cool and quiet of another day switched the fistic leaders to the view that no one was entitled to any honors on the basis of what happened in the stadium ring.

Agreed That Foul Blow Was Struck.

On one point there was unanimity of opinion—Schmeling was incapacitated by a left hook that landed fully 6 inches below the beltline and the punch was unintentional. That blow destroyed what promised to be a fine heavyweight fight, tossed Referee Jim Crowley into the middle of one of the most confused muddles that ever attended the finish of an important contest and added another to the already long list of unsatisfactory endings that threaten to choke boxing to death in New York State.

William Muldoon, aged member of the State Athletic Commission, declared that Schmeling's name would not be engraved on the Tunney-Muldoon Trophy, emblematic of the heavyweight championship, because of the foul. Other members of the committee agreed with him. The committee deferred action until the regular meeting Tuesday, but Chairman James A. Farley indicated the young Teuton would not be recognized as the successor to Gene Tunney. Stanley Isaacs, president of the National Boxing Association, decided on a poll of members before settling Schmeling's status.

Garden Starts Machinery For Return Bout.

Despite the clamor and general opinion that Sharkey, because of his lack of control against both Phil Scott and Schmeling in his last two fights had disqualified himself from title consideration, Madison Square Garden set out early to arrange a return engagement. Sharkey was eager, but the Teuton decided he would not fight again until next June except for a possible bout in Germany. He will leave for the homeland in August after an exhibition tour.

Official figures disclosed the customers paid for far more than they received in the way of entertainment Thursday night. Gross receipts were $749,934, and the net $711,668. In the total attendance of 79,222 were 74,153 paid admissions. Schmeling and Sharkey each received checks for $177,917. Adding in moving picture and radio rights, the Garden and the milk fund, twin sponsors of the show, profited by about $144,500 apiece.

Schmeling, at Garden, Appears Wobbly.

Sharkey, as is his custom, was on his way back to Boston two hours after the fight, but Schmeling visited around the Garden. He still suffered from pains in the groin and appeared wobbly on his legs. He told his mother in Berlin all about the fight by transatlantic phone this morning.

"I have been hit foul before and never complained," he said, "but this one was too much. The punch was too strong. Sharkey was slowing in the fourth round. He seemed discouraged. I wish I could have won some other way. I fight him again next year.

"I am very unhappy about it. I don't know your American rules so well, but I hope I can prove I am der weltmeister, the champion."

STONER IN NO-HIT GAME.

Fortworth, Tex., June 13 (A.P.).—Lil Stonner, veteran right-handed pitcher, hurled a no-hit, no-run game for the Wort Worth Texas League Club here today, shutting out San Antonio, 2 to 0. Only 27 batters faced Stoner, and but one of them, who got a base on balls, reached first base. Stoner fanned seven.

BOYS CHAMPION RETAINS TITLE

McLean Again Beats Hunt For D. C. Boys' Net Crown

By WILLIAM F. DISMER, JR.

AN exact reproduction of last year's final match of the boys' championship of the District of Columbia took place yesterday on the Rock Creek courts, when Jock McLean successfully defended his title by defeating Gilbert Hunt in straight sets, 6—3, 6—3. The result marked the victory for the seeded No. 1 player over the seeded No. 2 contestant.

These same two lads met in the deciding encounter last year and by identically the same scores McLean gained the title. After giving his eventual conqueror a stern battle in the initial set, Hunt seemed to lose confidence in the second set and, after intermittently losing four love games, ended the match by double-faulting on his serve.

Both boys started off at a rapid pace and Hunt, 13-year-old Eastern High lad, showed at the outset that he was not to be treated in the same manner as McLean's other victims this year in the tournament, who were allowed but one game to a match. After McLean had opened the match with a win on his own serve, Hunt tied the score and then went ahead at 2—1. After games seesawed until a 3—3 stage was reached, McLean opened up a hard driving attack that Hunt was unable to withstand, and quickly ran off three games to capture th first set.

After both boys had failed to win on their own service for the first five games of the final set, young McLean broke through by winning the sixth game to take a 4-to-2 lead. Hunt then duplicated to take his service game, but young McLean came back to take the next two games and the match.

Playing a backcourt game, plenty of power was shown in the driving of each player, but after an unsteady start McLean showed the ability to hit his smashing shots for placements. The two-time champion was little disturbed by the few rallies of his foe, in contrast to Hunt, who became erratic when the battle was against him.

The point scores:

FIRST SET.

| | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| McLean | 4 | 4 | 1 | 4 | 2 | 4 | 5 | 5 | 4 | —33—6 |
| Hunt | 1 | 6 | 4 | 1 | 4 | 2 | 3 | 3 | 1 | —25—3 |

SECOND SET.

| | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| McLean | 4 | 7 | 4 | 1 | 4 | 4 | 3 | 4 | 4 | —35—6 |
| Hunt | 0 | 9 | 0 | 4 | 0 | 1 | 5 | 0 | 1 | —20—3 |

As a result of their victories in the semifinals of the junior division over two Western High School netmen, two teammates of Central High will play for the championship of that class tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Frank Shore, defending champion, made sure of his participation in the final round by whipping Anthony Latona, of Western, in straight sets, 6—2, 8—6, although Clyde Smith had a little more difficulty in disposing of Joe Dial. Smith dropped the first set 3—6, but came back to win the next two in impressive style, 6—1, 6—3.

British United Appeal Denied by U. S. Group

Special to The Washington Post.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 13.—The United States Football Association, holding its annual meeting here, announced today that it had denied the British United appeal on a decision made by the Washington and Southeastern District Soccer Association, in connection with a match played against Marlboro several weeks ago. The Washington Association ruled that the referee had erred in a decision and ordered a replay of the game. The United States Football Association agreed with this decision.

PIERCE VS. MONTROSE.

The Pierce A. C. and Montrose Nines will meet today at 3 o'clock on the Magruder Park diamond at Hyattsville. Pierce players will meet Monday night at 8 o'clock at the home of Bob Mingee.

D. G. S. PLAYS TOMORROW.

All District Grocery Store players are to report at the Warehouse tomorrow at 1 p. m. to leave for their game with the Alexandria Cardinals at Hayden Field at 2:30 o'clock.

Schmeling Declares He Is Sharkey's Master and Will Prove It in Return Battle

Max Says He Has Gained Confidence by Withstanding Sailor's Hardest Punches; May Fight Once in Europe Before Returning Here in June.

By MAX SCHMELING
(As Told to Charles A. Lovett).

NEW YORK, June 13.—The next time I fight Sharkey, I beat him. If, when I come to defend my title here next June for Madison Square Garden he is the man who stands out as still the best American challenger I will be glad. Because then I can show you something that now only a few of my friends believe—that I can beat him.

If I needed anything else to add to the confidence I already had before the fight, it is what I learned in those four rounds with Sharkey. Then in my own mind I became champion. When I looked in Jack's eyes in the fourth round and saw that he is uncertain then I know I have him. And from now on it will be the same any and every time we meet. He knows I will beat him. He knew it in the fourth round after he could not stop me with his hardest punches.

You can believe how happy it makes me to be the first European heavyweight champion of the world. Many others have tried it and failed. Georges Carpentier lost a match with Dempsey, Tom Heeney was named challenger to Gene Tunney and failed, and Phil Scott was eliminated in the semifinals. That I am able to bring that championship to Germany where boxing is in but the beginning makes me happier than anything.

My contract with Madison Square Garden calls for me to defend my title here in June. If it were not for troubles with my old manager, Von Bulow, I would like to fight this September so that I do not stay out of the ring too long. A fighter needs work, and I still am young and still have so sthing to learn. Each time I fight I learn something new. Sharkey was a good boxing master. I learn plenty from him. Too much for Sharkey I learn, for I learn I can beat him.

If I can I will fight one fight in Europe late this summer. My contract here does not stop me from doing that, and Jeff Dickson wishes to promote it.

Very well. If it can be done, I will do it, so that when I come back here I have made another fight before; and maybe I have learn still something.

Would Not Like Stage Tour.

Can you understand how hard if is to say what are now my plans? This morning I speak to my mother over the telephone in Berlin. Oh, she is so anxious about me and so eager to have me come home. She wishes that I spend the summer months with her. I think I would like to do that.

And then, here are so many offers. A tour, exhibitions, theatrical. I would not like to go on the stage over the summer. It is too hot. It takes too much out of me. I have now a title to protect. My strong body is a protection. You think if I'm not

NATS TRADE BARNES FOR HARRIS

Johnson Gains Right-Handed Outfielder in Chicago Deal.

Special to The Washington Post.

CHICAGO, June 13.—While the Nationals did not land Outfielder Carl Reynolds, the one whom they hoped to coax from the White Sox, they are not leaving the Windy City empty-handed, for after this afternoon's game Managers Walter Johnson and Donie Bush engineered a deal which leaves Emil (Red) Barnes here and gives the Washington club the services of Dave Harris.

Both players were utility outfielders on their respective clubs, Harris being a right-handed swinger, which has been the Nats' need. Harris has been used in but few games by Bush and little is known of his ability. He is a stockily built lad, weighing about 190 pounds and being but 26 years of age. He started professionally in 1924 in the Piedmont League and was sold to the Boston Braves, sticking with them during the 1925 season. He was with the Providence club in 1926 and 1927, and with the Braves again in 1928.

Hit .360 in 83 Games In Coast League.

Last season Harris started with PProvidence and hit .352, later being sold to the Portland club, of the Pacific Coast League, where he starred. In 83 games on the Coast, he hit at a .360 clip, his bingles 108 including 35 extra-basers, 14 of which were homers. That he is not slow is indicated by his record of seventeen stolen bases.

The Nationals sought Harris' services early this spring and refused to grant waivers on him, this causing the White Sox to withdraw his name. Harris will play the role of outfield utility man and pinch hitter.

Because the Nationals are loaded with so many southpaw hitters, Barnes was of little use. He joined the Nats in 1927 and had a great year in 1928 until near the end of

INDIANS ROUT A'S TO TAKE 1ST PLACE

Ferrell Holds Macks to Win 10th Game by 15-2 Score.

CLEVELAND, June 13 (A.P.).—The Cleveland Indians delivered the Athletics a terrific 15-to-2 wallop today and replaced them in first place in the American League.

They drove their southpaw nemesis, George Walberg, to cover under veritable barrage of base hits. Eddie Rommel, who followed Walberg, was quite as unsuccessful. Connie Mack sent in five substitutes in an effort to stop the onslaught.

Wesley Ferrell pitched one of his ordinarily good games for the Indians. It was his tenth victory of the season.

Three of the Indian runs were scored on a slashing homer by Dick Porter in the seventh with two on bases.

NEW DISTRICT CHAMPION

MRS. BETTY MECKLEY.

Mrs. Meckley Gains Title Of District in 20-Hole Final

TRAILING 3 down at the eleventh tee yesterday, Mrs. Betty Meckley, Beaver Dam, rallied to win the women's District amateur golf championship by defeating Mrs. Stephen F. Colladay, Columbia, on the twentieth green in the final round played over the Washington Golf and Country Club course.

With victory apparently assured, Mrs. Colladay faltered after the turn and lost her commanding lead only to make another determined stand, carrying her victorious rival to the twentieth. Missing three short putts in succession on the last three holes prevented Mrs. Colladay from gaining the title.

Mrs. Colladay, who was out in 45, was 2 down at the turn and went 3 down by taking the tenth. Mrs. Meckley then took the next three holes in succession with 3—4—5 against 5—5—7 for Mrs. Colladay. The latter missed a 2-foot putt on the sixteenth with victory in sight and failed to sink a 4-footer on the seventeenth with triumph possible. Again on the eighteenth, Mrs. Colladay missed a short putt which would have decided the match.

The rivals halved the nineteenth in 5's, but Mrs Meckley put her tee shot on the twentieth green and easily gained a 3 while her opponent was over the green from the tee and again over the green with her second shot, getting on in three and requiring a 5 to hole out.

Miss Susan Hacker, Chevy Chase, won the first flight consolation by defeating Miss Dorothy Hunter, unattached, 8 and 6.

In the Wake of the Game

Special to The Washington Post.

COMISKEY PARK, Chicago, June 13.—Bob Weiland, rookie southpaw making his second start of the season for the Chisox, started off badly by walking Loepp, Nat lead-off man, on four successive balls. An unusual play followed when Rice lofted to short right. Reynolds dropped the ball but picked it up in time to save himself an error, tossing to second to get Loepp, who had to hug first on a force play.

Rice stole second with Weiland holding the ball after Reynolds' odd play had given him life.

Myer's triple in the opening round was a real clout, the ball going almost on a line to the scoreboard in left center.

Kerr, opening the game for the Chisox, almost shot a leg off of Pitcher Ad Liska. The liner caromed off his left knee toward third, but too late for Bleuge to nail the runner at first on a good try.

Myer helped Liska out of a tough hole in the home first when he went back fast for Cissell's liner over second with men on third and second, making the second out of the round.

Jack Hayes, who, by the way, is beginning to feel quite at home in Judge's post, is getting a big kick out of his temporary job. "If any one had told me last year that I'd ever play even a single game at first in the majors, I wouldn't have believed it," he said. While a little awkward, "Sonny Boy" is getting on to the fine points of shifting his feet for throws and now is doing like a veteran. He and Cronin retired all three batters in rapid order in the Sox second.

When Myer pilfered second in the third round, it was the third Nat theft in as many innings, as Rice had

Tightens in Pinches to Protect Nats' Lead Near End.

Myer, Cronin, Hayes Lead in Attack on Weiland, Walsh.

By FRANK H. YOUNG
(Staff Correspondent of The Post).

COMISKEY PARK, Chicago, June 13.—Friday, the thirteenth, proved to be a lucky combination for the Nationals today, for it saw them defeat the White Sox in the final of the series here, 6 to 2, and pull up to within a few percentage points of the world's champion Mackmen, who dropped from first to second by bowing to Pekinpaugh's Indians. The Nats are now within half a game of both the Philadelphia and Cleveland entries.

Adolph Liska pitched for Washington and, despite the fact that he allowed only four hits, he was within a flicker of being withdrawn on two occasions. This was due to wildness, a walk and hit batsmen which filled the sacks in the sixth and two passes which he issued in the ninth. The Chicago hits were bunched in their two scoring frames, although poor fielding by Goslin was responsible for the underhanded flinger's trouble in round six.

Weiland, Walsh Batted.

Bob Weiland, a southpaw, and "Little Ed" Walsh pitched for the Sox and runs were scored on both, the Nats cracking out eleven hits all told, with Cronin, Myer and Hayes getting two each. The first two named used their safeties to drive home two runs each.

The Nationals gave Liska a two-run lead in the first, but he was in plenty of trouble in the home half of the round, then settled down and pitched hitless and scoreless ball until the sixth, when he again managed to pull out of a deep hole at the expense of only one run.

Loepp started the game by coaxing

Stake Has No Outstanding Favorite

East and West 3-Year-Olds Clash at Mile and Quarter.

Gallant Knight One of Probable Choices in Rich Test.

By CHARLES W. DUNKLEY.

CHICAGO, June 13 (A.P.).—Fourteen speedy 3-year-olds were named today to start in the $50,000 American Derby at Washington Park tomorrow with no outstanding favorite in the list unless it be Gallant Knight, second to Gallant Fox in the Kentucky Derby.

The field for the one and one quarter mile race includes six invaders from the East: Snowflake, Dark Sea, Ned O, Horn Pipe, and Xenofol, Portmanteau and two extremely doubtful starters, Flier and General Jackson. Tannery, Gallant Knight, Michigan Boy, Plucky Play, Reveille Boy, and Alciabibades, all Western hopefuls, complete the field.

Gallant Knight, Bermard B. Jones' winner of the Fairmount Derby and runner-up in the Kentucky Derby, appears to be the probable choice if the track is fast, while Michigan Boy, winner of the Louisiana Derby, may receive support if the track is heavy.

Top Weight Is 121 Pounds.

Gallant Knight and Michigan Boy were given top weight of 121 pounds, while Portmanteau, Reveille Boy, Gen. Jackson, Ned O., Flier, Tannery, Dark Sea and Plucky Play are to carry 118 pounds. Alciabibades and Snow Flake, the two fillies in the race, will have 116 pounds up, with Hornpipe and Xenofol carrying 114 pounds, because they are nonwinners. Alciabibades and Snow Flake are speedy fillies with sufficient class to make them dangerous.

Alciabibades in her last start defeated Rich Widow, Galladay and others of her age and sex in the Kentucky Oaks and Snow Flake came home first in the recent renewal of the American Coaching Club Oaks, also for 3-year-old fillies, at Belmont.

Salmon Withdraws Swinfield.

Walter J. Salmon, New York turfman, caused surprise when he withdrew Swinfield from the race, leaving Snow Flake to carry his colors.

If twelve of the fourteen 3-year-olds go to the post, the race will have a gross value of $60,225, with $50,225 and a $1,500 trophy going to the winner.

Indications were today that a new attendance record would be set for the race, and with favorable weather and track conditions the event is likely to prove an open race, with the winner a long shot in the betting.

Boots and Saddle's

(Reg. U. S. Patent Office.)

—Washington Park Selections—

By J. B. SNODGRASS.

THE AMERICAN DERBY, famous before racing was barred in Illinois 20 years ago, and was revived after the sport made a comeback in Illinois at Washington Park, where it was formerly run, will be renewed today, with $50,000 added, making it one of the richest of 3-year-old specials in the country, along with the Preakness, the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont Stakes.

This race promises to be an outstanding test on the 3-year-olds with the exception of Gallant Fox and Whichone, neither of which will be sent West at this time, with the Dwyer so near in New York.

Fourteen have accepted the issue, and it is believed the rich stake will go to Walter J. Salmon's filly, SNOWFLAKE. It is unusual for a filly to beat colts at this season of the year, but SNOWFLAKE has shown more than any candidate in this field. She was third in the Preakness, and won the Coaching Club American Oaks at Belmont Park, a longer route than the American Derby, which is a mile and a quarter.

The Audley Farm's GALLANT KNIGHT, which was second in the Kentucky Derby, and bid fair at that time to rank second or third among the 3-year-olds, flivvered at Fairmont, but has been working impressively since, and may make amends. He is picked for the place.

TANNERY, which beat NED O last week, takes third rank in this field, on the record of past performance, and should beat both MICHIGAN BOY and NED O for show money. TANNERY was second choice in the Kentucky Derby, but appeared hopeless after his bad race in that stake. He recovered some of his following in his last race, when he beat NED O six lengths.

FIRST RACE—Is for platers. GRACIOUS GIFT seems to have the edge. HOT SHOT will be the contender and is dangerous. REDCLIFFE is inconsistent, but should show, even without being at his best.

SECOND RACE, for 2-year-olds, seems an easy spot for BLUE LAW, a Greentree juvenile, which beat a crack field at Belmont Park. ISSAQUENA is probably best of the opposition, with NISIA coming next. MARTHA JONES has a chance.

THIRD RACE—LEUCITE has not run to his best form recently, but is selected here. It is the best spot this Rancocas racer has had in some time. FAIRY MAIDEN is the best of the others. She is very consistent and can go a route. EQUATION will hold third money safe from the others in the large field.

FOURTH RACE—The Windy City Purse is the secondary feature. PIGEON HOLE, in top form, looks best, with WHISKERY to beat. LADY BROADCAST, very fast, should get third money. WHISKERY seems to be coming back to good form.

SIXTH RACE—MISSTEP tops his field, a handicap, and has 127 pounds up. NUSAKAN, at the distance and light impost, is dangerous, but weakhearted. He may hold on for place. BROWN WISDOM is almost sure to be in the money. He is coupled with MY DANDY, a good sprinter.

SEVENTH RACE—RUANE should win this. GENERAL JACKSON is dangerous, if he starts in this race. He also is entered in the Derby. ROLLING SEA can beat any of the others.

*Field.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—ESTIN, $16.04, $7.36, $4.54; ZETA, $5.58, $3.42; BIG SWEEP, $3.94.

ESTIN, never far off the pace, came to outside entering stretch and, moving up strongly, wore down ZETA and, in a hard final drive, disposed of latter in final sixteenth. ZETA, away fast, went into the lead in the first eighth, went along steadily while saving ground, but began tiring inside final furlong, could not match winner's challenge, but outlasted BIG SWEEP. BIG SWEEP had early speed, was unable to improve his position after the first half mile. LILLIAN TOBIN gained steadily and showed a good effort.

SECOND RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Purse, $1,200. The Rambler. For 2-year-olds, maidens, colts and geldings. Start bad. Won easily; place, driving. Went to post at 2:54½. Off at 2:58. Winner, Rancocas Stable's br. c. (2), by Lucullite—Siren. Trained by F. M. Taylor. Value to winner, $900; second, $200; third, $100. Time, 0:23 2-5, 0:47, 1:00 3-5, 1:07 3-5.

*Field.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—CHARMER, $25.22, $12.24, $10.06; NORIAS, $4.26, $4.14; DUNFERN, $25.86.

CHARMER broke slowly from outside, but sprinted into the lead going to the first quarter, outran FOREIGN EXCHANGE to the stretch, then moved into a long lead and won as rider pleased. NORIAS, a forward contender, worked his way up gradually on the outside, wore down FOREIGN EXCHANGE in final drive, but could not get to the winner. DUNFERN, away fast from outside position and kept in close pursuit of the pace, went through on the inside in the stretch and finished strong. FOREIGN EXCHANGE forced the early pace, but tired in his effort to catch CHARMER and faltered when it came to a drive. BOILING closed a good gap.

THIRD RACE—One mile and seventy yards. Purse, $1,300; claiming. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 3:29. Off at 3:30½. Winner, Audley Farm's ch. g. *Field.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—LIEUTENANT RUSSELL, $30.74, $15.78, $11.00; TYPHOON, $22.18, $9.74; DON FERNANDO, $11.02.

LIEUTENANT RUSSELL, going in his best form, raced restrainedly in closest pursuit of JACK HASKELL to the stretch turn, where he wore down JACK HASKELL and drew clear, keeping TYPHOON safe. TYPHOON, racing suddenly improved, never far off the pace, closed steadily on the outside, outgaming DON FERNANDO. DON FERNANDO saved ground when able to get through on inside through the last quarter and, closing fast, got up to outfinish the tiring JACK HASKELL. JACK HASKELL enjoyed a clear course and showed the way to within the final furlong, but then tired. DEVON began slowly, closed a gap, but could not reach contention. YAM TOY was done after first half mile.

FOURTH RACE—Five and one-half furlongs. Purse, $1,200; claiming. For 2-year-olds. Start good. Won ridden out; place, driving. Went to post at 4:00½. Off at 4:03. Winner, Estate J. E. Clark's b. or br. f. (2), by Porte Drapeau—Balma Vista. Trained by J. B. Theall. Value to winner, $900; second, $200; third, $100. Time, 0:22 4-5, 0:47, 1:01, 1:07 3-5.

*Field.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—AUNT DEB, $11.70, $5.34, $4.64; MARY COBB, $4.80, $3.92; VOLTABUSH, $4.28.

AUNT DEB moved up with a rush on outside after the start, went into the lead, was rated along to stretch, where she drew out when called on but, tiring in the late stages, was ridden out to hold safe MARY COBB. MARY COBB was slightly outpaced for first half mile, quickly raced into contention when straightened out in the stretch, and was steadily overhauling winner at the end. VOLTABUSH improved her position gradually, but was never able to threaten the winner. GABBO, slow to get going, closed a wide gap in the final quarter. TRAPSTAR was on the outside, showed speed and went well. MISS CHILLA attempted to force the early pace, but was easily disposed of.

FIFTH RACE—One mile. Purse, $1,600. The White City Handicap. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won easily; place, driving. Went to post at 4:32½. Off at 4:32½. Winner, Warm Stable's br. c. (4), by Mad Hatter—Afternoon. Trained by J. T. Taylor. Value to winner, $1,300; second, $250; third, $150. Time, 0:24 2-5, 0:47 2-5, 1:12, 1:37 4-5.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—THE NUT, $9.88, $6.26, out; STAR O' MORN, $4.68, out; MARTIE FLYNN, out.

THE NUT, always in closest pursuit of STAR O' MORN under restraint, challenged and wore the latter down when called upon reaching the last furlong, went into the lead and drew out easily. STAR O' MORN had the best early speed, set a good pace to the stretch, held on well, but could not withstand winner's rush. MARTIE FLYNN went forwardly, held his position safe and was gradually gaining on STAR O' MORN at the end. STARS AND BARS was kept not too far out of it, but could not get to the leaders when called upon.

SIXTH RACE—Six furlongs. Purse, $1,300; allowances. The Cherry Hill Golf. For 3-year-olds. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 5:02½. Off at 5:07½. Winner, J. Marsch's b. c. (3), by Camp Fire—Merry Princess. Trained by C. Howard. Value to winner, $1,000; second, $200; third, $100. Time, 0:23 2-5, 0:47, 1:13 2-5.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—CAMP BOSS, $4.12, $3.22, $2.86; HYPOLUXO, $8.50, $5.60; CULLODEN, $6.76.

CAMP BOSS set his own pace, saved ground throughout and, holding on well in long, hard final drive, lasted to hold HYPOLUXO safe. Latter, always closest in pursuit forcing the pace, was gradually gaining on the leader forcing CAMP BOSS to do his best to win. CULLODEN got through on the inside in the stretch, closed a gap and finished fast. ZACAWEISTA and GENERAL GRANT weakened after showing early speed.

SEVENTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles. Purse, $1,300; claiming. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won handily; place, driving. Went to post at 5:37½. Off at 5:42. Winner, Leader Stable's b. g. Two-dollar mutuels paid—TOMMY TICKLE, $7.04, $5.28, $4.16; QUIBBLER, $4.52, $4.02; PRICKLY HEAT, $7.72.

TOMMY TICKLE began forwardly, rated along in lead under restraint, opened up a decisive advantage when called on at the stretch turn and was in hand at the end. QUIBBLER worked his way up gradually, got through on inside in stretch and outfinished the rest of field. PRICKLY HEAT was a prominent factor throughout and held on well. BUMPSIE RAY closed a big gap, as did NANCY SETH. TENNESSEEAN, AMELIA MAY and PETER tired after showing early speed.

BOOKMAKING HELD LEGAL IN COUNTY

Appeals Court Overrules Judge at Hagerstown.

Special to The Washington Post.

HAGERSTOWN, Md., June 13.—Washington County, Md., of which Hagerstown is the county seat, was the only place in Maryland and one of the few perhaps in the United States where bookmaking on horse racing is legal, as a result of a ruling handed down today by the Maryland Court of Appeals.

The Court of Appeals overruled the decision of Judge Frank G. Agaman, of the circuit court here, who had found guilty Charles E. O'Connell, indicted for bookmaking, and held that the State law was not applicable to this county. O'Connell and Harry Miggins had been found guilty by the court here and fined $400 each. The opinion of the court of appeals was written by Judge Adkins and was dissented to by Judge Urner.

Should Have Sustained Demurrer.

At the trial of O'Connell and Miggins, counsel demurred holding that the 1898 law specifically exempted Washington, Cecil and Anne Arundel Counties, Maryland. But Judge Wagaman overruled the demurrer. The court of appeals, however, held that he should have sustained the demurrer.

It is understood that Cecil and Anne Arundel Counties have local laws which prohibit bookmaking, but Washington County does not. In view of the court of appeals decision a demurrer can now be entered to the indictment against Miggins, and the case automatically dismissed.

HOWELL DEFEATS FRIZZELL IN COLUMBIA FINALS

Youth Takes Match by 3 and 2

Both Hard Pressed to Win in Semifinal Contests.

Beger Is Winner Over McCallum on 20th Green.

By HENRY LITCHFIELD WEST.

THE spring invitation tournament of the Columbia Country Club was won yesterday afternoon by William R. Howell of the Hermitage Club, Richmond, Va., who defeated Paul J. Frizzell, Columbia, on the sixteenth green of the final round, 3 and 2. Howell, who is a lad of 18 years but does not look a day older than 16, and who weighs only 135 pounds, recently won the Middle Atlantic amateur golf championship and two years ago, when only 16, became amateur champion of Virginia, his native State.

Frizzell has never before figured prominently in local golf events, although last year he won the medal in the Columbia Club closed championship with a card of 75, being ultimately defeated in match play by Miller B. Stevinson.

Howell reached the final round by defeating Roger Peacock, Indian Spring, and District junior champion, when, being 1 up on the eighteenth tee, he secured a half on the home hole. Frizzell, on the other hand, had a strenuous struggle to pravent elimination and finally won on the twentieth hole from Clyde B. Asher, Columbia, when he ran down a 10-foot putt for a birdie 3.

Asher Apparently Had Match.

Asher, however, had the match apparent in the hollow of his hand when he was 1 up on the seventeenth tee and his opponent's drive was in the ditch. He had an easy pitch to and the hole was halved in 5s. Then the green but missed his second shot Frizzell won the eighteenth hole, squaring the match, and Asher went down to defeat on the twentieth hole.

Howell's victory was due not to his drives, for although they were nearly always longer than Frizzell's, only two of them—one on the fifth and one on the ninth—were straight down the fairway, while Frizzell, with the exception of a trap shot on the ninth, was always in the middle of the course. Howell's winning golf was shown in his remarkable recoveries and especially in the expert fashion with which he approached the pin. The fact that he had no less than five one-putt greens demonstrates that he excelled his opponent in his short work and many holes which Frizzell seemed certain to win resulted in unexpected halves. In the entire round Howell had only one three-putt green, the eighth, and on all the other holes his mashie and his putter were as reliable as a Government bond.

Rivals All Even At Turn.

When the contestants reached the turn they were all even. Frizzell had won the second hole when Howell, after a hooked drive, and nearly all his drives were hooks or slices, played 50 yards over the green. Howell squared the match on the fifth when he scored a birdie 4, but did not need it, as Frizzell had hooked his third shot out of bounds. On the sixth hole, Howell played one of the finest shots of the day, securing a distance of fully 170 yards with an iron out of a trap. He lost the eighth when he three-putted the green from a distance of 25 feet but the match was again all even when he played a pitch-and-run shot on the ninth and scored a par 4 with a single putt.

Thereafter Frizzell did not win a single hole. With the tenth and eleventh halved, although Howell might have won the eleventh if he had not been partially stymied, Howell won the twelfth with a fine approach and a single putt of over six feet for a birdie 4, and the thirteenth, when, after overplaying the green, he pitched to the green and holed out with another single putt, although he was three feet farther from the pin than Frizzell. He should have won the fourteenth after Frizzell topped his second shot, but a missed putt of about five feet only gave him a half. On the fifteenth Frizzell played his second shot into the ditch and was 3 down. A half on the sixteenth ended the match. The cards:

Out—
Howell ....... 4 5 4 4 4 5 4 4 4—38
Frizzell ...... 4 4 4 4 6 5 4 3 5—39
In—
Howell ....... 5 5 4 3 5 4 3
Frizzell ...... 5 5 5 4 5 6 3

There were no less than two 20-hole matches in the semifinal round in addition to the extended battle which resulted in the defeat of Asher, for Walter R. McCallum, Washington, was eliminated on the twentieth hole by F. Joseph Beger, Georgetown University, and Royal W. Gills, Baltimore Country Club, folded up his tent on the twentieth hole when he was defeated by Franklin N. Parks, Congressional. The latter followed up his victory by winning the fourth sixteen.

The prizes were presented by Herbert T. Shannon, president of the club, and in addition to the prize winners in the net handicap competition: First, Walter D. Murphy, Columbia, 82—14—68; second, E. E. Krewson, Columbia, 87—18—69; third, tie, John L. Quigley, Harper, 82—12—70, and H. D. Cowee, Manor, 83—13—70. Quigley lost out in the draw.

Mrs. Goldenberg Wins Woodmont Club Title

Mrs. I. Goldenberg yesterday won the women's championship of the Woodmont Club when she defeated Mrs. E. R. Nordlinger in the finals, 5 and 3. Mrs. Goldenberg was one up at the turn and gradually increased her lead as her opponent faltered, ending the match on the fifteenth green.

Luque Suffers First Loss, Reds Winning, 8-5

Ebbets Field, Brooklyn, N. Y., June 13 (A.P.).—The long winning streak of Adolfo Luque, veteran Cuban pitcher, came to an end this afternoon, as Cincinnati won the final of its series in Brooklyn by a score of 8 to 5.

The Reds got off to a five-run jump in the first inning and were never headed. With two out, a pop fly dropped safely, scoring two runs and three more came in on Cuccinello's home run into the bleachers in left field.

The Robins knocked May out with a four-run burst in the sixth, but Campbell relieved in fine style.

Luque had an undefeated record of six straight victories until today.

Walker, Giants, Scores Eighth Victory, 3 to 2

New York, June 13 (A.P.).—With Bill Walker pithing hi seighth victory of the season, the New York Giants made it two out of three against the Pirates today, winning 3 to 2.

Walker held the Pirates to six scattered hits and in addition drove in two runs with a timely single in the fourth. Mel Ott sent in three runs with a pair of singles and scored two himself.

Larry French, ace of the Pirates' southpaws, held the Giants in check for three innings, but the New Yorkers got to him for three runs in the fourth, another in the fifth and three more in the seventh. Ervin Brame, who has been out of the outline with influenza, pitched the eighth inning and held the Giants scoreless. One of the Pirates' runs was due to Jackson's error, while Paul Waner drove in the other.

POLO TROPHY ANNEXED BY CAVALRY

Yellows Conquer War Blues in Argentine Cup Final, 11-7.

THE four horsemen of the Cavalry Yellow Polo Team proved too much for the War Department Blues yesterday on the Potomac Park polo field, and by an 11-7 score captured the final game of the Argentine Cup series and also the trophy emblematic of the games.

Immediately after the match, Senor and Senora Enciso, charge d'affaires of the Argentine Embassy in the city, presented the cup to Capt. Devine, captain of the winning team.

Led by Lieut. Makinney, who five times propelled the little ball through the uprights, the Cavalry Yellows soon demonstrated that the 2-goal handicap granted them was superfluous. While blanking their foes during the first chukker, the Cavalry Team scored twice through the efforts of Capt. Noble, who twice scored for his team.

Although far behind in the fifth chukker, Maj. Eager made a valiant effort to arouse his team's spirit, when he located the ball directly in front of his own goal and single-handedly carried it the entire length of the field. Closely followed by Maj. Patton, a teammate, Eager passed him the ball in front of the Cavalry goal, Patton socking it through for the fifth point.

the season. Harris is scheduled to leave tonight for St. Louis with the Washington Club, with Barnes due to report to the Bushmen here tomorrow.

Shortage of Reserves Obvious.

Joe Judge is out of action now, although he expects to be able to be back in tomorrow's line-up. This means, that should Buddie Myer, Joe Cronin or Ossie Bluege have been hurt while the Nats' captain was nursing his "Charley horse," only the inexperienced McLeod would have been available.

Braves Overcome 7-Run Lead to Win in Tenth

Boston, June 13 (A.P.).—The Braves came from behind after giving St. Louis a seven-run lead in the first two innings and defeated the Cardinals, 9 to 8, in ten innings. The Bostonians pecked away at Wee Willie Sherdel's offerings until they were on the level with the Westerners in the eighth when Sherdel gave way to Herman Bell.

Mancuso's homer gave the Cards a one-run lead in the ninth, but it was short-lived as Bottomley's error sent the game into extra innings. Singles by Welsh and Maranville and a fielder's choice on Johnny Neun's drive gave the Braves the game.

ALEXANDRIA SPORTS

Special to The Washington Post.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., June 13.—Bell Haven Country Club will be hot at the second tournament of the Tri-State Association tomorrow afternoon on the links of the local club. Clubs from Winchester, Purcellville and Martinsburg will be here to fight for honors.

The match will begin promptly at 1:30 o'clock and a large gallery is expected to be on hand.

Belle Haven's twelve-man team is in first position in the Tri-State League by virtue of defeating Winchester two weeks ago in a play-off match over the Purcellville course. Tomorrow afternoon, Alexandria will again meet the Winchester Team, while Purcellville will engage the Martinsburg Team. The players that will represent the local club tomorrow will be as follows: Charlie Rollins, B. F. Howell, Tom Seberell, Cecil Brown, Fred Souder, R. L. Kane, B. Clem, Windsor Demaine, Charlie Carlin, Wilmer Waller, Andy Clarke and Dr. S. B. Moore.

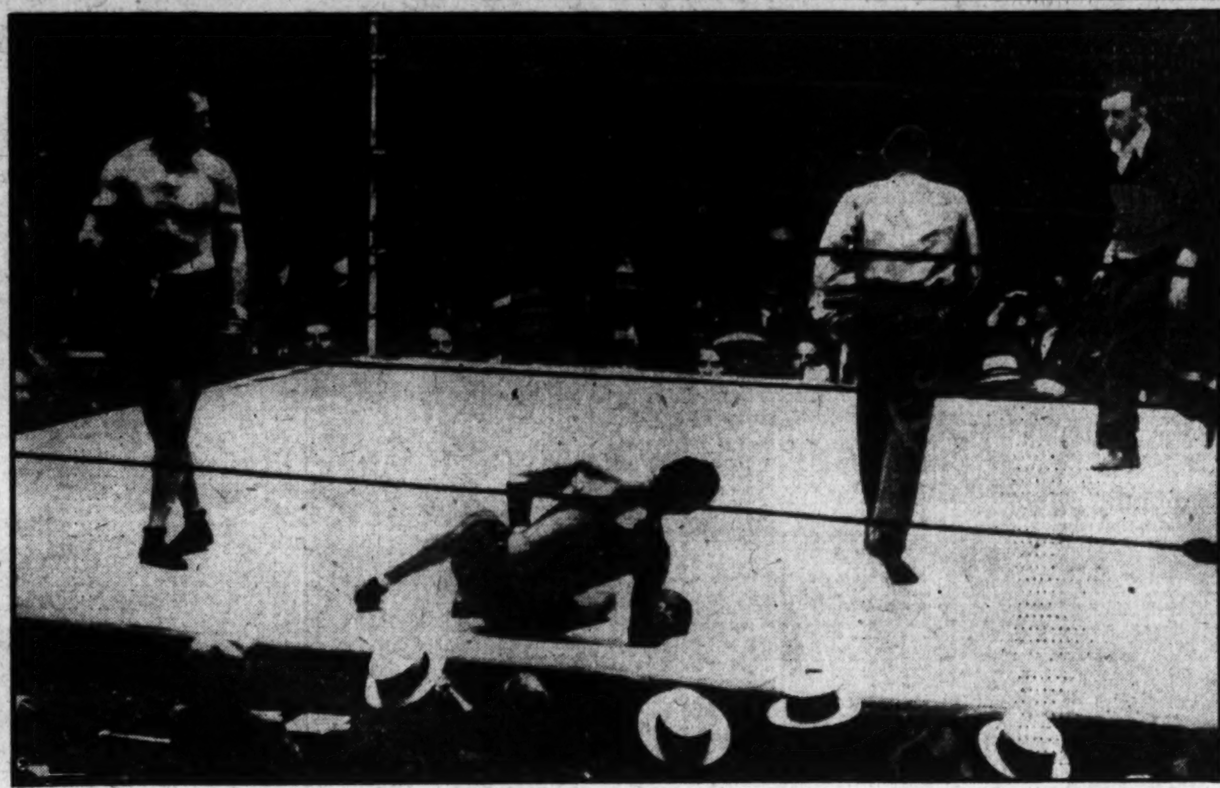

All baseball teams that expect to enter in the baseball leagues to be conducted under the auspices of the municipal playground director must file applications with Prex Wilson, director of the playground system at the swimming pool tomorrow.

Director Wilson requests all managers to meet him at his office at 5 o'clock, with a list of players. The city junior league will start Monday. It was stated today that the winner of the Junior League would be declared the champions of this city and would represent this city in the American Legion tournament. The local post will take over the winning team and see tha tthey are taken to the tournament. The rules for the Junior League are as follows:

1. Players must be amateur.
2. Not having attained their seventeenth birthday before September 15.
3. No team can carry more than fourteen players.
4. Must be bona fide residents of this city.

The league will be run according to the rules governing the American Legion Team so that the team that wins will have no trouble in qualifying.

GERMAN ON THE CANVAS BEFORE WILD SCENE IN RING

Yanks Defeat Tigers In Slugging Bee, 10-9

Detroit, Mich., June 13 (A.P.).—With pitchers playing very little part in the game except tossing the ball up to the plate, the New York Yankees won a slug fest from the Detroit Tigers, 10 to 9, today. The victory gave the Yankees the odd game of the three-game series.

Pipgras, Gomez and Sherid took turns on the mound for the Yankees, but the Tigers found the trio for thirteen hits, while the New Yorkers got to Whitehill, Page and Sullivan for fourteen blows. Of the collection of Yankee hits, a home run by Sam Byrd with two on in the sixth proved the most valuable. The three runs put the Yanks out in front after the two teams had played a give-and-take affair for five innings.

Babe Ruth had a perfect day at the plate, getting a double in his one official time at bat. He walked three times and sacrificed another. A perfect throw to the plate by Ruth in the ninth cut off what would have been the tying run.

MASTER OF SHARKEY, GERMAN DECLARES

in condition I can stand up to what Sharkey gives me in the third round? You think if my legs are not in shape I can chase him like I do in the fourth? I know that—I know I must keep in condition.

Now while I speak of how I chase him, I will say one thing to my critics. Who makes the fight? If I stand still like Sharkey, is there a fight? I think not. Sharkey was not defending a title. He was equal with me, we are both claimants then. But he fights like a defender. I attack, he counters. If I do not attack, you see nothing at all.

To my manager, Joe Jacobs, I can not give full enough credit. When I was helpless from the low punch he protected my interest as no manager has ever done before. He fight hard for me. If he does not do so, who can tell? The referee is in such position behind Sharkey he does not see the punch but the judge does. The judge is firm, the referee is uncertain. But the referee must rule. The other side was trying to win for their man the same way. I do not blame them.

They tell the referee I am knocked out. You see the moving pictures? They show different. Anyway, my Joe he win. If my opponents knew how to punch right and fight fair and with care not to hit low, as I am careful, I do not need him. But when they do not, it is good to have him there.

And yet I have no hard feeling for the unlucky Sharkey. He is careless twice and he now pay the penalty for it. But I am sure he hit foul without intention.

Two Week-End Games Booked for Annapolis

Special to The Washington Post.

Annapolis, Md., June 13.—Two week-end baseball games are scheduled for local fans. The newly organized Annapolis baseball club, which made its debut last Sunday in none too auspicious fashion will clash with the Riviero A. C. of Baltimore, a team which has done well this year.

Annapolis hopes to have Newby Catlin, former Eastport southpaw, on the mound Sunday.

Tomorrow afternoon, Kid Mohler's Naval Academy second class team will usher in its summer schedule by meeting the Union Trust Co. Nine of Baltimore at 2:30 o'clock.

IN THE WAKE OF THE GAME

pilfered in the first and Spencer in the second.

Bluege took Kerr's hot roller directly back of third opening the home third and followed with a nobby peg.

Weiland fanned Liska on three successive strikes, ending Washington's fourth.

A high wind was blowing today and this seemed to puzzle the players trying to handle fly balls. In the home fourth, Loepp almost ran in circles for Reynolds' looper, which opened the round. Liska ended it by making a jumping gloved-hand stop of Clancy's bounder.

When Loepp coaxed a pass opening the fifth, it made his third walk in succession. It was just the opposite in Liska's case. He fanned for the third time in a row in the sixth.

Spencer quickly recovered a short passed ball and made a great peg to nip Crouse trying to steal on it in the home fifth. Cronin took the toss with his gloved hand and made the out on a pretty play.

Hayes spiked himself slightly when he made a leaping one-hand catch of Cronin's high throw to nail Watwood in the sixth session. The sub first sacker came down with one foot on top of the other, but hung on to the ball just the same.

Goslin played Jolley's looper poorly in the sixth, overrunning it while chasing over toward the foul line for it. It let the slow-footed runner go all the way to third and was later turned into a run.

West, who replaced Loepp after Walsh, a right-hander, toed the alien slab, made an exceptional catch of Watwood's looper to end the eighth. He raced in almost to second to snare the apple.

Spencer sent Watwood back to the flag pole in deepest center for a looper in the eighth with Hayes on first.

WHITE SOX BAFLFED BY LISKA'S HURLING

a walk but was forced by Rice, who immediately stole second while Pitcher Weiland was holding the ball. After Goslin flied out, Cronin singled Rice home and scored a moment later on Myer's lusty triple. The Nats had men on in each of the next three frames, but did not score again until the fifth, when a three-run rally knocked Weiland out of the box and brought Walsh into action.

A third successive walk to Loepp started the Johnsons on this rampage. Rice then doubled Loepp to third and one run came over on a wild pitch. One basers by Cronin, Bluege and Hayes propelled the other two past the registering station.

Meanwhile Liska was hard pressed to hold on to his early lead in the home half of the opener. Kerr opened with a scratch safety and was doubled to third. When Jolley walked, the aisles were packed, one scoring on Reynolds' sacrifice fly. Rice made a nice peg to keep Watwood from advancing to third, but Bluege dropped the ball after the umpire had called the runner out. A good catch by Myer of Cissell's liner and Clancy's roller to Hayes helped Liska out of this hole and he then performed brilliantly until the sixth.

In the next four frames, the only Sox who saw base life were two who made the trip to first via the four-ball route. In fact, Liska would have had no trouble in the sixth had not Goslin overrun Jolley's looper, which would have been the third out, letting it go as a triple. He scored on Reynolds' single and then Liska faltered long enough to fill the bases on a pass and a hit batsman. Bluege ended the round, however, by going to short left to make a nice catch of Pinch-hitter Metzler's foul.

Myer Drives in Run in 9th.

Neither team threatened again until the final frame, when West's opening single and Rice's walk put two Nats on with none out. It looked as though these efforts would be wasted when Goslin pop-fouled to Clancy and Cronin lifted to Kerr. Myer, however, was not so easy, his single sending West home and Rice to third. An attempted double steal was then started, but Catcher Crouse faked the throw to second and trapped Rice between home and third.

In the home half Liska walked both Kamm and Crouse with one out and was within an ace of being removed here, but he took advantage of the chance given him to pull out of trouble and did so. He helped himself considerably by racing over to cover first when Hayes failed to handle Pinch Hitter Art Shires' hot bounder cleanly and then Liska put on steam to end the game by fanning Kerr.

Kress' Hit Wins Duel For Browns in Eleventh

St. Louis, Mo., June 13 (A.P.).—A single by Ralph Kress, Brownie shortstop, his first hit of the game, broke up a pitcher's duel and gave St. Louis an eleventh inning 1-to-0 victory over the Red Sox here today. It was the second win for the Browns of the series.

Cubs Conquer Phillies On Hartnett's Homers

Philadelphia, June 13 (A.P.).—The Chicago Cubs nosed out the Phillies today in a seesaw contest, 7 to 5, thus evening up the series of four games.

Gabby Hartnett, Cubs' catcher, hit home runs in the seventh and eighth innings which contributed largely to his team's triumph.

BRITISH LEAD IN WOMEN'S NET PLAY

Mrs. Moody Only U. S. Winner in Wight Cup Tennis.

By FRANK H. KING.

WIMBLEDON, England, June 18 (A.P.).—By winning only one of three matches in the first day's play for the Wightman Cup, America's National Women's Tennis Team left itself a difficult task for tomorrow if the trophy is to be taken back to the United States by Helen Wills Moody and her teammates.

It was Queen Helen, of course, who won her match in the expected manner, 6—1, 6—1, from Joan Fry. But her fellow-Californian, Helen Jacobs, lost to her English nemesis, Mrs. Phoebe Watson, at 2—6, 6—2, 6—4, and the youthful Sarah Palfrey and Edith Cross were beaten by Joan Fry and Ermyntrude Harvey of England, by exactly the same scores.

As a result, the Americans must win three of tomorrow's four matches. Mrs. Moody is considered certain to account for one of them. Miss Jacobs, meeting Miss Fry, will have a chance to atone for her defeat by Miss Watson today; and then either the 17-year-old Boston girl, Miss Palfrey, must win her match against young Phyllis Mudford, or Mrs. Moody and Miss Jacobs will have to win in doubles, a feat no American combination has been able to accomplish since 1927.

The big Wimbledon Stadium was less than half full for the start of the international matches, but rows and rows of young English schoolgirls in uniform and with pigtails down their backs made up in enthusiasm for the lack of a capacity house.

The international aspect of the encounter was ever present, for the scores were called in terms of the United States and Britain instead of the players' names, although the latter were used on the scoreboard, and Mrs. Moody was billed as Mrs. Wills Moody, as she is known to the British press. Some even insert a hyphen in the British manner.

Known to Press as Mrs. Wills Moody.

With her usual powerful assortment of strokes, particularly her sweeping drives, and wearing her eyeshade, but not wearing stockings, which was an innovation for her at Wimbledon, the world's champion quickly ran through two sets for the first and only American point of the day.

Miss Jacobs started with great speed against her tall opponent, Mrs. Watson, but it was a pace she could not hold, and after losing the first set the English woman began to cause Miss Jacobs to do a lot of running on the baseline.

With the American obviously fatigued, Mrs. Watson won the second set. Even the benefit of the "tea interval" was not sufficient for Miss Jacobs to rest up and she lost the closely contested third set.

Miss Palfrey and her San Francisco partner started the doubles with unexpected success, but the more experienced English pair, after losing the first set, focussed their combined attack upon Miss Cross and these tactics prevailed.

STOCK PRICES RISE SLIGHTLY; DULL DAY

MANY NEW LOWS SEEN

New York, June 13 (A.P.).—The stock market rallied today in the face of further declines in speculative commodities. Operators who had been selling to depress prices bought stocks back to protect profits after efforts to carry the list lower had uncovered considerable resistance.

The upturn was modest, however, and averaged only a little more than a point in 90 leading stocks, contrasting with Tuesday's 5-point advance, and seemed to reflect little except a technical adjustment. Trading turned extremely dull in the afternoon and sales in the last 50 minutes, normally the most active period of the day, totaled only 400,000 shares. The aggregate for the five hours was 2,221,900.

Passage of the tariff bill by the Senate came after the close, but that action had been generally expected and therefore probably discounted, at least for the moment. Some circles construed it as a bullish factor, pointing out that disposition of the measure one way or the other would be better than uncertainty.

Call Money at 2 Per Cent.

Were Wall stret looking to the money markets, rather than to industry, for encouraging portents, today would have been a bright spot in a dreary fortnight. Call loans renewed at 2½ per cent, the lowest since March 20 when a 2 per cent rate was posted at the Stock Exchange money desk. Time accommodations were likewise shaded. Funds were so plentiful that more than $20,000,000 offered for lending was said to have gone untaken.

Wheat was weak, dropping 2 to 2½ cents on hedge selling, the weakness of Winnipeg and bearish Minnesota State reports. Corn dropped ½ to 1 cent a bushel in sympathy with wheat. July cotton came within 10 points of yesterday's low, new crop months making new lows for the season. The general market closed at net declines of $1.15 to $1.40 a bale.

Another fraction was pared from the copper metal price by the custom smelters who, in their search for a buying level, reduced to 12 and 12¼ cents delivered.

Weekly trade reviews had little to report except further indications of the seasonal recession. Dun's said that with summer near at hand "a further deferment of expansion in most lines is indicated and receding manufacturing operations, where they appear now, are in keeping with the usual seasonal tendency." Bradstreet's found that exceptions to the generally quiet trend were most conspicuous in the iron and steel trade where orders for steel pipe and structural steel were increasing.

Telephone Touches Low.

Traders searching for soft spots in the stock list after an irregularly higher opening picked out such leaders as American Telephone, Consolidated Gas, General Electric and American Can, sending some of them to new lows for the reaction before resistance points were reached. Telephone went to another new low for the year at 214⅛. The relative steadiness of most pivotal shares, however, unnerved the bears who began a covering operation that extended through the remainder of the session.

At its height, the rally ranged from one to five points in the more active shares, and the close found American Can, American Telephone, Westinghouse Electric, Bethlehem Steel, American Tobacco "B," Eastman Kodak, U. S. Steel, Standard Oil of New Jersey, General Electric and General Motors one to four above the Thursday close. Amusement shares, in which there has been a large short interest, strengthened considerably. Cement company stocks were about the only issues responding to the expected action on the tariff. International Cement and Penn-Dixie preferred rose 5 points each and Penn-Dixie common 2, while Lehigh Portland improved by a small fraction.

The day's new lows were again numerous. They included Southern Pacific, Nickel Plate, Baltimore & Ohio, Erie, Goodrich, Fisk Rubber, Gulf States Steel, Cerro de Pasco, Woolworth and American Locomotive.

Foreign exchanges were generally firm. The Canadian dollar attained a slight premium, while the decline of the Spanish peseta was halted. Sterling Cables were up 1-16.

NEW YORK COTTON.

New York, June 13 (A.P.).—Week-end covering was supplied on moderate rallies from an early decline in cotton today and prices eased again later, with new crop months making new lows for the season under a renewal of liquidation and selling promoted by the favorable idea of crop progress, weakness in wheat, and the failure of a more active demand to develop on the bulges.

July contracts sold off to 14.31, or 37 points net lower, and within 10 points of the low level reached yesterday, while the new October contract declined to 13.38, or 28 points net lower. July closed at 14.40 and the new October at 13.41, with the general market closing barely steady at net declines of 23 to 28 points.

The opening was steady at a decline of 5 to 13 points under selling, which appeared to be inspired by a fairly favorable view of the weather reports and continued talk of a poor demand for cotton goods. The buying which steadied the market at the opening was soon supplied, with the decline extending several points, but there was a renewal of covering around 13.82 for the old October and 13.70 for the new December.

This demand became a little more active on the outlook for showers in the South with probable rain along the Atlantic and gulf coasts and new crop months just about recovered their earlier losses, with the old October selling up to 13.96, or a point above Thursday's closing quotations.

The demand soon tapered off and the market weakened again, reaching the lowest levels of the day in the late trading under a renewal of liquidation and selling which was supposed to include some pressure from the West inspired by the weakness in wheat. The old October sold off to 13.69 and closed at that figure, while new December after declining to 13.56 closed at 13.50. The closing quotation for July was 99 points over the new October, compared with 102 points at the close of yesterday.

The selling of July was again attributed chiefly to liquidation of trailing long accounts. Owing to the Whitsuntide holiday there were no cables from Liverpool to influence sentiment here either way and that market will be closed tomorrow.

Exports today, 16,098, making 6,565,269 so far this season. Port receipts, 6,049. United States port stocks, 1,703,469.

CHICAGO GRAIN.

Chicago, June 13 (A.P.).—Unsettled by drought-breaking in Canada and by auspicious harvest conditions in this country, all grain values smashed downward today. Wheat, rye and oats outdid the season's low-price records, wheat coming within ½c of touching a dollar-per-bushel level. Contributing to the weakness of grain was selling ascribed to stock market houses and resulting apparently from recent declines in prices for securities for commodities as well.

Closing quotations on wheat were nervous at ¼c to ⅜c rally from the day's bottom quotations, but 1⅞c to 2½c under yesterday's finish. Corn closed ⅜c to 1c down, oats ¾c to 1c off and provisions unchanged to a setback of 7c.

Except for one strong rally after downturns at the start, wheat showed a general downward trend throughout practically the entire day. The rally referred to was based to a great extent on reports of severe crop damage in Canada, reports which temporarily more than offset news of continued beneficial rains. In some wheat districts of Canada 20 to 25 per cent total losses were specified, notably west of Moosejaw. Helping also as a transient bullish factor were estimates that yesterday's export business in wheat from North America were larger than generally supposed, totaling between 1,500,000 and 2,500,000 bushels.

Stop loss selling, however, set in during the last half of the day, and with holders of wheat showing more and more anxiety to let go, the buying support for the market dwindled so that in the final hour about the sole demand was from previous speculative sellers. A new development was that holders of wheat future delivery contracts gave evidence of increasing fear of undue pressure from hedging sales in connection with the harvest movement Southwest. The weather Southwest was regarded as favorable for maturing of the crop as well as for cutting of the early wheat, circumstances pointing to steadily augmented movement of wheat in the next ten days or two weeks.

Corn, oats and rye gave way chiefly as a result of wheat weakness. Weather conditions for the new corn crop were auspicious, but undoing of spreads between corn and rye helped to give relative steadiness at times to the corn market.

Notwithstanding that hog values advanced, provisions weakened owing to sympathy with grain.

Curb Review

New York, June 13 (A.P.).—Shares on the Curb Market worked irregularly higher in dull trading today, after a further outburst of selling in the morning. When the selling dried up around midday, shorts hastened to cover, and the more active issues made substantial headway, recovering earlier losses, and closing a point or two higher.

Total sales were announced as 2,184,900 shares, but of this total, more than 1,200,000 was accounted for by the turnover in rights to purchase Cities Service convertible debentures. These rights, which have sold as high as $1.50, got down to 12½ cents, and closed at 25 cents. They expire on Monday, and as the stock has been depressed close to the levels at which the debentures are convertible, the rights have been heavily sold. The stock sold off fractionally to 29, and closed at 29⅜.

Public utilities closed irregularly. Electric Bond & Share, an active feature, was up more than 2 points, and United Light A 1½. American Gas and Electric sold off more than 3 points, then reduced its loss to 1 point. American and Foreign Power warrants were up 1 point net, and American Superpower unchanged. Niagara Hudson was firm.

In the industrials and specialties, Columbia Pictures was a strong feature, rising more than 6 points. This company had the rights to make the Schmeling-Sharkey fight pictures, and has arranged to take the pictures to Germany. Deere rallied 4 points, and Ford of Canada A, Anglo Chilean, and Driver Harris mounted about 2 points. A. O. Smith rose 10 in a few sales.

Most of the oils turned upward. Cosden mounted 5 points, and Humble, Gulf and Vacuum about 2. Darby, however, dropped more than 5 to a new low at 16 in a few sales.

Investment trusts were fairly steady, although Overseas Securities sagged 2 points to a new low at 12.

CARRIER AND UTILITY BONDS SCORE GAINS

Foreign and U. S. Government Sections Continue Steady Pace.

AMUSEMENT LIST EASES

New York, June 13 (A.P.).—Improvement in an extensive list of railroad and utility issues, the firmness of the foreign group and strength of United States governments were the encouraging notes in a quiet and irregular bond market today.

Despite the erratic course of the listed market which moved within narrow limits, the general tone was better by a shade as time money rates eased slightly and call money renewed at 2½ per cent for the first time since March 20.

Railroad and amusement convertibles rallied with stocks, but others of the group sold off. The German annuities issue was again the feature of the foreign group which was firm. The German 5½s, selling on a when-issued basis, failed to retain the high level established yesterday, selling off ⅛ at the close, but the turnover was about $750,000. Other portions of the loan were offered in England, France, Germany and Sweden today with over-subscriptions in each country.

Rail Issues in Demand.

Both prime and secondary railroads were in demand today. St. Paul adjustment 5s, Erie 5s, Erie and Jersey 6s, Louisville & Nashville 4½s, Pennsylvania 4s and 4¾s, and Reading general 4½s gained from ¼ to ½ point. Atchison 4s lost 1⅛. Seaboard-All Florida 6s dropped nearly 2 points to a new low, and Southern Railway 4s, San Francisco 4½s and Baltimore & Ohio 5s lost ground.

Moderate interest was displayed in the utility section and some improvement resulted, with American Telephone 5s, Consolidated Gas 5½s, Philadelphia Electric 4½s, Postal Telegraph 5s and New York Telephone issues showing a higher trend. The improvement in International Match 5s, which gained nearly a point, was a feature of industrials. Trading in oil company issues broadened. Transcontinental Oil 3½s gained a full point. Amusement bonds eased.

Features in Foreign List.

Argentine, Belgian, Brazilian, Colombian, Uruguayan and Finnish bonds were active and firm. A large turnover in Seine Department 7s depressed the price slightly. Brisbane City 5s moved up 1½ points and Buenos Aires 5s, 2.

Liberty fourth 4¼s and Liberty 3½s were at new high levels for the year, with the United States Governments strong. Treasury 4s moved up a quarter of a point.

The City of Philadelphia is planning to offer $15,000,000 50-year 4 per cent or 4¼ per cent bonds and will receive bids until July 7.

RETAIL CREDIT MEN LEAVE FOR TORONTO

Party at Convention to Try to Get 1930 Event to Come to Capital.

OIL INDUSTRY ANALYSIS

By THOMAS M. CAHILL.

A delegation from the Associated Retail Credit Men of Washington, D. C., Inc., will leave the city tomorrow over the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad for the nineteenth annual convention of the National Retail Credit Association at Toronto, June 17 to 20, at which it will endeavor to secure the 1931 convention for Washington.

The party includes S. H. Talkes, secretary-treasurer of the local association; Harry V. Ostermayer, credit manager Woodward & Lothrop; Charles M. Keefer, credit manager, S. Kann Sons Co.; John W. Tallentire, credit manager the Hecht Co.; J. E. Tenly, credit manager Potomac Electric Power Co., and Mrs. Tenly; Miss Elsie M. Lee, credit manager Jelleff's; Mrs. Lorraine Radel, credit manager Goldenberg's, and Dr. and Mrs. Joseph J. McCarthy.

General Baking Corporation, which has a plant here, has declared a dividend of 75 cents a share on its $6 cumulative preferred stock, payable July 1 to stock of record June 19. This is the same dividend that was declared three months ago, at which time the dividend was reduced to 75 cents from $1.50.

$2 Dividend Also Declared.

General Baking Co., the operating subsidiary of General Baking Corporation, also has declared the regular quarterly dividend of $2 a share on its $8 cumulative preferred stock, payable June 30 to stock of record June 21.

Has the oil industry reached the stage where further capital expenditures can not produce additional commensurate returns? J. Elmer Thomas, petroleum analyst for Fenner & Beane, members of the New York Stock Exchange, with local offices, thinks it has. In an article appearing in the current number of World Petroleum, published in London and New York, Mr. Thomas collaborates with Frederick S. Todman, New York economist, to give a general analysis of the present oil industry.

"Not only will greater capital expenditure fail to produce commensurate returns in the future, but it will also tend to reduce the current rate of return from present investments," says this article, which is entitled, "The Law of Diminishing Returns."

U. S. Savings Bank Dividend.

Directors of the United States Savings Bank have just declared their regular quarterly dividend of 7½ per cent, payable June 30.

Prince & Whitely, with local offices, members of the New York Stock Exchange, have prepared an analysis of Northern Pacific Railway.

Directors of the G. C. Murphy Co. have declared the regular quarterly dividend of $2 a share on the preferred stock payable July 2, to stockholders of record June 21, 1930.

Vice President James Trimble, of the National Bank of Washington, has returned from a vacation trip through Virginia, North Carolina and other parts of the South.

Recent declaration of the quarterly dividend of $1 per share by the Capital Traction Co. led to sale of its stock ex-dividend on the Washington Stock Exchange yesterday, the present 6 per cent yearly rate being retained.

WALL STREET BRIEFS

New York, June 13 (A.P.).—Commercial failures this week totaled 489, an increase of 4 over the figures for last week and 63 more than the 426 defaults reported a year ago, R. G. Dun & Co. reports. Despite the larger number of insolvencies reported this week, those having liabilities of more than $5,000 decreased to 278, compared with 304 last week. Such defaults a year ago numbered 261.

Data compiled by the New York Coffee and Sugar Exchange show stocks of coffee in the United States June 1 totaled 790,206 bags, compared with 850,592 bags May 1 and 682,916 bags June 1 last year. Receipts of all coffees in the United States in May totaled 895,243 bags, compared with 977,295 bags in April.

Jerome Lewine, stock broker, has just returned from Europe with what his friends believe a record for long-distance market operations. En route between Hamburg and Berlin by train, he telephoned his Berlin office for a quotation on a certain stock listed in the New York Stock Exchange. He received the quotation, telephoned back an order, which was cabled to his New York office, executed on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange, reported back to Berlin by cable and confirmation telephoned to Mr. Lewine, all within 49 minutes and while his train was speeding at 50 miles an hour toward Berlin.

Total new business of all classes written by 44 member companies of the Association of Life Insurance presidents during May, amounted to $1,097,740,000, a decrease of 4.7 per cent from the total of $1,125,026,000 for May last year, the association reports. New ordinary insurance amounted to $776,394,000 last month, compared with $801,698,000 for the same month last year. Industrial insurance totaled $230,083,000 last month, compared with $240,501,000 in May 1929. For the first five months this year, total new business of 44 companies was $5,512,771,000, an increase of 1.3 per cent over $5,441,616,000 for the like period last year.

The Caterpillar Tractor Co., has granted the Bates Manufacturing Co., a license to manufacture track type tractors under Caterpillar patents. As a result of the agreement, a suit brought recently by the Caterpillar Co., against a San Francisco dealer for infringement of a group of patents relating to track type tractors has been dismissed.

Plans for a merger of the Pacific Trust Co., into the Manufacturers Trust Co., have been approved by directors. The merger will be effected without capital increase by manufacturers and will be on a cash basis.

Dun's review tomorrow will say: "The main point of interest, in the absence of decisive new commercial trends, has been the recurrence of conspicuous unsettlement in speculative channels. Confusion and uncertainty over the general situation have led to hesitation in many instances, but a period of inertia in the stock market has been succeeded by comparative activity and sharply fluctuating prices. The basis for that movement was not to be found in any important change in the status of trade, although the continued lack of a broad and impressive revival has unfavorably affected sentiment in quarters where the time element in economic readjustment had not been fully allowed for. With summer near at hand, a further deferment of expansion in most lines is indicated, and receding manufacturing operations, where they appear now, are in keeping with the usual seasonal tendency. Naturally, restrictive influences are intensified in the present era of transition, with the persistent decline of commodity prices still being one of the principal restraining forces."

Universal Pipe & Radiotor Co. reported a net loss of $114,021 for the first quarter, compared with a net profit of $10,622 for the first quarter last year.

L. A. Miller, president of the Willys-Overland Co., told a meeting of foreign sales directors that he estimated the company will make a small net profit for the first six months of this year. He said that about 9,000 employes are working four days a week in the Toledo plant.

Cotton goods markets were again quiet today, with an easy tendency on some gray goods priced on the downward movement of raw cotton. Fine gray goods markets were slow with some trading in rayon fabrics. Burlap markets were unchanged to firmer. Calcutta mills agreed to curtail to 54 hours weekly for eighteen months starting July 1, with one week's complete shutdown during the year, according to trade cables. Raw silk buying was more active following revision of prices by Japanese holders of spot stocks to a basis of 920 yen.

Henry S. Bowers, of Goldman Sachs & Co., has been elected a director of the Long Bell Lumber Corporation, succeeding Waddill Catchings, resigned.

The cotton market has been unsettled during the past week with prices declining under liquidation of July long accounts and selling of new crop positions based upon a favorable view of the crop's progress and unfavorable trade reports. The liquidation of July, according to local brokers, has been for scattering long accounts and it does not seem to be generally believed that there has been any reduction in the holdings of the cotton cooperatives. The July short interest, however, has shown no signs of uneasiness as the buying has been chiefly on declines or on scale-down orders, and the opinion is expressed in some quarters of the trade here that the trade short interest in July is probably pretty well protected by cotton which is or may become available for delivery before the end of next month.

The Fox Film Corp., for the weeks ended April 26, reported net earnings of $5,722,000 before interest and taxes, against $3,904,000 for the like period last year. The recent net was figured after writing off $6,966,000 on negative and positive film of the year 1930, against $4,765,000 written off last year.

BRITISH MOBILIZING FOR BOMBAY CRISIS

Troops Brought Into City as Defiance of Government Causes Deep Concern.

NATIVES POST PICKETS

Bombay, India, June 13 (A.P.).—Massing of troops here began today when it became evident that events in the Mahatma Gandhi civil resistance campaign were working rapidly up to a great crisis.

The Bombay government this evening announced that a battalion of Mahrattas were being summoned from Poona, 500 strong, and other detachments of troops from other quarters in a mobilization that would enable the local authorities to cope successfully with the increasing seriousness of Congress demonstrations.

The announcement indicated that the authorities were determined not to have a repetition of yesterday's disorders when 25,000 demonstrators violated the antiassembly act and held a meeting after the police discreetly withdrew.

Open Defiance Met.

Open defiance of Viceroy Lord Irwin's taxation, picketing and other ordinances, leading items in the disobedience program, led the government to order immediate steps for their strict enforcement.

Events of the week-end were awaited in Bombay with keen concern.

The bombing of the Haji of Tourangzai's mountain forces of Afghan tribesmen continued on the northwest frontier.

Considerable tension existed between the Hindus and Moslems in various districts of Bengal.

M. Jannah, independent assembly leader, has arrived at Simla and will interview the viceroy tomorrow of the political situation.

An entire absence of reports of disorders in India was the outstanding encouragement of the day's news.

Mill Pickets Placed.

Pursuing a campaign of large-scale defiance of the picketing ordinance, the Bombay congress committee with 2,000 picketers in reserve, tonight began its tours in the mill area, the northern part of the city.

About 250 volunteers were posted at 120 foreign and Indian liquor shops with orders to prostrate themselves in front of all customers who did not heed their requests not to enter.

The volunteers did not have to carry out their intent often, because the mill workers kept away from the shops.

It was stated tonight that eleven persons now are known to have been killed in a riot Wednesday in Khaira Village, when the police opened fire on a mob.

Chancellor Carusi Speaks To National U. Graduates

Degree Winners Told to Regain Leadership in Government Legislation and Social Reform for Legal Profession.

The legal profession was urged to regain its lost leadership in Government legislation and social reform by Dr. Charles F. Carusi, chancellor of National University, last night in the principal address at the graduation exercises of the institution at Continental Hall.

Following the opening of the commencement with the convocation by the Rev. George C. Culbertson, associate pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Dr. Carusi conferred an honorary doctor of laws degree on Edwin Jay Prindle, New York patent law attorney.

Other high degrees were awarded as follows: Doctor of civil law, Lee Mohundre and Thomas Joseph MacKavanagh; doctor of juridical science, Arthur E Cook, Joseph Teh-Hsin Lee, Yuen-li Liang, Peter H. Rognley and Francis E. Teeling; doctor of jurisprudence, Alice Loman Rhine and Oscar S. Wilkinson.

Justice Frederick L. Siddons, of the District Supreme Court, introduced the speaker and Justice Jennings Bailey, also of the law faculty, delivered the following prizes after the valedictory by Stacy Mark Reed:

University Medal, Elizabeth K. Prender; McArthur Medal, Stacy M. Reed; Hurst Medal, Ugo J. A. Carusi; Eugene Carusi Medal, Macy M. Bigos; Emma Deal Denton Medal, Charles L. Curtiss, and various awards for excellence in examinations, Theodore Edelsehem, Louis Mann, C. Chester Puy, Reuben Goldberg. Lloyd G. Andrews, a junior, received the faculty prize.

Golden scholarship keys were awarded to Dewey L. Shepherd, Zoda V. Greemlee, Louis H. Mann and Karl M. Foust.

The graduates came from 37 States and five foreign countries. More than 30 women won degrees, the largest class in the history of the university.

Besides the higher degrees, the following customary degrees were bestowed:

ADVICE ON INVESTMENTS

By CHARLES W. STORM.

In making inquiries address Charles W. Storm, financial department of The Washington Post, and inclose a self-addressed stamped envelope for reply.

Transamerica Corp., and Others.

A. B. J.—I request your opinion of the rating of Transamerica Corporation, Chase National Bank and Detroit Canada Tunnel Co. Are Pilot Radio and Tube "A" and Utilities Power "A" good stocks?

Answer—Transamerica stock is well regarded as a speculative investment. Company is a large holder of various bank stocks. Net earnings for 1929 were $80,960,092, before depreciation, taxes and special compensation for employes of companies consolidated. On March 26 last, directors declared an extra stock dividend of 3 per cent, besides regular quarterly dividend of 40 cents per share. Since merger with Equitable Trust Co. and Interstate Trust Co., both of New York, Chase National Bank takes rank as the largest bank in the world. In consequence, its stock carries a very high rating, even though the investment return on it at present is small. Detroit & Canada Tunnel stock is looked upon as being highly speculative, as at latest accounts the tunnel being constructed under the Detroit River was only 50 per cent completed. Both Pilot Radio and Tube "A" and Utilities Power & Light "A" are well thought of from a speculative investment viewpoint and both appear to have considerable promise.

Kelvinator Corporation.

H. T. R.—Can you give me some idea of the progress of Kelvinator Corporation and the outlook for the stock?

Answer—Kelvinator shipments in March were the largest since the company was formed. April shipments exceeded the March record and those during May were larger than for March and April—a three months' progressive increase. The gain for May over May, 1929, was 36 per cent, making it the blue ribbon month. Domestic sales last month eclipsed all expectations. Demand is growing for the Kelvinator ice cream cabinet, commercial equipment for stores, water cooling equipment for office and factory, accompanied by a large increase in export business.

As a result of advance orders for Kelvinator plants have been in regular production continuously for the last nine months, and earnings for the first six months of 1930 are estimated in conservative quarters at $3 per share, making the stock attractive from a speculative standpoint.

Davison Chemical.

G. R. E.—I have been attracted to Davison Chemical by its low price and am thinking of buying some of it although knowing that directors have not yet resumed dividends.

Answer—Earnings have benefited considerably as a result of the management's wisdom in converting the business from that of a bulk producer to one of the largest distributors of mixed fertilizer in the country. If you are willing to wait until directors take action on the dividend it would not appear to be an unprofitable plan as earnings for 1929 equaled $3.34 a share on the common stock, showing considerable expansion over profits for the preceding eighteen months period.

Aside from its increasing domestic business, orders received from abroad have been on a rising scale through connections with the Rothschilds, of London, and interests in Germany. Davison appears to have attractive possibilities for over the long term.

JUNE CIRCUIT COURT TERM TO BE SHORT

Only Five Cases Due to Be Presented to Arlington Grand Jury.

FIRE CARNIVAL TO OPEN

BUREAU OF THE POST.
Tel. Clar. 509. Clarendon, Va.

The June term of the Circuit Court of Arlington County will convene Monday morning at 10 o'clock with Judge Walter T. McCarthy on the bench.

The special grand jury which will sit with the opening of the term will be composed of Henry Parker, Francis Comley, A. B. Creed, John Deuterman, Elmer Ewald, Keith A. Brumback, Walter O'Hara, R. Lee Orrison and P. W. Luckett.

According to the Commonwealth attorney's office there are but five cases to be presented to the grand jury and this will be one of the shortest terms of the circuit court in many months.

No papers had been drawn in the case of Private Howard L. Brewster to be presented to the grand jury up to last night, and Commonwealth's Attorney William C. Gloth made no statement as to whether he will present the case to the grand jury at present. The impression about the courthouse is that the case will not come up at this term.

According to an announcement made last night by Resident State Highway Engineer Robert I. Mount, the Washington-Richmond Highway, which has been closed to traffic for the past two months from the Highway Bridge to the county line at Four Mile Run, will be opened to traffic this morning.

The highway, from a point opposite the Southern Oxygen Plant, located in South Washington and extending to the county line at Four Mile Run, has been widened from 18 to 30 feet.

The work was done by John H. Olcott, contractor, of Arlington County, under supervision of the State highway department.

Monday night the joint committee from the Parent-Teacher Association and civic organizations which supported the bond issue for additions to the several county school buildings, will meet in the Home Service rooms of the Rosslyn Gas Co., at Clarendon, to consider the advisability of continuing to cooperate with the county school board during the construction program.

With the view of establishing in Arlington County a church of Lutheran faith a special service is announced for tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. The services will be held in Clarendon Theater, conducted by the Rev. Gerhard E. Lenski, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, Sixteenth and Varnum streets, Washington.

A survey of the county has been made and it is stated that it shows there are more than 1,400 members of the Lutheran faith, who are either attending churches in Washington or none at all.

The Rev. G. E. Lenski will be assisted in the movement by the Rev. Mr. Meuser, and the Rev. R. G. Steinmeyer, both of Washington.

Following the services tomorrow night there will be a short business meeting.

Among those in the county who are active in the movement are: H. Bruce Green, H. B. Mitchell, O. Robert Howell and Mrs. Claude B. Withauer.

The question of having the judge of the Circuit Court appoint a board of tax equalization for Arlington County will be one of the many matters which will be considered by the county board of supervisors at its meeting today.

According to Supervisor B. M. Hedrick, the question of a board of reassessment is also being considered, but this may not be taken up at the meeting today.

Miss Isabel Latimer, supervisor in charge of the week-day school religious education, yesterday gave out the following list of pupils from the Patrick Henry and Clarendon schools who have received certificates for having completed the sixth grade course:

From Patrick Henry School—Martin Ball, Dorothy Butler, Sallie Chewning, Paul Darcey, Elizabeth Fuller, Frank King, Dorothy Plaugher, Hilda Powers, Ruth Simonton, Betty Smith, and Edward Starr. From Clarendon School—Anne Ames, Vermyra Anderson, Joseph Cannon, William Clarkson, Margaret Corder, Beulah Conner, William Crosson, Albert D'Anton, Thelma Marstellar, Jeanette Mayer, Ella McIntosh and Merwyn McKnight.

There will be a special meeting of the Arlington District Library Association held Monday night in the library rooms at Clarendon. The meeting has been called at 7:30 p. m. and all members of the association are requested to be present.

Much encouraged with progress being made in the securing of rights of way for the 200-foot Lee Boulevard, Dr. Samuel M. Johnson, president of the National Boulevard Association, yesterday stated that all needed rights of way are now well in sight and after four years of hard work success is in sight.

"With the completion of the Memorial Bridge and this boulevard constructed across the county by the State there will begin, I am most confident, one of the biggest building booms the county has ever seen, as good roads are most necessary if home building is expected," Dr. Johnson said.

The Ballston Volunteer Fire Department opens its sixteenth annual carnival tonight, to continue throughout next week, on the field fronting the Wilson boulevard at the intersection of Clements avenue.

J. R. Malloch, general chairman in charge of arrangements, is being assisted by a committee from the ladies' auxiliary.

Many special attractions are announced for each night, with dancing to start at 9:30 each evening.

The proceeds will go to the maintenance fund of the department.

Plans for the joint outing to Orkney Springs by the Chambers of Commerce from Alexandria City and Arlington and Fairfax Counties were formulated at a special meeting of the committee held last night in the rooms of the local chamber at Clarendon.

Members of the committee in charge of arrangements are George Whitton, from Alexandria; Thurlow White, Fairfax County, and Guy N. Church, Arlington County.

The outing is planned for the week-end of June 21.

Baltimore Politician Dies.

Baltimore, June 13 (A.P.).—Daniel J. Loden, 60, for decades a Democratic political figure, died here today. He was a former police judge and head of the party city committee.

Game Commission Meeting Dates Set

Virginia Board to Discuss Problems of Regional Interest.

Richmond, Va., June 13 (A.P.).—Three meetings of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries have been called by Maj. A. Willis Robertson, Lexington, chairman, for consideration of problems of regional interest arising out of fish and game law enforcement.

The commission will meet at Charlottesville on June 27, and residents of that section of the State are invited to attend.

A session will be held at Lynchburg on a date in July yet to be named, to make plans for restocking fishing streams in the Natural Bridge Forest area.

In August the commission will meet in Princess Anne County with its primary purpose the consideration of regulations to prohibit seining of bass from Back Bay and subsequent sales.

LIGHT PEACH, APPLE CROPS IN PROSPECT

Spring Frost, Freezes and Droughts Have Hurt Virginia Orchards.

PEAR OUTPUT HARD HIT

Richmond, Va., June 13 (A.P.).—Fruit prospects in Virginia this season are for a crop of apples somewhat less than last year and peach and pear crops unusually short, says the June report of the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service made public today by John A. Hicks, statistician.

Spring frost and freezes did more damage than was revealed earlier in the season, and young fruit has suffered further from the prolonged drought, the report asserts.

The condition of apples was irregular in individual orchards as well as in various sections of the State, some trees in the same orchard having a good set of fruit while others were light. Likewise, some well-located orchards had a good crop prospect and in the same section others less favorably located had little or no fruit. The June 1 condition of apples for the State was reported as 34 per cent of normal, compared with 57 per cent on June 1 last year and 51 per cent average for the previous ten years.

Percentage of Expectation.

"From present indications," the report declared, "it seems probable that the movement this season will fall between twelve and fourteen thousand cars."

The percentage of a full crop expectation compared with the final production last year was fixed in the report as follows:

North Valley, this year, 39; last year, 50. South Valley, this year, 31; last year, 67. North Piedmont, 43, 44; Piedmont, 32, 50; Roanoke 38, 54; Patrick, 26, 48; the Southwest, 16, 41. The percentage of a full crop by varieties was estimated as follows: Yorks, 35; Winesaps, 36; Ben Davis, 39; Stayman, 38; Pippins, 38; Black Twig, 27; Delicious, 28; Grimes Golden, 40; Jonathan, 59; Bonum, 57.

The condition of apples for the country as a whole was reported on June 1 at 56 per cent of normal, compared with 66.6 per cent last year on June 1, and a ten-year average of 68.3 per cent.

Poor Peach Crop Outlook.

Prospects for the Virginia peach crop were reported to be the poorest since 1921, when the crop was almost an entire failure. The condition was reported at 15 per cent of a full crop expectation, compared with 75 per cent on June 1 last year and 48 per cent, the ten-year average. The June 1 forecast was for 160,000 bushels, compared with 928,000 bushels produced last year and a five-year average of 864,000 bushels.

The June 1 condition of peaches for the entire country was reported at 47 per cent of normal, compared with 54.7 per cent on June 1 last year and 66.1 per cent for the ten-year average. The condition reported was the lowest for the first of June since the very poor year of 1921.

On the condition reported, an estimate of 45,443,000 bushels was forecast, which is about 1 per cent less than the light 1929 crop and about four-fifths of the average production during the previous five years.

Normal School Plans Rites at Frostburg

Special to The Washington Post.

Frostburg, Md., June 13.—The twenty-seventh annual commencement of Frostburg State Normal School will be held on the campus next Monday morning when the address to the graduates will be delivered by Dr. Jesse H. White, of the University of Pittsburgh. The class of 1930 will be received into the teaching profession by Dr. Albert S. Cook, State superintendent of schools, Towson. Principal John L. Dunkle will preside.

The alumni banquet was held tonight, followed by the annual senior play in the auditorium. Tomorrow the junior prom will feature and on Sunday the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by the Rev. William A. Eisenberger, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, of Cumberland.

Chorus Girl Wins Court Annulment

Mrs. A. K. J. Mitchell Says She Married Marine Officer on Dare.

New York, June 13 (A.P.).—Mrs. Alice K. Jefferson Mitchell, a Broadway chorus girl, who said she was married to a lieutenant of marines at Annapolis after a dinner party, was granted an annulment today.

She said that on June 24, 1928, while visiting her mother at Annapolis, she attended a party at which Lieut. Bruce Mitchell was the guest of honor. She and the marine officer were the only unmarried persons present and she said that after a few drinks were served it was suggested that they get married.

They drove to Ellicott City, Md., and were married, the officer giving his first name as John and her occupation being recorded as stenographer. Then, she said, the lieutenant took her immediately back to her mother's home and she did not see him again until July, when they discussed getting an annulment. Lieut. Mitchell is from Texas.

Two firemen were slightly hurt yesterday morning when fighting a fire of undetermined origin, which destroyed the garage owned and operated by W. H. Hurst, on Duke street road, just west of Telegraph Road. George Stone was partially covered by debris from falling walls, but received only minor bruises, although in danger of suffocation; and Poly Young was burned about the hands, requiring hospital treatment.

The damage is estimated at about $8,800, and the owner carried insurance in the sum of $4,000.

The funeral of Mrs. Helen Walters Tomlin, wife of J. Robert Tomlin, who died in New York on Wednesday, will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon from the residence of her brother-in-law, Charles E. Tomlin, 101 West Linden street, Rosement, and burial will be in Ivy Hill Cemetery.

Fifty firemen of the Alexandria Fire Department, under the leadership of Chief James M. Duncan, jr., participated in the parade in Baltimore yesterday held in connection with the Maryland State Firemen's Convention.

George Young, Negro, was before police court yesterday morning and held for a lunacy commission, as Policemen Elmore and Suthard had found him strolling leisurely up King street hill near the seminary, late Thursday night, without clothing, but with his wearing apparel in a bundle which he carried. The policemen bundled the man up in his clothing while conveying him to headquarters.

Miss Katherine R. Brotholomew and Howard A. Banthem, both giving Baltimore as their place of residence, procured the only marriage license issued by Elliott F. Hoffman, clerk of the corporation court, on Friday, June 13, and were married by the Rev. Pierce S. Ellis, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Two New Schools Planned.

Lynchburg, Va., June 13 (Special). Campbell County school board has let contracts to W. L. Brown, of Appomattox, for construction of a 10-room school near Fairview Heights to cost 43,400 and Forest Hills, of six rooms, at $21,700. Both are in the suburbs of Lynchburg and are designed to take care of children in the city schools until January 1 next as a part of the 1926 annexation plan.

Daily O'Currences

By JOHN DALY

"YOUR dreams are getting more fantastic than ever if that's what you dreamed, Luella——"

She looked at me, sad-eyed: "That's what I dreamed," she affirmed, and pondered.

There was here a study of psychology. Luella wanted to know what influenced her dream-power. It was what might be called a composite dream, wherein Luella dreamed something having to do with me and something concerned with her own department. Golf and cooking were the contributing influences, as I saw it.

"How could your golf have anything to do with my dream" she asked.

That's a good laugh there, of course, knowing my golf. My golf could influence more than dreams. Once it came near perpetrating a murder. However, I tried to expound to Luella just how she came by her strange, almost weird dream. She must have been watching me at the tee.

"Once you get on a course," said Luella, "I forget all about you. When we were on our honeymoon, and played a round at Colorado Springs, that was different. These days——"

"Oh, I see. Marriage has done that to you, eh?"

"No, golf did that," she said, and blushed.

WELL, I guess some of us ought to give up the game entirely.

We sat still for a while, Luella undoubtedly thinking of her dream and I of my game. It gets worse every day. There ought to be a law.

Sitting there in the sun, sipping a nice cool glass of lemonade—or is it a glass of cool lemonade?—I finally figured out how Luella came to have such a funny dream.

"How?" she asked.

* * * *

IT SEEMED like ancient history, in a way, but I recalled the first breakfast she ever cooked, a simple little affair with soft-boiled eggs as the most difficult part of the culinary art. They came out hard, and Luella worried. It took her a year to get them with any degree of finesse, but she finally succeeded—and breakfasts now are just a matter of routine.

"You remember that? Don't you, Luella?"

She got mad, recalling those cooking lessons she took. So mad did she get that finally she arose and went into the house.

"It was nothing of the kind," she snapped over her shoulder, "if anything, 'twas your terrible drives on a golf course."

And maybe she's right. Maybe that does account for her dream of playing golf with hard-boiled eggs.

Allen Is Calmed By Jail Sentence

Advises Wife Not to Try to Secure Release of Contempt Count.

Two days in jail have transformed Robert J. Allen, former stormy petrel of the Washington police force, into an apparently meek and mild individual, it was revealed at the Arlington County Jail yesterday, where Allen has been sentenced to serve a term of ten days on a contempt of court charge.

Allen was visited last night by his wife. "Hullo Bob," said Mrs. Allen. "Hullo dear," responded the former policeman in an abject tone. Asked by his wife if he wanted to fight for freedom, Allen is quoted by jailers as having said: "No, don't make any attempt to get me out on bond or ask for an appeal. No court will give me less than I've been given. I better serve my ten days." And, then, as an afterthought: "But do get busy and get the money to pay my two fines."

Allen was fined $20 in the contempt case for calling Commonwealth Attorney William C. Gloth "a lying fat polecat." The other fine was $19.25 given on a charge of driving a car in Virginia with District tags.

$22,500 Award Upheld In Trolley-Auto Crash

Special to The Washington Post.

Cumberland, Md., June 13.—The Court of Appeals of Maryland today confirmed the judgment of the Circuit Court of Montgomery County for $22,500 in favor of Dr. James T. Johnson, sr., this city, for alleged personal injuries inflicted when the motor car of Dr. Johnson and a freight car of the Potomac Edison Co. collided in Frederick several months ago.

The case had been removed to Rockville. The judgment was by a divided court.

18 Gold Star Mothers Of Baltimore to Sail

Baltimore, Md., June 13 (A.P.).—Eighteen Gold Star Mothers and World War Widows today set out from Baltimore for New York, whence they will sail tomorrow on their pilgrimage to the graves of their loved ones on the battle fields of France.

Maryland veterans organizations and city officials gave them a reception and a police escort accompanied them to the railroad station. Col. Harry C. Jones pointed out in an address that some 1800 Marylanders failed to come home from France.

Tornado Strikes Near Strasburg

$5,500 Damage Wrought by Storm at Barrel Factory.

Special to The Washington Post.

Strasburg, Va., June 13.—A tornado swept through a portion of the Shenandoah Valley yesterday and destroyed a barrel factory at the Universal Gypsum & Lime plant about 3 miles northeast of Strasburg on the Oranda road. The windstorm came without warning in the midst of a gentle rain.

Damage was estimated at $4,000, uncovered by insurance, on the building and $1,500 on the machinery. A new building will be erected to replace the wreckage.

S. E. Stickley, manager of the plant, and his daughter, Miss Ruby Stickley, were in an office just a few feet away when the factory fell. Workmen were in other parts of the plant.

Father of Army Officer in Capital to Be Buried Tomorrow.

Special to The Washington Post.

Leesburg, Va., June 13.—William H. Johnson, 82 years old, a native of Leesburg and well known in this section, died this morning at his home here after an illness of two weeks.

He was the son of the late Peter W. and Annie S. Johnson and had married twice, both wives being dead. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

He is survived by three children by his first marriage, Maj. Robert Burke Johnson and Mrs. Burke Smith, of Washington, and Mrs. Brownie Titus, of Leesburg, and two children by his second marriage, including William H. Johnson, jr., and Blanche S. Johnson, both of Leesburg.

Funeral services will be conducted at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Leesburg Presbyterian Church by the Rev. W. J. King, of Belle Haven, Va., assisted by the Rev. Sharon Montgomery, of Leesburg, with interment in the cemetery here.

$1,500,000 Legacy Inherited by Boy, 8

Sidney L. Shannon, Jr., of Fredericksburg, Named in Aunt's Will.

Special to The Washington Post.

Fredericksburg, Va., June 13.—Sidney L. Shannon, jr., 8-year-old boy of Fredericksburg and Richmond, is the sole heir to the $1,500,000 estate of his aunt, Sarah W. Warden, appraisal of which was filed in corporation court here today.

The appraisers listed a total value of $1,558,143.56, consisting entirely of high-grade stocks and bonds. Miss Warden died last July, leaving the Shannon boy as her only heir at law. The boy also received a large inheritance upon the death of his mother, the former Grace Warden, a sister of Sarah Warden.

Culpeper 4-H Club Holds Beach Picnic

Special to The Washington Post.

Culpeper, Va., June 13.—The second annual picnic of the 4-H Club of Culpeper County was held today at Belvedere Beach, a few miles below Fredericksburg on the Potomac and was attended by 135 4-H Club members and their parents.

The party left Culpeper shortly after 9 oclock this morning, arriving at the beach in time for an early luncheon. In the afternoon the party indulged in beach sports and late in the evening Gordon Elcon, State 4-H Club agent, spoke to them about the progress that the 4-H Clubs had made in the State.

Wealthy Harrisonburg Man Dies From Stroke

Special to The Washington Post.

Harrisonburg, Va., June 13.—George G. Grattan, jr., one of the best known financiers of the valley, died last midnight from the effects of a stroke of paralysis which he suffered five years ago. He was 55 years old and a native of Rockingham County. His father was the late Judge George Gilmer Grattan, of the Rockingham County Court.

George Grattan was a member of the board of directors of the Rockingham National Bank and one of the organizers and a director of the Potomac Land Bank. He was one of the wealthiest citizens of Harrisonburg, and a large land owner.

COUNTY DEMOCRATS SELECT CANDIDATES

Hilton Indorsed for State Senate at Montgomery Mass Meeting.

500 ATTEND GATHERING

With the naming of the Democratic organization candidates at a largely attended and enthusiastic rally of workers last night in the Seco Theater at Silver Spring, Montgomery County's political pot, which has been simmering for months began to boil merrily.

Nearly 500 persons were seated in the theater when Maj. E. Brooke Lee, county Democratic leader, called the meeting to order. Maj. Lee presided and announced the speakers.

Outstanding in interest was the announcement that Robert G. Hilton, president of the Farmers Banking & Trust Co. of Rockville, a member of the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission and for many years chairman of the Democratic State central committee for Montgomery County, had been indorsed by the organization for State senator, to fill the vacancy caused by the expiration of the term of Dr. Eugene Jones, of Kensington. Dr. Jones recently bolted the organization and is expected to be the antiorganization candidate for State senator.

Considered Strong Candidate.

Although it had been rumored and announced, and denied, and then rumored again, that Mr. Hilton would be the organization candidate, this is the first time he has definitely admitted his candidacy. He is considered the strongest candidate the party can produce by reason of his long political record and his wide knowledge of the county and the county's needs.

In accepting the indorsement, Mr. Hilton declared that he is proud to go before the voters of the county as the organization candidate. "I am not one of those who believe that the campaign of untrue charges and bitter hatred with which Democratic antis have been attempting to fool the people of Montgomery County will be any more effective than their efforts have been in the past, when all of their candidates have been defeated by the voters of the county," he declared. "On the contrary I find the voters of the upper and central county satisfied with the record of their county government and particularly with road improvements and school administration."

Pledges Progress Platform.

Mr. Hilton declared that he believed that the organization would carry all of the election districts north and west of Rockville and that he felt equal confidence in the suburban areas. He pledged himself if elected to "continue the progressive record of the present county administration and to particularly continue the fair allocation of public improvements between the various sections of the county which has prevailed in recent years." He further explained that no undue taxation will follow the proposed park program in the lower end of the county but that the benefits to be derived will far exceed the cost.

Dr. Benjamin C. Perry, president of the board of county commissioners, declared that he was unable to say at this time whether or not his health will permit him to again be a candidate for county commissioner. The doctor recently suffered a breakdown which necessitated his taking a vacation of several weeks. He was indorsed, however, by the meeting.

Shaw Confident of Result.

County Commissioner Lacy Shaw, of the Colesville-Silver Spring-Tokoma Park district, said:

"I have carefully canvassed Colesville and Silver Spring election districts and am certain that voters will give organization candidates the largest majorities they have ever received in these precincts in both the general and primary elections. I am confident that we have earned the support of the people and that we will be voted safe majorities in the approaching election."

Other candidates and prominent political leaders addressed the meeting.

The organization ticket as announced and indorsed by the meeting follows:

Robert G. Hilton for State auditor; Preston B. Ray for clerk of the circuit court; Perrie E. Waters for register of wills; Stedman Prescott for State's attorney; J. Forest Walker for county treasurer; Richard H. Lansdale for sheriff; George L. Edmonds for House of Delegates; Benjamin C. Perry, Clagett C. Hilton, Sherwood Duvall, Downey M. Williams, John B. Diamond, jr., Frank Ricketts and Lacy Show for county commissioners; P. Hicks Ray, Harry J. Hunt 3d and Joseph Higgins for judges of the orphans court.

The largest number of instruments filed in one day in the history of the circuit court at Rockville were filed Thursday in the office of Preston B. Ray, clerk of the circuit court, it was discovered yesterday when an accurate count had been made. There were 206 papers filed.

The Rev. W. C. Royal, Frederick Baptist minister, made the address at graduation exercises held last night at the Poolesville High School. The diplomas were awarded by Mrs. Julian Waters, of the board of education.

Winchester School Honors Benefactor

Special to The Washington Post.

Winchester, Va., June 13.—One of the final acts of the senior class of Handley High School today was the unveiling of a bronze tablet in the High School Building to the memory of the late Mr. and Mrs. S. Lucian Lupton, through whose generosity the Lupton chair of horticulture was established and maintained at the local institution. Members of the city school board attended in a body.

The tablet was the gift of the school board. In their wills Mr. and Mrs. Lupton left large bequests for the horticultural department, as commercial apple growing forms one of the leading industries in Frederick County and has been the means of bringing many related enterprises to Winchester.

Dead Wood Cutter In Barred Home

Wife of Mountaineer Said in Reports at Luray to Be Missing.

Special to The Washington Post.

Luray, Va., June 13.—His dead body found within his home and his wife gone furnish meager details of a mystery near Etlan, 25 miles east of Luray. Friends of William Adkins, living near that place on Monday found Adkins' body locked in his mountain home. All efforts to locate Mrs. Adkins, it is said, have been futile. Every window in the Adkins home was either nailed down or barred with heavy pieces of timber.

There were no marks of violence on Adkins' body. He is said to have eked out a meager living by farming and cutting wagon timber from the mountains surrounding his home. The Adkins home is near the Rappahannock-Madison County line and remote from railroads and telephone connections. Officers are trying to locate the missing woman.

Baltimore Securities Firm Faces Injunction

New York, June 13 (A.P.).—The Bureau of Securities of the State attorney general's office today announced that Supreme Court Justice Cropsey had enjoined the Harris Securities Corporation, 111 Broadway, and its officers, Julio Cortado, president, and Charles Hutchings, jr., secretary, from further stock dealings. The firm was incorporated in Maryland and its chief office, located in Baltimore, was recently discontinued, the announcement said.

The injunction was asked by Deputy Attorney General Quinta, who said the firm dealt in listed and unlisted securities on the partial payment plan and on margin.

Admission Favored Of Capital Church

Methodist Board Reports on Centenary During Conference.

Special to The Washington Post.

Cambridge, Md., June 13.—At this morning's meeting of the Maryland annual conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, in session here, the board of survey and church extension brought in a report favoring the admission to the conference of Centenary Church, at Washington, D. C. A movement for the founding of the church was begun a year ago to commemorate the one hundredth anniversary of the Methodist Protestant Church.

Dr. W. W. Davis, superintendent of the Maryland Lord's Day Alliance, delivered an address in which he commended the loyalty of Dr. Leonard B. Smith, president of the Maryland Conference, and of Charles N. Spence, Representative in the Maryland Legislature from Dorchester County, to the Lord's Day cause. He announced the near completion of a textbook on Sabbath observance and its blessing.

Following the reports of the Maryland Conference trustees, the following members of that board were reelected: E. E. Mokosky, B. F. Ruley, J. P. Dodge, T. W. Donoho. Assessment of $8,000 for superannuated ministers was recommended to the budget committee. A recommendation that the headquarters building in Baltimore be transferred by the Maryland Conference to the denomination was accepted, and a committee was appointed to effect the transfer. The Maryland Conference still retains its equity of $75,000 in the building. The Maryland Conference Council of Religious Education was held tonight.
